THE cost of the new investigation of the beef trust will likely be added to the price of meat.

It is about time for the Department of Agriculture to recommend a cheap and harmless substitute for eggs.

COL. GOETHALS' fame as a miracle worker rests largely on the fact that the cost of casual construction work has been kept within the appropriations.

THE best time for breaking the hold of the egg trust is along about the middle of March. Then the hens in every chicken coop will be helping out on the job.

A KANSAS CITY judge must decide which side of the bed belongs to the wife. It is singular that with all the legislative activity the last few years this matter has not been fixed by statute.

Kellettville.

Thanksgiving was a very quiet day in Kellettville. The school was closed, the stores were closed, the mills and shops were closed, the phone was closed and a goodly number of the lives of turkeys, geese, ducks and chickens came to a close that day. In fact about the only thing that was open was the overhanging clouds from which a drizzling rain descended upon the earth, and I think every one was thankful that they could sit by the fire and did not have to go out in the rain.

Plummer Wilson and Julia Silze returned Monday from a few days' visit with the latter's sister in North Warren. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Arner were Tionesta visitors Friday.

Mrs. E. Grubbs of Hickory was the guest of Mrs. John Blum, Wednesday.

Thomas Baptis of Warren spent Thanksgiving with his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Klimentier.

Mrs. W. A. Kribbs and Julia Lohmeyer are visiting relatives in Philadelphia this week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Henderson spent Thanksgiving in Hickory.

Prof. J. L. Simmons had as house guests for the past week his mother and sister, of Warren.

The W. C. T. U. met at Mrs. C. Y. Dettar's, Wednesday afternoon, and held an interesting business session. They will meet again on December 10th at Mrs. W. A. Kinch's, when they expect to have the county president with them and a pleasant and profitable time is expected.

Seventeen new members were taken into the Epworth League on Sunday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Y. Dettar and Mrs. W. E. Carbaugh were Oil City visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Printz Phillips has returned from a visit with her parents in Buffalo.

The Working Women's Class No. 8 of the M. E. Sunday school met at the home of their teacher, Mrs. W. E. Carbaugh, Wednesday evening. A very pleasant evening was spent and a fine lunch was served, which added to the enjoyment.

Rolan Butler was quite seriously injured while at work in the board yard on Monday and has been confined to his bed since.

Mrs. Moses Mealy of Newmansville visited her brother, Mr. Merchant, and other relatives in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Mealy and children of Tions were visiting relatives in town the past week.

On Thanksgiving day Frank Miller killed a pig weighing 410 pounds. His neighbor, Wm. Fitzgerald, also killed one which weighed 418 pounds and to outdo the rest Wm. Maxwell killed his and reports 400 pounds. So there is some pork in their corner.

Raymond, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry York, died Tuesday of spinal trouble. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Henry Smalbenberger, Wednesday afternoon, and interment was made in the Marienville cemetery on Thursday.

Clara Wilson of Hickory attended the funeral of her nephew, Wednesday.

Said B. to E., Thanksgiving day, These pigs will have to die today; Of meal and corn they've had their fill And are, I think, about right to kill. So they began as soon as 'twas light, To get their knives all sharpened right.

They worked away and never ceased Though floating odors proclaimed a feast; And when at last the pigs were hung And the cooks cried out "the turkey's done!" They washed their hands and gathered round The board where good eats did abound.

The dinner over, the dishes done, The ladies tho't they'd have some fun, While wondering how they all decide That Mrs. B. should take a ride.

The laughing group stood round about While a Texas broncho was brought out.

The pony tho't, "My! What a fate! Am I to carry all this weight?" He went up behind and down in front And then he just reversed the stunt.

Mrs. B. was greatly surprised of course To find she'd mounted a rocking horse.

The frightened crowd stood looking on And calling out "Hold on! Hold on!" But his heels went back to take their toll But Mrs. B. had taken a roll.

When a fair young lady from out the crowd Mounted this same pony, he steps 'round proud; You never'd have guessed that he of course So lately had been a rocking horse.

He carried his load with care and ease As if the young lady he tried to please.

Now Mrs. B. take my advice, Before you leap again think twice; And the time to think is before you mount, For thinking then will surely count.

Your stying qualities be sure to decide Before a bucking broncho you try to ride.

Two Amendments Were Adopted.
Two of the five proposed amendments to the constitution were adopted and John G. Henderson and John W. Kephart were elected judges of the superior court, according to the official count of the votes of the 67 counties of Pennsylvania made at Harrisburg Wednesday immediately after the receipt of the official returns from Allegheny county, the last to be received.
The amendments that carried were numbers three and five. Number three extends for one year terms of judges whose terms expire in odd numbered years. This amendment was proposed to carry out the intent of the constitutional amendments of 1902, providing that election of judges, other than State judges, should be held in odd numbered years. If the amendment had been defeated, the governor would have been required to make appointments until all judges now in office and affected by the amendment served their terms. The vote on this amendment was 217,315 in favor and 198,179 against.
The second amendment to carry provides that debts issued by municipalities for public works, which carry themselves by providing for sinking funds and interest charges, shall not be considered in calculating debt limit outside of Philadelphia. Philadelphia is given certain privileges by a former amendment and this extends to the rest of the State. This amendment was adopted by a vote of 208,083 for, to 201,605 against.
The proposed amendment for the issuance of $50,000,000 bonds for road construction went down by 41,393 majority against it.

Clarington.

The preaching in the U. B. Church by the Presbyterians was well attended and great interest was manifested. Rev. Humbert and the elders from Tabor congregation were present and organized a class of 50, which number was very gratifying to all concerned. This class starts off with bright prospects, and it is hoped that they will keep up their work and grow and become a factor for good in this community.

W. D. Shields spent Sabbath at Brookville.

F. A. Hoff has finished his painting the township bridge.

The road supervisors met for settlement and organization on Monday.

Hazel Branch of Jamestown visited friends here a few days and spent Thanksgiving at East Brady with her grandmother.

Prof. Braden is doing some surveying between showers and school days.

Don't forget the play on Saturday night, Dec. 6, to be given by the high school.

Morris Coon and boys are home for a short stay having run their boats to Pittsburgh on the last flood.

The two wells being drilled by the Braden Oil Co. are still unfinished but both show for oil, and if gassers are not found in the Kane sand they will be shot in the specially sand for oil.

Phillips & Co. are getting along nicely with their well near town. They struck a good flow of gas in the first Clarion sand but it did not last long.

J. W. Dushy and wife of Elk county, were visiting and looking after church matters being one of the trustees of the U. B. parsonage, and as the U. B. class here is dissolved, was looking after the disposition of the property. All interested parties interviewed him but nothing was done.

Mayburg.

As Turkey was so high on Thanksgiving, many of us were not able to reach it, but all enjoyed the day just the same.

Prof. E. C. Terrill was the guest of friends in Warren the latter part of the week.

Leslie Paul is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stakely and daughter Mary Naomi, were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Stakely, over Thanksgiving, returning to their home at Sharon, Pa., Saturday morning on the 8:00 o'clock.

The revival meetings are being carried on in the M. E. Church yet, resulting in five being forward for conversion.

George Shepard is again working in this place, and expects to move his family here in the near future.

H. W. Dasher visited his wife at Cherrygrove over the Sabbath a week ago.

Mrs. P. E. McCullough of East Hickory is visiting old friends in this place at present.

Rev. Bryan, who has been holding revival meetings at Beaver Valley, returned Sunday afternoon to fill his regular appointment in the F. M. church of this place.

Victor Hendrickson filled the appointment of Rev. Smalbenberger at the M. E. church Sunday afternoon. A large attendance was present and all were well pleased with the sermon.

Andrey Peterson of Kellettville, visited friends in this place over Sunday.

Fred Halterman is very ill with the grippe.

$3,000,000 Coal Deal Is Closed.

One of the largest coal deals in Greene county, Pa., was completed when J. Y. Thompson and forty-seven other prominent Greene county residents conveyed 5,500 acres of coal land to the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company. The land is worth from $625 to $700 an acre and it is understood the purchase price was about $3,000,000, payable in from three to ten years.

Food Expert Has Potomac Poison.

James Foust, Pennsylvania state food and dairy commissioner, was confined to his home following an attack of ptomaine poisoning, from which he collapsed on the street. His condition was grave for a time.

Sick Headache.

Sick headache is nearly always caused by disorders of the stomach. Correct them and the periodic attacks of sick headache will disappear. Mrs. John Bishop of Roseville, Ohio, writes: "About a year ago I was troubled with indigestion and had sick headache that lasted for two or three days at a time. I doctored and tried a number of remedies but nothing helped me until during one of those sick spells a friend advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. This medicine relieved me in a short time." For sale by all dealers.

WEDDING IN WHITE HOUSE
Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson Becomes Mrs. F. B. Sayre.
Miss Jessie W. Wilson, the president's second daughter, became the wife of Francis Bowes Sayre last Tuesday afternoon. The ceremony took place in the historic East room of the White House.
An altar had been erected before the broad window at the east side of the room, as was done for the Roosevelt wedding. Before the altar a broad dais, on which the bridal party stood, had been erected.
Miss Wilson's trousseau was elaborate, despite announcements from the White House that the wedding was to be a simple and quiet one. The wedding gown worn by Miss Wilson was the fashion for brides this winter. It was of heavy satin of a cream white tint so faint that it seems almost pure white. Rare old lace, heirlooms in the family of Mrs. Wilson, was freely used in embellishment of the bridal gown. This lace had been used many times before for wedding gowns of Miss Wilson's ancestors.
The wedding presents were put on view at the White House. It was a source of deep gratification to Washington society to have this chance. Exaggerated stories as to the elaborateness of the gifts and the extravagance displayed by the donors needed contradiction. Those who saw the presents say that the $2,000 diamond pendant from the house of representatives was far and away the most valuable gift.

CITY HAS NEW MAYOR

Facing impeachment Shank Resigns in Indianapolis.
Samuel Lewis Shank resigned as mayor of Indianapolis.

The resignation is the result of labor troubles and a threat of impeachment proceedings by a committee of business men unless further disorders were averted.

Harry R. Wallace, city controller, succeeded to the mayor's chair.

Shank resigned after he had conferred with union labor officials regarding an impending strike of teamsters. They told him there was little hope of averting the strike.

Mayor Shank's attitude during the recent street car strike, when he let it be known that he did not wish policemen to ride on the cars manned by strikebreakers, caused the resignation of Superintendent of Police Martin J. Hyland and President William E. Davis of the board of public safety.

Owners of Austin Dam Freed.

G. C. Bayless and F. M. Hamlin, president and general manager of the Bayless Pulp and Paper company, were acquitted on charges of involuntary manslaughter brought as a result of the great dam disaster at Austin, Pa., Sept. 30, 1911, when seventy-four persons were drowned, the villages of Austin and Costello wiped out and an entire valley laid waste.

Eighty Prisoners Given Freedom.

Eighty prisoners were paroled at the Western Pennsylvania penitentiary on the Northside, Pittsburgh, and at Center county. Sixty-seven prisoners were liberated at the Northside prison and thirteen at the prison in Center county.

Losing $60,000, Man Ends Life.

Theodore Welland, tax collector of Dickson City, near Scranton, Pa., ended his life at his home by inhaling illuminating gas. Financial troubles are believed to have unbalanced his mind. Charges of misappropriating funds of the borough were made several months ago. He is said to have lost $60,000 in a mining venture in the west during the past year.

WEST HICKORY DRUGGIST MAKES A STATEMENT

We always advise people who have stomach or bowel trouble to see a doctor. But to those who do not wish to do this we will say: try the mixture of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-I-ka. This simple new remedy is so powerful that JUST ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY. People who try Adler-I-ka are surprised at its QUICK action. The West Hickory Drug Store, adv.

Mrs. McClain's Experience With Croup.

"When my boy, Ray, was small he was subject to croup, and I was always alarmed at such times. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy proved far better than any other for this trouble. It always relieved him quickly. I am never without it in the house for I know it is a positive cure for croup," writes Mrs. W. R. McClain, Blairsville, Pa. For sale by all dealers.
