Forest County Believes In Good Roads

The result in Forest county on the question of good roads is just about what its friends hoped and predicted it would be, giving a majority for the amendment of over 300, judging from figures now at hand, which is in the neighborhood of 3 to 1. It is apparent from this vote that the people believe in pulling the county out of the mud, and it is progressive men you want you'll find it right here.

The only other contest in the county was on the office of District Attorney between M. A. Carringer, Republican and Washington, and T. F. Ritchey, Democrat. Mr. Carringer has apparently been re-elected by 40 to 60 majority.

Judge Henderson, Republican, carries the county on the non-partisan ticket for Superior Court Judge, and Grim, Democrat, is ahead at this writing as second high man.

THE innately dishonest person is always the most suspicious of others. He imagines everybody is a grafter, and wonders how it happens that he cannot get in on some of the "good things."—Pony Spirit. Strange but mighty true. About nine out of every ten who yell the loudest about graft are those who are looking for a share of it.

Good Roads Probably Lost In The State. The proposed amendment to the State constitution authorizing a bond issue for good roads in Pennsylvania is apparently defeated, although returns on that vote are yet very meagre. Unless the cities and towns voted heavily for the amendment it has gone down to defeat, for the country districts, to which the proposition meant so much for good, seem to have voted largely against its adoption.

Throughout the State many hot contests were waged, notably in Philadelphia and Pittsburg. In Philadelphia the Republicans defeated the fusionists backed by the present "reform" administration, re-electing Samuel P. Kotan district attorney by about 40,000 majority and electing James B. Sheehan register of wills, William McCach city treasurer and W. Freeland Kendrick, receiver of taxes.

An unusually bitter contest in Pittsburg resulted in the election of Joseph G. Armstrong as mayor over Stephen G. Porter, backed by Flinn and Magee.

In New York City, Mitchell for Mayor, wins over Tammany by 100,000 majority. Sulzer, the ousted Governor, wins the Assembly fight and will be in the next legislature to get revenge.

In New Jersey, Fielder, Democrat, is elected Governor over Stokes, Republican, by about 15,000 votes. Colby, Progressive, ran over 100,000 behind the vote of that party last year.

W. C. T. U. Work.

CLARINGTON. The W. C. T. U. has just closed a membership contest, gaining forty members, twenty-eight active and twelve honorary. Among the honorary are, Messrs. Roy S. Braden, Floyd Fitzgerald and Thomas Knight. These young men are all teachers in Barnett township. Speaks well for the young men. Oh, that others might follow their good example. We need men in the fight against this giant monster.

Saturday, Nov. 1st, in the U. B. church, a reception was given to the new members. A very good dinner was served, after which Mrs. Brewer gave her report of the state convention held at Johnstown. It was a good and full report. Miss Frantz, our superintendent of the S. T. L. department, gave glimpses of Miss Brehm's lecture delivered at Tionesta.

NEBRASKA. The W. C. T. U. of Nebraska have reason to be proud of their Union. Recently it has been doing more than its usual amount of work, our scribe not having reported our last three meetings. The meeting on anti-narcotics was held at the home of Mrs. Netta Imhof. The attendance was good and the uses of narcotics were discussed in all the various phases. A mothers' meeting at the home of Mrs. Emma Secor. Subject, "Keep mother and me intimate." Several appropriate articles were selected and read. A profitable as well as a pleasant time was passed in discussing the duties of mothers to their families and surroundings.

Our Due social, held in the basement of the church Oct. 18th was well attended. The best of viands as well as the best of order prevailed, and a general good time was had by all present. The amount cleared was about $18, which will be used to furnish table ware for the basement of church. A meeting was held Thursday, Oct. 30, at home of Mrs. Ida Small. We had a very good attendance although a stormy afternoon, and a very good meeting. Subject, Training the Appetite, after which a dainty lunch was served, with Mrs. Kate McNaughton as helper. The next meeting will be held Thursday, Nov. 13, at the home of Mrs. Harry Potter, at which time our County President, Mrs. Myrtle Hollings, will be present to give a report of our State convention held at Johnstown, Pa. PRESS SUPT.

TONIESTA. The regular meeting of the Tionesta W. C. T. U. was held in W. C. R. hall Tuesday evening, October 28th. About fifty persons were in attendance, including the members, their guests and school teachers. Devotional exercises were conducted by the president, Mrs. Clara C. Carson, with prayer by Mrs. Craig. The important feature of the evening's programme was the report of the state convention, which was read by the delegate, Mrs. Myrtle Hollings. The report in itself was most excellent and brought out many encouraging facts concerning the cause of temperance, but when we realize that ninety per cent. of all the crimes committed are caused directly or indirectly by the use of liquor, we feel that yet there is a great work to do. The society felt that they had not made a mistake in sending as a delegate one who is so thoroughly interested in temperance work and capable of bringing back so fine a report. Mrs. Huling was given a rising vote of thanks. Remarks were made by three honorary members, Messrs. Chas. Lanson, F. R. Lanson and R. Moon, which were well received. Mrs. Kate B. Craig, a former member of our society, but now of Los Angeles, Cal., made a neat little speech telling some interesting things about the women voters of her state, she herself having cast a ballot for the President of the United States. After repeating the Lord's Prayer the company were invited to remain for a social hour, at which time delicious refreshments were served. PRESS SUPT.

IDEAL COUNTRY THIS. Spirit Led United States to Conquer Disease at Panama. Ambassador Page, speaking at the cutlers' banquet in Sheffield, England, said he readily accepted the designation of President Wilson as an idealist and of the United States as an idealist republic.

Nothing but idealism, said Mr. Page, led Americans to conquer disease on the isthmus of Panama, the most unhealthy part of the world, making it more healthy than many cities in the British empire and then put men to work there to build a canal. What does the cost matter? he asked. It was an ideal and when an ideal seizes the mind of the American people a hundred million pounds is nothing.

STUDENTS LOSE ALL. Main Hall of Moravian Seminary Destroyed by Fire. The main buildings of the Moravian college and theological seminary known as Comenius hall at Bethlehem, Pa., was destroyed by fire. The loss is believed may reach $100,000. No loss of life is reported. It is believed all the students got out safely, but several firemen were hurt in fighting the flames.

The students lost all but the clothing they wore. Most of them are being cared for in the homes of local citizens.

Fight For Million Dollars. A caveat was filed in Philadelphia against the probating of the will of the late John G. Watmough, who left an estate valued at more than $1,000,000, to persons other than those who are considered heirs-at-law. To his wife's maid, who remained in his employ as a nurse after Mrs. Watmough's death, he left $100,000. Several servants were given from $200 to $1,000, and the residue of the estate was left to Ferdinand Keller and his wife, art collectors of Philadelphia.

Keeps Engagement in Armor. Wearing a coat of mail under his clothing, Salvatore Stila, one of the richest Italians in Philadelphia, kept a Black Hand engagement to enable police to make an arrest. While Joseph Nally was accepting a pack of $500,000 from Stica detectives, Nally was in Stica's room to play his part for fear of death until the idea of wearing armor was suggested.

One man was killed and another was probably fatally injured in a rear-end collision of two freight trains on the Panhandle division of the Pennsylvania railroad one mile from McDonald, Pa. Chambers was also a noted composer.
