

Calendar for November 1913 showing dates from 1 to 29.

A lot of unreasonable people insist that the game laws should afford better protection to human beings.

There is general astonishment that the ladylike Senator Martine of New Jersey is opposed to woman suffrage.

The Glass-Owen currency bill seems to require a good deal of patching for a measure so widely heralded as ideal.

Gov. MILLER of Delaware defends the whipping post. The whipping post and peaches constitute Delaware's chief claim to fame.

All that Huerta has is at stake in his contest with President Wilson, while the latter has plenty of other troubles of almost equal importance.

The president and his cabinet have decided on a waiting policy toward Mexico. As Mr. Wilkins Mowbray would say, something is likely to turn up any time.

The great packing house of Morris & Co. has just elected a president a man who started working for the company as a boy at $1 a week.

New Presidential postmasters in Pennsylvania have been nominated by the President as follows within the past few days: Edward J. Hutchinson, Polk, Yonango county; Leonard F. Keller, McHenry, Warren county; George B. McHenry, Sykesville, Jefferson county; Franz W. Klingensmith, Dime, Armstrong county; James C. Geist, Dora, Jefferson county.

An inquiry into the cost of living with a view to demonstrating as far as possible that the Democrats are in no way responsible is being talked of by leaders in Congress. The question of the rapid increase in the cost of living is a sore subject with Democrats these days.

A decision of the United States supreme court handed down last week is a victory for women. In brief the decision is that wives have an equal interest with their husbands in federal homesteads after title has passed from the government.

WILLIAM F. McCOMBS, chairman of the Democratic national committee, has notified the workers of his party that they will no longer be able to look to the Progressive or bull moose party for political assistance.

Judge John J. Henderson led John W. Kephart by 9,308 votes in the balloting for superior court judges at the recent election. This is shown by the official returns received Monday from Harrisburg, which includes all counties.

The total vote for superior court judges was 758,835, which is a falling off of 47,667 in the vote of the State as compared with the Presidential election last year when the total vote was 1,217,502.

The $50,000,000 loan amendment was defeated by 41,393 votes. The vote was: For the amendment, 259,042; against 300,435.

John Malluk of Monongahela, Pa., to his wife as he handed her a bank book showing deposits of $240. Malluk walked to the Monongahela river bridge and leaped into the stream. His body has not been found.

MARRIED OR NOT?

West Virginia Couples Not Sure. Ministers Acted Without License. Scores of couples who in the last few years were married at Charleston, W. Va., by either Rev. J. H. Hill or Rev. M. H. Lacy are concerned over reports that their marriages may be illegal.

LAD BADLY BURNED

Writhing Rod of Red Hot Steel Embraces Boy. When a white-hot bar jumped the "run" in the Gaultier department of the Cambria Steel company at Johnstown, Pa., it writhed like a snake, entered the window of the weighmaster's office and entwined itself around the body of Herman Babner, a fifteen-year-old messenger boy.

W. H. HARRISON, J. C. SCOWDEN, H. H. McLELLAN, Commissioners. Attest, S. M. HENRY, Clerk. Tionesta, Pa., Nov. 25th, 1913.

Declare War on Colds. A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold: "Don't sit in a draughty car." "Don't sleep in hot rooms." "Don't avoid the fresh air." "Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Overeating reduces your resistance." To which we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by all druggists, adv.
