 —J. C. Scowden shipped one of his special make of wagons to the Lovell Manufacturing Co., Erie, Pa., Saturday morning. It was not only a handsome piece of work but one of the substantial kind as well, having 4-inch tires and other accessories to match.
 —A resident of Tionesta township informs us that unknown parties have been doing a lot of digging near the old location of the Wilburine pump station, on Little Tionesta creek, pinning their faith to the dreams of an aged resident, who says there is buried treasure in that vicinity.
 —Judge Porter of Lawrence county was here Monday and heard argument in the case of Elmer Walters vs. Dunn, Landers & Co., on a motion for judgment. He took the papers with him and will render his decision later. The case of Detar against Kerr Lumber Co., on a motion for a new trial on the part of the plaintiff was unable to get here and the case was postponed. These cases were tried before Judge Porter, sitting in our courts, about a year ago.
 —Rev. J. Bell Neff, D. D., of DuBois, and Mrs. Margaret Richer, of Greensburg, were married in Pittsburgh Wednesday last week by Rev. J. V. Wallace, D. D., editor of the Pittsburgh Advocate. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in DuBois. For some years he has been located in DuBois, where he is superintendent of the Clarion district of the Erie conference. Dr. Neff has almost a national reputation as a lecturer. His wife is prominent in the intellectual circles of Greensburg.

—Acknowledgment of subscription renewals is made as follows, with thanks: Mrs. R. O. Groschupp, Mt. Jewett, Pa. (new); K. R. Morrison, West Hickory, Pa.; A. M. Dunkle, Kellettville, Pa.; Jos. A. Starnes, Kane, Pa.; Curt. Ion, Lynch, Pa. (new); R. B. Kifer, Endeavor, Pa.; Charles Grant, Mayburg, Pa.

—Ed. Sittlinger, employed at the Coleman mill during the past summer, has moved his family back to Lamson, Alabama, where he had lived for three or four years prior to coming north. Ed. seems to prefer the salubrious sun of the south to wintry northern blasts, and we don't blame him, though sorry to lose him as a quiet, orderly citizen.

—Attorney Curtis M. Shawkey, of Warren, last week received his appointment as United States Commissioner for the Pittsburgh district from William T. Lindsey, clerk of the United States district court. This is Mr. Shawkey's third consecutive appointment to the office. Evidently Curt fulfills the requirements to your Uncle Sam's satisfaction.

—Harry Potter, foreman of the stocking operations at Yankee Camp, near the headwaters of Blue Jay for the Salmon Creek Lumber Co., met with a severe accident by being crushed under a load of bark which was being handled by the loading machine, Monday of last week, straining his back severely. He was suffering from a severe cold at the time, which added considerably to his distress and the ill effect of his accident. He was brought to his home at Nebraska, where a good rest is expected to bring him around all right in a short time.

—The Y. P. B. Society of Nebraska, held a meeting at the home of Miss Lorna Small, Tuesday evening, September 23d. After devotional exercises an excellent report of the W. C. T. U. convention held at West Hickory was read. The Misses Anna Cole, Augusta Hunter and Bertha Marie McKee read the following pieces: The Railroad Man's Prayer; Don't Smoke, Buy; Dat Ol' Pipe. Miss Isabella Scott gave a reading on "Does It Pay?" Two new members were added to the list, making a total of twenty-one members. After games and music a dainty lunch was served, which all enjoyed.

—The Sheffield correspondent of the Warren Times says: Samuel Haslet and Dad Allen left last evening for Tionesta where Samuel's parents reside. Daddy will stay with him over Sunday and fish for bass. If the river takes a sudden drop we will not be alarmed as we then know they are catching plenty. They tried to sneak away from the writer so that they could fish without having to report at home.—Lawrence Klinefelter left last evening for Philadelphia where he will enter the University of Pennsylvania for the freshman year. Lawrence was honored with a free scholarship at that institution in having attained the high honors of the High school class of 1913. He will take up chemistry as a vocation.

—Oliver Mealy was quite badly injured and Add Shriver and Mert Alexander were considerably bruised and shaken Tuesday last week, when the scaffolding on which they were working at the new Mt. Zion church, Tionesta township gave way and they were precipitated to the floor below, a distance of over 20 feet. Mr. Mealy fell against one of the church windows, which broke, and several of the larger veins and arteries in his left arm were severed, and a jagged fragment of glass was driven into the palm of his hand. He was attended by Dr. James Hess, of Leeper, who does not anticipate any permanent ill effects from the injuries although the process of healing will probably be long and tedious. After all this was a lucky escape for all of the men, as their injuries might have been far worse.

—The 18-month-old daughter of Gus Motter died at the home of her parents near Linesville, Venango county, Saturday night from burns of frightful nature. The child came from another part of the house into the kitchen, where it overturned a can containing kerosene oil, then crawled in the fluid on the floor. Its clothing was saturated before the mother detected it. She put the child in another room and then set fire to the fluid on the wooden floor of the kitchen as the easiest manner of removing it. The child returned without the mother's notice and its oil-impregnated clothing ignited from the burning oil. Instantly the little one was enveloped in flames, its death occurring within a short time. The family is well known to many of our readers, and the distracted parents have the sympathy of the entire countryside in this most distressing occurrence.

—Mrs. Helen Gray, of Philadelphia, Pa., who used to be Miss Helen Sibbald, daughter of Dr. James Sibbald, who will be remembered by many of the older residents of Tionesta and vicinity, was married to Rev. James Shields, now deceased, and later married Rev. G. W. Gray. After having spent the best of her life in the itinerant work, she yet had the nerve, at the age of more than "three score and ten years," to enter an exhibit at the Philadelphia County Fair, in the "Home Department," consisting of bread, pies, cakes, jellies, spiced and canned fruits. She won nine first premiums, one second premium, and won the silver cup offered by the fair association for the best loaf of home-made wheat bread. There were fifty or more contestants. Mrs. Gray is now living with her brother, Dr. James Sibbald, and is still in the enjoyment of good health.

—Bears are not only reported as being numerous this season but are getting to be mighty familiar it would seem. Last Wednesday evening as the men employed on the Coleman bridge piers were returning from their work, a large black bear bounded out into the road a few rods ahead of them and, seeing they weren't "loaded for bear," the fellow leisurely strolled down toward the creek and crossed the shallow stream and disappeared in the woods. The men didn't follow. The spot where the bear was first seen is but a short half mile from the borough line. The same bear was seen a little later crossing the farm of Al. Strickberg on Smokey hill, and Billy Smrekar, working for Jamieson at Oldtown, almost jumped astride the big brute while going through the woods the previous day. They all agree that Bruin is a monster. Sunday while strolling along the Ross Run road, George Burbanck came upon a good-sized bear and was within three rods of the black fellow, who reared up and faced him for several seconds, and George could easily have laid him low, but for three reasons—he didn't have gun, it was Sunday, and the season was not yet open.

PERSONAL.
 —George Hunter was down from Sheffield over Sunday.
 —Mrs. Anna Hassey, of Oil City, spent Sunday with Tionesta friends.
 —Mrs. Elizabeth Tremain of Bradford was a visitor in town the past week.
 —Prof. F. W. Gill of Tidouste was a Sunday visitor with Tionesta friends.
 —Herbert and Miss Bessie Hepler are back from Akron, Ohio, on a visit to Tionesta friends.
 —Hon. Lewis Emery Jr. and wife of Bradford were guests of Tionesta friends over Monday night.
 —Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Rodda of Warren are guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Rodda.
 —Dallas Reek is the latest to take on the auto fever, and is driving a pretty Studebaker run-about.
 —Mrs. George Galey, of Grove City, is here for a few weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. J. R. Morgan.
 —Mrs. George McNamee, of Oil City, was here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fones, over Sunday.
 —Editor and Mrs. J. B. Muse attended the celebration of old home week in Pittsburgh several days last week.
 —Mrs. J. P. Sheasley, who is visiting her parents at West Hickory, was a guest of Tionesta friends Thursday.
 —Mrs. J. N. Sandrock and daughter Dorothy of Oil City spent the Sabbath with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jamieson.
 —Mrs. Thomas Mays and Mrs. George Coe and children were guests of the family of Charles Kenniston, in Oil City, over Sunday.
 —Judge J. M. Morgan returned to his lumber job near St. George, Thursday, and Mrs. Morgan accompanied him for a stay of a month or more.
 —Mr. and Mrs. William Smearbaugh, Misses Marie and Helen Smearbaugh, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brown, autoed to Clarion Thursday and visited the fair.
 —Sam T. Carson and Bruce Hagerty were among those who took advantage of the excursion from Bradford Sunday to come down and spend the day at home.
 —Mrs. R. R. Shimmel of Portland, Oregon, who is visiting her mother and other friends at Kellettville, her former home, was a visitor in Tionesta yesterday.
 —Mrs. H. M. Foreman and Miss Ruth Foreman spent a part of the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Foreman, in Warren, and the latter is now their guest here.
 —Chas. Daubenspeck and Willis Dunkle of Kellettville, and Misses May Sanner and Belle Anderson of this place, attended the Clarion fair Thursday, motoring over in the former's car.
 —R. B. Kifer, one of Hickory township's steady going and prosperous farmers, was in yesterday morning to see that the label on his paper was shoved ahead another year.
 —G. F. and Harry Watson, Chas. Clark, L. J. Hopkins and M. A. Carringer, autoed over and took in the Clarion fair Thursday. Fifteen thousand people are thought to have been there on that day.
 —Mrs. Kate B. Craig and daughter, Miss Daisy Craig, arrived from Los Angeles, Calif., last evening for an extended visit with eastern friends, and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smearbaugh.
 —Miss Blanche Pease went to Akron, Ohio, Friday noon, where she has accepted a position as primary teacher in the public schools of that flourishing city, at a salary of $72.50 per month for a term of ten months.
 —Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hagerty, Miss Eva Hagerty, Miss Ima Hagerty, Master Doyle Wallace and James E. Lucas autoed over from Sigel, Pa., and spent Sunday and Monday here as guests of the former's sister, Mrs. A. A. Pease.
 —Frank McNeal and Oscar Moore of Kane, Chas. McNeal and Wm. Farnsworth of Sheffield, spent Friday here and tried the fishing, but it was one of the dry days for the fish and they wouldn't strike any sort of bait. However, the bunch pulled out of here Saturday morning with a good supply of fish just the same.
 —A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ledebur, in Tionesta township, Wednesday morning, Sept. 24, 1913, when their accomplished daughter, Miss Bessie Alice Ledebur, was united in marriage with Mr. James W. Bisker of Oil City. Rev. B. F. Foit of Tionesta officiated at the pretty function.
 —Mr. and Mrs. David Mintz of Marienville, were visitors here and in Oil City Friday. Mr. Mintz, who met such a heavy loss in the burning of his large brick block and all its contents last week, expects to start in business again in a small way for the winter in order to keep himself busy, and in the spring may enlarge it to former proportions.
 —Midshipman Kepler Davis left yesterday for Annapolis, Md., to again take up his studies and report for duty at the U. S. Naval Academy, his month's furlough having expired. Kepler enjoyed every minute of his home visit and would fain have stayed longer, but Uncle Sam expects his soldier boys to "face the music" and they are generally on hand when taps are sounded.
 —Archie Bates of Louisville, Ky., spent a part of the past week as a guest at the home of his aunt, Mrs. A. B. Kelly. It is twenty-five years or more since he was a Tionesta boy, and this was his first visit to the handsome old town since then. But you'd scarcely believe it when looking into Archie's boyish face, which would easily pass for a 25-year-old. And he tells us he's a grandpa. Ugh, how time does fly!

Weddings.
ARMSTRONG-SNYDER.
 The wedding of Miss Grace Velora Armstrong, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Armstrong, of River avenue, Avalon, and Edward Snyder, of the East End, took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride, with the Rev. S. W. McKelvey, of the Avalon Presbyterian Church, as the officiating clergyman. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white messaline, draped with shadow lace and her flowers were white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Martha Kathleen Armstrong, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was of yellow crepe de chine, trimmed with shadow lace and crystal, and she carried an armful of pink roses, tied with pink chiffon. J. Robb Snyder was his brother's best man, and the wedding music was played by Mrs. A. E. Berg, pianist, of Oakmont, and William Berg, violinist. Asters and ferns were used in the decorations. No cards have been sent out, but upon their return from a western trip Mr. and Mrs. Snyder will be "at home" in James street, Wilkinsburg, after October 1.—Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph, Sept. 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. Snyder spent a few days of the past week in Tionesta where the bride has a host of friends, and where her girlhood days were passed during the residence here of her parents.

HARLET-ARNER.
 At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin M. Arner of the Borough, yesterday morning, an event of more than usual pleasure and interest took place, when their daughter, Miss Katherine E. Arner, was united in marriage with Mr. Samuel S. Harlet. The occasion was one of pretty simplicity, and the guests present were those only of the immediate family relationships. Following the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Harry A. Bailey of the Presbyterian church, at 7 o'clock, a wedding breakfast was served, and at 9 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Harlet were driven in an automobile to Titusville where they took the train for a short honeymoon trip, after which they will make their home in Sheffield. Both young people are so favorably known in Tionesta, their birthplace, that nothing we could say would add to their popularity or the high esteem in which they are held. The bride is one of Tionesta's very best girls, an ornament to society and to the church which she has faithfully served from childhood. For nine years she has most efficiently filled the position of deputy Prothonotary and Recorder and her place will be hard to fill; in fact we know of no young lady who would be more missed from our community than she. Samuel is one of our town's best productions, always reliable, of correct habits and steady as clockwork. The REPUBLICAN joins the happy young couple's host of friends in sincere congratulations and best wishes for a prosperous future.

Free Methodist Appointments.
 The following appointments of ministers have been made in the Oil City Conference of the Free Methodist church, which closed its sessions at Port Allegheny, Pa., Monday:
 Oil City District—Wm. Bryenton, district elder; Oil City, First church, E. S. Zahniser; Oil City, Second church, F. N. Fox; Coal Hill, Rev. Mr. Howell; Franklin, H. W. Mitchell; Mayburg and Kellettville, G. S. Bryan; Pleasantville, to be supplied; Tionesta and Newmansville, M. E. Wolcott; Titusville, A. J. Beattie; Tidouste and East Hickory, F. A. Rees; Youngsville, E. Blows; Warren, W. A. Quirk.
 Other appointments, which will be of local interest, are: New Castle, Arlington Avenue, G. A. Garrett; Meadville, E. L. Moore; Duke Center and Rickard, A. H. M. Zahniser; Ulysses, H. D. Call; Bradford, F. W. McClelland; Tyrone, A. T. Sager; Kane and Tyrone District, J. J. Zahniser, district elder; Gearhartville, H. N. Hepler; Penfield, R. B. Brewster; Condersport, F. W. Parks; Marienville and Tylersburg, W. O. Webster.

Hunters' License.
 Treasurer Brazoo has been kept busy of late issuing hunters' licenses, and up to date he has doled out considerably over 200. Not every one who takes out a license expects to hunt the season through but many do so for the purpose of protecting themselves in case they might want to take a stroll in the woods with a gun, for he it known, that when you are in the woods with a gun the presumption is that you're hunting and if caught without a permit you are subject to $20 fine. Speaking along the line of hunting licenses Dr. Joseph Kalbfus, secretary of the state game commission, says: The law provides that a land-owner, or a tenant, residing upon and cultivating land, may hunt upon that land without securing said license; he may also hunt upon land immediately adjacent and connected with his land, without the license, if he secures permission to so hunt from those who control the adjoining land. This privilege covers only the property upon which the owner or tenant resides and cultivates; it does not include other tracts of land lying in different sections of the county or the Commonwealth; it does not include the woodlot or strip of mountain land that may be located immediately from such place of residence or cultivation. It does include the woodlot that is a part of the actual place of residence, a part of which is under cultivation."

Lynch.
 Mrs. A. E. Rhodes of Mayburg was calling on friends here Tuesday.
 Curt Ion was a Sheffield visitor Monday.
 Mrs. Jennie Brennan of Clarington was calling on friends here Friday and left on the evening train for Fools Creek.
 Bears seem plentiful about here, a number of people having reported seeing them.
 John Knapp lost a good driving horse this week. It dropped dead in the road.

Recent Deaths.
SMALL.
 Miss Agnes B. Small, aged 73 years, died at noon Monday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Bellinda Hahn, 344 Seneca street Oil City. Death was due to a complication of diseases. She was a member of the Trinity M. E. church. She was born at Beaver, Pa., but lived in Oil City for a number of years. The following brothers and sisters survive: Rev. F. M. Small, Spartansburg; J. A. Small Nebraska, Pa.; S. J. Small, Montana; Mrs. V. E. Bridgewater and Mrs. Hahn, of Oil City. Mr. Small of Nebraska, who has made frequent visits to the bedside of his sister during her last illness, was with her when she died.

ISHMAN.
 Benjamin Ishman, one of Barnett township's well known and highly esteemed citizens, died at his home in that township Saturday, Sept. 27, 1913, after a long illness of general paresis. He was aged 55 years, and leaves his wife and four sons. Mr. Ishman was twice married, his first wife being a Miss Berry, sister of our townsman, W. S. Berry, and his second marriage was to a Miss Potter, who survives him. He had been a life-long resident of the community in which he died, having followed the vocation of a farmer, and from early life had been a member of the M. E. church whose tenets he had conscientiously and consistently followed through life and put them into daily practice. The funeral was held Monday afternoon, services being conducted by his pastor, Rev. D. O. May, and the interment was in the Clarington cemetery.

HEPLER.
 Mrs. Julia Hepler, whose death at Franklin, Sept. 23, 1913, was briefly mentioned in the REPUBLICAN last week, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Shaffer and was born near Emmenton. She had resided in Franklin for the past ten years. She leaves the following children: Charles S., Emmenton; J. L., Tionesta; J. E., Cranberry township; W. J., Lawrenceville, Ill.; R. E., Franklin; Mrs. H. B. Farren, Rockland township; Mrs. H. B. Harold, Tionesta; Mrs. L. F. Mollinger, Franklin; Miss Goldie, at home. Two brothers and one sister also survive, as follows: William Shaffer, Franklin; R. L. Shaffer, Emmenton, and Mrs. Sarah J. Hughes, Lawrenceville, Ill. Her husband, Jere Hepler, died many years ago while the family were well known residents near Newmansville, Clarion county. The deceased was aged 67 years. Her death came suddenly the cause being apoplexy. Funeral services were held Thursday, all of her children, including our townsman, J. L. Hepler, being present.

FITZGERALD.
 Mrs. Rebecca Fitzgerald, widow of the late Mr. Solomon Fitzgerald, died at her home in Tionesta, Pa., Saturday morning, Sept. 27, 1913. The deceased was born at Scotch Hill, Clarion county, Pa., August 11, 1836, and was a daughter of William and Maria (Keister) Henry, old residents of that place. Her youth and maidenhood were passed at the place of her birth and in 1855 she was united in marriage with Mr. Solomon Fitzgerald, a veteran of the Civil war, and then a lumberman in Barnett township, Forest county. After marriage Mr. Fitzgerald continued his residence in Jenks and Barnett townships and there followed lumbering until honored by election as county treasurer in 1888, when they moved to Tionesta, where they lived happily together until a few years ago when the head of the family passed to his reward, highly respected by a large circle of friends. Mrs. Fitzgerald was a member of the Tionesta M. E. church and had been a devout member of that church for many years. She is survived by one brother, Mr. William Henry, of Jefferson county, one sister, Mrs. Sarah Reyer, of Tylersburg, Pa., and three children, A. W. Fitzgerald, of East Liverpool, Ohio, Samuel C. Fitzgerald, of New Castle, Pa., and Miss Mayme Fitzgerald, at home. The funeral services were conducted at the late home Monday afternoon by Rev. H. L. Dunlavy, followed by interment in Riverside cemetery.

MAXWELL.
 Mrs. Matilda T. Maxwell passed peacefully and almost painlessly to her eternal rest at her home on Wood street, Clarion, Pa., Sunday night, Sept. 28, 1913, aged 75 years, 1 month and 18 days. She was born in Farmington township, Clarion county, Aug. 10, 1838, to David and Elizabeth Gilmore. She was united in marriage to Jasper N. Maxwell on Sept. 20, 1860. To them four sons were born, all of whom survive their mother, the husband having preceded his wife ten years ago. The sons are: Frank H., of Meigs; Sharp R., of Tionesta; David G., of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, and James P., of Moloia. Two sisters, Mrs. C. S. Zink, of Marienville, and Mrs. N. H. Thompson, of Scotch Hill, and one brother, Joseph P. Gilmore, of Helen Furnace, also survive her. God has been very good to her, granting her many years of health and strength, blessing her with a family of sons who have proven true to her Christian influence, calling her while she was but a girl into His church, and leading her by the hand during all the way of life. In return, she has been a true servant of the Master. She confessed Him in the old Greenwood Presbyterian church and at the time of her death she was a member of the First Presbyterian church of Clarion. Her whole life was a testimony to her fervent faith. She was a loving mother, a kindly neighbor, a cheering friend to the many who knew her, and a faithful member of the church as long as she had strength to serve. As her life ripened, its fragrance increased, assuring those who are left behind that it shall reach its divine perfection in the beyond. For such as she, death had no terrors, and she was ready and waiting for the Master's summons when it came.

Avoid Sedative Cough Medicines.
 If you want to contribute directly to the occurrence of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia use cough medicines that contain opium, morphia, heroin and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold. An expectorant like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is what is needed. That cleans out the culture beds or breeding places for the germs of pneumonia and other germ diseases. That is why pneumonia never results from a cold when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It has a world wide reputation for its cure. It contains no morphia or other sedative. FOR THE HUNTER OR FISHERMAN
 "The bass are bitin'," and there is no better sport in this world than a day spent in a boat on the old Allegheny or on Tionesta Creek.
 And this brings us to the subject of the proper fishing tackle to help make the day a success. We can supply your wants on short notice. Most anything you want can be found at our store, and we guarantee the goods and the prices to be right.
 The hunting season will soon be here and you will need a good gun or ammunition. All kinds of ammunition in stock; also hunting coats. Give us a little time and we can get you any make of gun as cheap as you can buy it anywhere. And we're always here to make good. Come in and talk it over. Always glad to see you.

A WAGON, A BUGGY, OR REPAIRS.
 When you need a new wagon or a buggy, repairs of any kind, etc., come here. Skillful workmen give satisfactory work.

The Boy's Suit.
 There isn't a crying need yet for the boy's fall suit. Almost the pleasantest weather of summer is still with us.
 But that suit is going to be wanted just a little later. Wonder if we can't hit on a plan for getting it which will be most satisfactory to us both.
 It is always a great pleasure to us to be able to give a patron every attention. You know, as well as we do, that in the busiest season we cannot grant everyone all the time and attention we would like. Why not come in now and get thoroughly well acquainted with the Boys' Clothing Store, selecting the suit immediately that you will come hurrying for with the first frosty night?
 We are again calling your attention to our Boys' Suits at $3.00. They are made from all wool cloths, good tailoring and honestly trimmed, and are the best values we ever saw or sold at the price.
 They are all double-breasted coats with lined blouse pants, 8 to 17 sizes—heavy weights and fit to wear through the coldest weather.
 But from this do not draw the conclusion we have not suits of higher quality. We believe we have everything in the clothing line which a growing boy requires.
