The Fall Primaries.

Absolutely no interest was manifested in the primary election yesterday in this Borough, or in other parts of the county either, so far as heard from. These were the candidates for which office had little known that it was a sort of farce. The borough vote on this question stands as follows: James Adams 1, Harry E. Deaghtery 4, Otter B. Dickinson 1, James M. Galbreath 21, Webster Grim 6, John J. Henderson 10, John W. Raphael 4, William D. Wallace 16. The tickets nominated for the borough officers are as follows: Burgess, Samuel D. Lewis, Rep and Dem.; Justice of the Peace, E. A. Randall, Rep. H. W. Clark, Dem. Council, Charles Clark, G. W. Holman, Rep.; J. B. Mace, G. A. Lanson; Item Wash. School Director, D. H. Blinn, G. Jamboree, Rep. Wash; William Dickberger, James J. Landers, Dem. Auditor, J. G. Jamison, Rep.; R. L. Hastler, Dem. Collector, L. L. Zaver, Rep.; W. H. Hood, Dem.; Assessor, H. E. Moody, Rep.

IS THE STATE.

It is impossible with the meagre returns in this morning to tell who of the 15 candidates are the successful ones, for Superior Court Judges. Four are to be nominated, and it appears now as though Judge Henderson of Crawford, James Adams of Philadelphia, John W. Raphael of Delaware, and Oliver B. Dickinson of Delaware, would be the leaders in the contest. James B. Reilly of Schuylkill is also running close to the others.

Kelleitville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hrazan and four children, and Mr. and Mrs. David Blinn, of Tionesta, arrived over Sunday in the former's car and called on Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ault and other friends in town. Mrs. James Huling of Tionesta has been the guest of Mrs. Mary Tobey for the past week.

Mrs. Chas. Pope was laid up with tonsillitis the past week. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Grubbs and two children, Kenneth and Geraldine, of East Hickory, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Blinn, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Otto and daughter Lillian, of Bradford, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. E. E. Daubenspeck's family this week. Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Henderson went over in Endeavor Sunday, Walter Crouch coming after them in his car.

Ray Dattarary of Muscatine was a caller in town Sunday. Forie Datar was down from Warren, Sunday, and spent the day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Datar. She was accompanied by three friends from Warren, who brought her down in their car.

Mrs. W. A. Kitch spent a part of the week with her mother in Clarion county. The family moved down Sunday afternoon and brought her home. Lee and Susan Smith of Tylersburg visited their sister, Mrs. Vinton Mealy, Saturday.

Melvin Dattarary went to Meadville Tuesday, where he entered Allegheny College as a junior. Alva Watson left Tuesday for State College, where she enters his sophomore year.

Mrs. Maude Beritz entertained a number of her friends at a lunch party Friday evening. "The Tionesta Republican says: 'The fishing in the river is about the best ever, judging from the fine strings that are being brought in by many any sort of fishermen.' We do not believe 'Burr' Weck would knowingly mislead his readers. It is true he has been a member of the Pennsylvania legislature, and, serving as such, has been exposed in an atmosphere specially designed to develop dissimulation. While it is difficult to eradicate the effects of evil associates, we still prefer to think that Editor Weck has simply been misinformed. In fact he qualifies the statement by adding: 'Selecting the limit of bass and salmon is quite an ordinary stunt if one is inclined to believe all one hears.' Jake is altogether too old an angler to believe all he hears. One of the fishermen of the Weckard bunch has been to the turn of Weckard's statement Wednesday, rowing back and forth on the President eddy, until his light white hands were as white as snow, yet he got not a fish nor a nibble. Parties who think the fishing in the river is about the best ever should try it. We have spoken."—Our Own Witness.

Well, we simply couldn't think of anybody when we used the expression, 'any sort of fishermen.' We should have further qualified it by excepting the Weckard editors. But we thought that would be understood, as a matter of course.

Forest County W. C. T. U. Convention.

The twenty-seventh annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Forest County was held in the M. E. church at West Hickory, Sept. 9 and 10, 1913. County President, Mrs. S. M. Sturpe, presided in her usual capable manner, giving an address at the opening of the convention which well merited the demonstration which followed its delivery. The general officers were all present, also delegates from the different unions, and superintendents of various departments. State President, Mrs. Ella M. George, was present during the entire convention, and her gracious personality, together with her willingness to serve, did much to make the convention one of the best ever held in the county. On Tuesday evening Mrs. George spoke on 'The Question of the Home,' and on Wednesday evening the Christian Citizenship convention, recently held at Portland, Ore., was her subject. Having been a delegate to that convention, Mrs. George gave a synopsis of it with an address which inspired her listeners.

The address was read by Mrs. Margaret Beck on 'Woman's Suffrage,' Mrs. Ella Weck on 'Scientific Temperance Instruction,' Mrs. Jennie Agnew, on 'Our Country's Debt to Women's Work.' Action was taken regarding the making of these papers obtainable by the different local unions, thus disseminating much valuable truth.

Songs were rendered by Dr. W. G. Morrow and Mr. Fitzgerald of West Hickory, and Prof. F. A. Wheeler, of Mercer, Pa. Miss Florence Dale of West Hickory very capably presided at the organ, and with the soloists, made the music a pleasant feature of the convention. A memorial service was conducted by the President for Mrs. Nancy Dale and Mrs. Dorcas Thompson, and Mr. Nelson Cole, who was an honorary member of Nebraska Union.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Myrtle Hulings, of Tionesta; Vice Pres., Mrs. Alice Siggins, West Hickory; Recording Sec., Mrs. Melba Henderson, Kelleitville; Corresponding Sec., Mrs. Ida Small, Tionesta; Treasurer, Mrs. Augusta Kelly, Tionesta. An invitation to hold the next convention at Clarington was accepted. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the convention:

We the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Forest County, in convention assembled at West Hickory, desire to recognize and honor our leader in the great work of temperance reform, and to express our thanks for his continued mercies and love, care throughout another year of warfare against the liquor traffic.

Whereas, The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, to which we affirm our allegiance, stands for total abstinence for the individual, and for constitutional prohibition for the state and nation, aims to educate and uplift, to supplant ignorance with knowledge, and to aid in overcoming evil heredity with right environment. Therefore, be it resolved, that we recognize the legalized saloon to be the most deadly enemy to the development and perpetration of the race, and a menace to Christian civilization, and we further declare our unceasing warfare against its action by the American government.

Whereas, As an organization we are at war with the saloon, therefore, be it resolved, that, as individual members we pledge our lives to keep separate and apart, socially and financially, from the liquor traffic, and to "touch not the unclean thing" in the end that this traffic may be expelled from our land, and our people be saved from its despoiling influence.

Whereas, The Church has forbidden all members to rent property for the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages, to sign petitions or to go on bonds to secure license, to present applications in court which legalize the traffic, to purchase or hold an interest in either brewery or distillery, or in anyway whatsoever to aid or abet the evil of intemperance, and the church further declares the licensing of liquor traffic to be unscriptural, unethical, immoral, unspiritual, logical, and immoral, therefore wholly inconsistent with the claims of Christian discipleship. Therefore, be it resolved, that we urge each individual member to stand by the principles of the Church in the above matter.

Whereas, we believe that the welfare of humanity and civil life demand that the convictions of women be expressed in politics and law. Therefore, be it resolved, that we appreciate and work in an endeavor to secure her enfranchisement, that she may be counted a constituent and thereby have power to enact legislation for the protection of the home.

Whereas, in view of the fact that the majority of our people repeatedly remonstrance against the granting of license to sell intoxicating liquors, and are repeatedly ignored by the Judges of the License Court, therefore, be it resolved, that we urge all voters who have the welfare of Forest County at heart, to cast their ballots for Judges who will give respectful and intelligent attention to evidence presented in court regarding violations of the law, and who will also consider the character and number of the remonstrants, and compare them to the character and number of the petitioners.

Whereas, we realize the importance of systematic, educational, evangelistic, social, legal and preventive work, therefore be it resolved, that we endeavor to do more effective department work, and we urge each county superintendent to form more definite plans for the year, each local superintendent to carry out these plans and report the same at the close of the year.

Whereas, the pursuit of the study of Scientific Temperance Instruction by all the pupils in all the schools, as the law demands, requires at least three lessons per week for ten weeks of each school year, below the second year of high school, therefore, be it resolved, that the Scientific Temperance Instruction department of each local union see to it that we have the best text books on this subject placed in our schools, and that the subject is being taught as is defined by law.

Resolved, that we commend the wise and patriotic refusal of prominent civic officials to serve alcoholic beverages on their tables, and express the earnest wish that the day may not be far distant when no one, either in public or private life, will sanction the liquor traffic by using its products.

Whereas, the editors of our county newspapers do not print liquor advertisements. Therefore, be it resolved, that we most heartily commend them for this attitude, and for the courteous acceptance of all our temperance contributions.

All words testify express our sense of appreciation for the kindly welcome from the W. C. T. U. and friends of West Hickory. To them, the pastor and officials of the Church for the use of building, the choir and individual singers for beautiful music, to Mrs. George, our beloved State President, for her presence and help during the entire convention, and to all who in any way contributed to the success and enjoyment of the convention, we tender grateful thanks.

Peace Survive. Death of Dr. R. S. Wallace. Dr. Robert S. Wallace, in his 82 year, for more than 50 years a practicing physician and surgeon at East Brady and vicinity, passed away at 5 o'clock, Sunday morning, Sept. 15, 1913, at his home in that place after an illness of three and one half years. Dr. Wallace was born in Sugar Creek township, Armstrong county, February 10, 1832, and was a son of Dr. Samuel Stollie and Maria (Craig) Wallace, both deceased. At the early age of 23 years he graduated with high honors from Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, and immediately formed a partnership with his father, and when his father's death occurred he associated with his brother, since deceased, and in 1887 he removed to East Brady which was his home from that time until his death Sunday. Soon after entering upon his practice he was appointed railroad surgeon, and there is probably no other railroad surgeon alive, or who has preceded him, who has performed more amputations or attended more injured cases among railroad employees than Dr. Wallace.

In 1887 he was married to Miss Ada Newton who with one daughter, Miss Anna J. Wallace, at home, survives. Another daughter, Cora, died a few years ago. Mrs. Wallace is a sister of our townswoman, Mrs. J. H. Derickson, both of whom attended the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Neal of Bradford less than two weeks ago. Dr. Wallace was a physician widely known for his skill and learning. He was called into consultation far and wide and he was always ready to respond to the needs of the sick or injured no matter how weary he might be in body or how inclement the weather. He loved his profession and his chief delight was in conquering diseases and allaying pain. His presence in a sick room always inspired confidence and his long life has been a benediction in countless homes throughout the section in which practically all of his useful life was spent. He was a member of the East Brady Presbyterian church and of Lodge No. 619 F. & A. M. The funeral will be at his late home this Wednesday, afternoon commencing at 1 o'clock and the committal services will be by members of the lodge. The interment will be in the family mausoleum in the Brady's Bend cemetery.

FUGITIVE THOMAS CAUGHT

Eight Days' Man Hunt Ended by Capture of Murder Suspect. Walter Thomas, the missing farmhand charged with the murder of Mrs. Oliver Price near Rice Landing, Pa., was captured on the Arsenal pike, four miles from Washington, Pa. Deputy Sheriff Price, who is a son of the murdered woman, accompanied by her husband and others, formed an automobile posse which overtook Thomas. The farmhand was in a wagon, driving alone, when the pursuing car reached him. He was brought to the Washington county jail.

"I am innocent," declared Thomas in jail in Waynesburg, Pa. Almost in the next breath he had asked Warden W. B. McBride: "What will they do with me if they find me guilty?" He covered his face with his hands when the warden replied: "They probably will hang you."
