Republican Ticket.

District Attorney, M. A. CARRINGER, Tionesta Borough.

The Jeffersonian simplicity of history simply hasn't a chance these days with Secretary Bryan...

There are more people going to Sunday-school every Sunday in the state of Pennsylvania than in any other state in the union.

The vote on Superior Judgeship. The official vote on the Superior Court Judgeship in Forest county reveals the fact that little more than one-tenth of the registration voted on that question...

In the state at large the question as to which four of the fifteen candidates received the highest vote and who will be the nominees is very much in doubt...

Young Lady Given Fatal Dose. Coroner George A. W. DeForest, of Warren county, and jury are investigating the death of Miss Sylvia Davis...

The deceased, who was a daughter of Mrs. George S. Davis, was 22 years of age. She enjoyed much popularity and esteem in her social circles...

Mrs. Samuel Wood and Mrs. W. W. Hotel were in Mt. Jewett Saturday. Miss Marie Kane spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents...

Miss Helen Kane was home from Mt. Jewett over Sunday. Mr. Fink spent Saturday with his wife in Johnsonburg.

S. S. Esbelman had a finger smashed recently but is getting along nicely. Willie Kane and Miss Stella Hotel were calling on Mt. Jewett friends Saturday evening.

Mrs. Pierson and son are visiting her mother and other relatives in Oil City for a few weeks. Charley Wood and brother Elmer attended the Smithport Fair Friday.

Miss Moore, teacher of Crushaw school, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Dixon. A surprise party was given for Joseph Dixon, Friday evening, it being his fortieth birthday.

Kelleetville.

Mrs. Samuel Whitmore of Clarion is the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Daubenspeck. Frank Nash has moved his family into one of the tannery houses lately vacated by Prof. Simmons.

Rev. John A. Lavelly, the Erie Conference Temperance Evangelist, has been in town the past week and gave lectures on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Sunday evenings.

Mr. Jacob Dingle is moving his family from Buck Mills to town this week. John Peterson has purchased the Keele house from W. A. Kribbs and will move his family there this week.

Ellison Watson has also bought one of the Kribbs houses, now occupied by Guy Brady, and will take up housekeeping there as soon as Brady's move into the house vacated by Peterson's.

Guy Hunter's have moved into the rooms above the meat market. Mrs. Henry Smalinger was a Warren visitor the first of the week, going over with Hulda Coy of Newtown Mills, who was going to the hospital there.

Mrs. Finley is at home visiting her parents this week. We are glad to note that Viola Cunningham, who was so badly burned, is able to walk around some and will soon be herself again.

Mrs. Martha Grubbs of Nebraska was the guest of Mrs. John Blum on Friday. Dr. and Mrs. C. Y. Dotar drove to Tionesta Friday evening and attended lodge.

Some of our young people drove to Nebraska Saturday afternoon and took in the ball game. James Flynn and Hazel Copeland visited the latter's home in Tionesta, Sunday, going over from the ball game.

Wm. Cunningham is in town putting in new cement sidewalks on the school grounds. James Smith's baby is quite sick.

The Ladies' Adult Bible Class of the M. E. church held a business meeting on Saturday afternoon. They had a good attendance of the members and considerable business was transacted.

The selection of a name, and "The Helping Hand" was selected as the name of the class, with the motto, "We must do things well." It was decided to close the charter Sunday, Sept. 28, and they are hunting for fifty charter members.

Forty names have been handed in so far. Any one wishing to make one of the fifty will be gladly welcomed by the class. Mrs. Wm. Watson has been on the sick list for the past week.

Albert Leichtenberger of Porkey has bought what is known as the Rhode Shaw house and will move his family to town this week.

Prof. Carson, superintendent of schools, was in town several days during the week and visited the schools. Prof. Terrill was down from Mayburg over Sunday.

Wm. Neal of Bradford visited at the home of Alonzo Huliet several days during the week. He and Mrs. Naomi Huliet were Warren visitors on Friday and when they returned the youth of the town thought they detected wedding bells in the air and proceeded to get a bustle on to collect all the other kind of bells and other instruments of noise and treated them to an ear-splitting serenade, but were informed that they were ahead of time and no treat was given.

A Warren paper gives an announcement of their license so the youngsters may have something coming in the future. Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Henderson took a business trip up the creek on Saturday.

A mothers' meeting was held at the school house on Tuesday afternoon and a number of the mothers were present and several important questions were acted upon, one being a promise of co-operation of parents in calling the children off the streets and making eight o'clock a study hour.

We are inclined to believe that some of the mothers were not at the meeting or have forgotten their promise. We believe it was a move in the right direction and all parents who have the good of their children at heart and believe in civic reform should see to it that at least those of their household are not found on the streets after the stated time.

Mr. and Mrs. Olan left Thursday for their home in Bradford. E. E. Daubenspeck and son Charles were business visitors in Tylersburg Saturday.

Ora Kitch took several friends down to Tionesta Saturday evening for an auto ride. Lynch.

The dance at Chas. Barber's Saturday night was well attended. A. E. Rhodes of Mayburg called on friends here Wednesday.

W. M. Lindsey drove down from Sheffield Friday evening and stayed overnight at the home of Curt. Ion. Miss Helen Geyre returned to Sheffield Monday morning, where she is employed at the home of Chas. McNeal.

Chas. McNeal was at Lynch Wednesday. W. M. Sinclair and W. I. Bennett finished lifting their potatoes Friday. They have one hundred bushels.

Mr. and Mrs. John Knapp are stopping at Chas. Lobdell's boarding house until they can get a house, as their house burned a few weeks ago. Miss Mabel Culbertson is working at Chas. Lobdell's boarding house here.

A Trip To The Fruit Country.

During the first week of this month I visited relatives in the midst of that fine agricultural fruit region along the shores of Lake Ontario, in the vicinity of Rochester, N. Y. Notwithstanding that they have had about the same amount of dry weather that we have experienced here, and the field crops have suffered some, and that section, the heavily loaded orchards of apple, peach and plum trees attest the excellence of the soil, and the attention of the orchardists to their trees, and furnishes proof conclusive that the labor bestowed upon them was not in vain. These fine results were obtained from the correct modes of treatment, such as spraying the trees well at the proper times, coupled with the fact that they do not allow trees in that prosperous section of our land to become so bound, but work the land up to the very trunks of the trees. The effect of this is beneficial in two ways, as it increases first the size of the fruit, and secondly the quality, being free from the insect pests common to neglected orchards.

I saw about half an acre of peaches, of the finest imaginable quality, reddening and ripening under the daily suns of the season, heavily loading the trees, and ready to gather in. It was a beautiful sight to behold. Just think of it, fruit of this kind raised on the place successively for about a hundred years, and of a kind that did not require grafting and budding as the common nursery peach trees do, because these peaches followed the stone or pits all these years, and are practically exempt from freezing out—the outside a rosy red, and the flesh a bright yellow—of large size and desirable quality. I brought some of these home with me, and gave some of my neighbors the stones to plant, and thus introduce this desirable fruit into Forest county. They practically render every man his own nurseryman. Of course the lifetime of the peach tree is short—perhaps fifteen years. Successive planting of pits or stones is desirable every four or five years and thus a succession of the fruit kept up. We are about 200 miles south of Rochester, the finest fruit section of New York, and it looks as if we ought to raise just as much fruit and of as good quality, thus rendering our waste fields a perfect paradise of fruit, both apples and peaches. Apples do so well in our section, considering how they are neglected, on grounds naturally adapted to their production, what would be the case if they were well cultivated, are reflections that run through my mind. This is no Utopian dream. S. D. I.

Porkey.

Miss Chloë Cook of Mayburg was the guest of the Rupert family Saturday evening and Sunday.

Miss Bessie Littlefield went to Saybrook Saturday to assist Mrs. J. B. Littlefield with her household duties for a few months.

J. W. Dunkle of Pious Avenue is going to take in the Clarion fair on Thursday of this week and will meet several of his brothers he has not seen for a long time, making it a little reunion for the brothers.

E. T. Downey returned Saturday from a trip to Grand Valley and Titusville, in which he had a very enjoyable time for a few days. It is very seldom the oil workers can get away and this was a treat for Earl.

Marion Burdick has returned from Illinois and hired out to the J. C. Miller lumber company, on Minister, and will remain with us awhile at least.

There was a benefit social given here on Saturday a week ago to help out the James Littlefield family, who were burned out some few weeks ago at Saybrook, and about $10 was raised for them. After the fellows had left the social for home they engaged in a little bout of football, and one fellow got his mug barked some, but no internal damage as the interior was well saturated with joyousness, which is also a good antidote for snake poisoning. Oh yes, little fact!

Mrs. O. E. Rupert and baby are the guests of Mrs. Rose Bloss and other relatives at Sheffield, expecting to return the first of the week to renew the canning campaign.

E. L. Littlefield and family returned from their eastern trip Saturday, and feel well repaid for the car-fare spent on this trip, as they had a fine visit.

The best social function of the season was pulled off last Saturday evening at the Hessler home, when a pie and ice cream social was held for the benefit of the church at Minister. There were people from Cherry Grove and Phelps present and everything was fine until the rain came, about 8:45 p. m. Everyone had a fine time but an unpleasant trip home. There were three kinds of cream, so as to suit the most fastidious. Almost all the time strains of both vocal and instrumental music filled the house, which was entertaining, as many different ones played the piano.

Mr. Dobson at Wellers out his knee a few days ago and it appears to be in a dangerous place as we are told the joint-water was lost, and that looks like a stiff knee to us. However, we hope it will come out all right, and soon, too. It is hard to lose the time in this fine weather as later we will see a different kind.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Leichtenberger began housekeeping in the Spencer house at Wellers on the south side of the road last week, and are now at home to their many friends.

Our good old state road is becoming a rotten way with no one to look after it and it will soon be a disgrace to civilization. Last week a small brick at the Proper lease was impassable for lumber wagons, and some one put in new planks before the considerable drove past, which just saved their hides. Down at Brush Camp there is a dangerous hole in the road and some one may be hurt there as there is a crooked "S" just this side of it. There will soon be a good man on the road who can plug holes with water. Yes, verily, and his name is "Jack."

Dragged into Grinding Machine. Toney Testa, aged twenty-nine, was killed at the plant of a glass company in Jeannette, Pa. Testa was attending to the clay grinding machine and was dragged in, a piece of his clothing being caught in the mechanism. His whole body was crushed.

Falls Off Roof in Sleep. Harry C. Ford, president of the Iron City Produce company, walked in his sleep off the front porch of his home in Pittsburgh. He fell seven feet to the ground. Several ribs were broken and physicians think Ford is otherwise internally injured.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured. "I was taken with diarrhoea and Mr. York, the merchant here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one dose of it I was cured. It also cured others that I gave it to," writes M. E. Gebhart, Orin, Pa. That is not at all unusual. As a general rule, diarrhoea can almost invariably be cured by one or two doses of this remedy. For sale by all druggists. adv.
