

Calendar for 1913 showing dates from 1 to 31.

Republican Ticket.

District Attorney, M. A. CARRINGER, Tionesta Borough.

REDUCING the tariff for the benefit of foreign nations, and making up the difference in revenue receipts by levying a direct tax on our own citizens may be a popular move, but it has yet to be demonstrated to the American people, such.

LAST Friday night President Wilson signed the Democratic tariff bill and it became immediately effective. Now listen to the drop in the high cost of living, and the upward tendency in wages, both of which have been promised by the party now in full possession of affairs in this nation. And if it don't turn out that way there'll be the deal to pay.

THE official and semi-official returns from all the counties of the state as computed at the state department at Harrisburg, indicate that James Aloor, Webster Grim, John W. Kephart and John J. Henderson are the four highest in the count and will be the nominees at the approaching general election. The vote as far as given was as follows: Aloor, 31,290; Ames, 20,223; Bacon, 14,748; Comegys, 23,663; Daugherty, 11,016; Dickinson, 15,276; Fulton, 10,440; Galbreath, 27,826; Grim, 41,784; Henderson, 28,831; Kephart, 42,619; Kiernan, 8,910; J. B. Reilly, 25,378; Paul Reilly, 4,018 and Wallace 20,946. It is not expected that the full official count will change the result.

DRAWING of lots to decide the votes returned for members of state committees held at the office of the secretary of the commonwealth at Harrisburg, resulted in some odd situations last Friday. Three of the men, in whose behalf winning draws were made happen to be members of state committees of different parties to which they have been elected by the formality. This fact puts up to the state committees the question of their membership. None of the interested parties appeared and spectators were designated by Deputy Secretary W. M. Hertzler to draw lots in their behalf. From a field of several persons, each of whom received one vote, David Neale, Democratic state committee man from Jefferson county won in drawing the tie for Socialist state committee man from his county; W. O. Fuellehr, Republican state committee man from Forest, won the Washington party committee seat, and L. F. Keating, Democratic committee man from Forest, the Prohibition state committee place from his county. These selections come to the gentlemen wholly unselected. Mr. Fuellehr is already the Forest county member of the Republican state committee, and being one of our most progressive young men, could easily look after the Washington party's interests if he cared to, but just how our friend Keating is going to manage the Prohibition end of the campaign in this ballwick we are at a loss to know, however he may be able to figure it out somehow.

Blows Up Mock School.

Because he was expelled from a mock school at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., which several little playmates established, John Kershack broke up the session by discharging a dynamite cap and severely injured himself and four others. Kershack was "expelled" because he was unruly. He departed, but soon returned with the cap in one hand and two stones in the other. Placing the cap on one he dealt it a blow with the other. Flying pieces of stone struck the heads, arms and faces of the children.

If you want to contribute directly to the occurrence of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia use cough medicines that contain codine, morphine, heroin and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold.

An expectorant like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is what is needed. That cleans out the culture beds or breeding places for the germs of pneumonia and other germ diseases.
