—E. E. —Wm. Mealy of Tionesta township, came home from near Redbank, Pa., Monday nursing a very sore hand. While employed on the mill of Wm. James he had his right hand lacerated by a saw, and blood poison set in making a very painful and troublesome wound.
—Skating on the lack channel has been good for the kids during the past few days, but the ice was hardly strong enough for the bigger ones and none so safe for the little chaps, but they took the chances and won out. Skating ice on this sheet of water is rather unusual at this season of the year.

—Mrs. J. E. Brown of Mayburg submitted to a serious operation in Emergency hospital, Warren, Friday. She was doing nicely at last accounts and the indications for her speedy recovery are good. She was accompanied to the hospital by Dr. Deter of Kellettville, who assisted Dr. W. M. Robertson of this city in the operation.
—A dwelling house owned by Cobbon brothers and located on the Walter Cobbon farm near old Pithole, was burned to the ground Monday of last week. The house was occupied by Fred Anderson and family, who lost about all their household goods and wearing apparel. Mr. Anderson being absent at the time. His loss will be between four and five hundred dollars, with no insurance.
—We note that many of our exchanges in neighboring counties will raise the price of subscription to $1.50 after the first of the year. This on account of the advance in all material that enters into the make up of the average newspaper by 25 to 50 per cent. For the present the price of the FOREST REPUBLICAN will remain at $1.00 per year. But, say, we'd like the mightiest to have that dollar.
—Does it pay to raise good fat hogs? Ask farmer Fred Weingard, of German Hill, and learn the answer. On Monday of last week he butchered the champion hog so far reported, a thoroughbred Chester White, which weighed 566 pounds. He disposed of the animal to the George Wilson market in Tionesta at 10 cents per pound. Figure it up yourself, you farmer, and then step up with a record to beat it.

Hulings, Parsons, W. Va.; A. D. Neill, Elkins, W. Va.; A. P. Brothers, Nebraska, Pa. (new); C. W. Smith, Tionesta township, (new); Chas. C. VanGiesen, President, Pa. (new); George E. Sison, Warren, Pa. (new); James H. Shoemaker, Sumner, Wash. (new); J. E. Wagner, Harmony township.
—In a private letter from James H. Shoemaker, a former Tionesta boy, but now located at Sumner, Washington, he states that all of the Forest county people in that section are happy and well. In fact the country is so beautiful that they had to kill an Indian to start a cemetery. "They are just opening up a big oil field near here," he says. "They claim to have 25 feet of oil sand, but cannot finish the wells until tubing and casing arrives from the east. Eastern operators are leasing all the land they can get hold of. Good chance for speculation. Will keep posted and let you know all about it. I am in position to find out."
—A surprise party was held in honor of Miss Marie Mealy, at the home of the Maze sisters on Chestnut street. The evening was spent in music, fortune telling and games, after which a dainty lunch was served. Messrs. Herbert Besse, Melvin Besse, Leon Jackson, Arthur McElroy, Lloyd Peterson, Elmer Anderson. The guests departed declaring a pleasant evening.—Kane Republican, 11th.
—At the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees held Dec. 17, Dr. Andrew Thomas Smith, of Mansfield, was elected Principal of the Clarion Normal School. Dr. Smith has been principal of the Mansfield State Normal School for fourteen years and has seen there a remarkable period of prosperity and growth. He was educated at the West Chester Normal, Lafayette College, and New York University, and has done post graduate work at the University of Michigan and the University of Pennsylvania. He is an author and lecturer and institute instructor of wide reputation. He is counted as one of the very foremost educators in the state. Clarion Normal is to be congratulated on securing him as their principal, and we predict that under Dr. Smith's administration the school will soon rank with the very best in the country. The new term will open on Tuesday, December 30.

—It is far better to give something within your means than to buy a gift on the monthly payment plan, and be reminded of it well into the following summer by the payments. Christmas is being properly referred to in these later years as the "Annual Swap." Many persons do not use good judgment in buying gifts, but make purchases as long as their money lasts, or until they have bought something for every person on their list.—Oil City Blizzard.
—J. A. King, who is employed as an engineer on the log train of Coleman, Harter & McCormick at the Johns run plant, was caught between two logs while loading cars Friday and had his right leg severely bruised below the knee. Dr. Bovard was called to attend him but found that no bones were broken. Mr. King will be able to return to his work in a few days. He is the father of F. R. King, the young man who lost his right arm in an accident on the same road last June.
—Daniel W. Long, the foreman on the Coleman railroad bridge job, took a long tumble of twenty-four feet into the icy waters of Tionesta creek Monday morning, but fortunately suffered no serious injury. In passing along the superstructure he had occasion to swing out on a line which slipped, allowing him to drop squarely on his back in six inches of water. After a change of clothing he remained on the job for the day, and aside from a little stiffness was feeling all right on Tuesday.
—There's nothing so nice about this season of the year as having a few friends who know your appetite. One of these is Henry Kaman of German Hill, who butchered his hogs last week, and then remembered with compassion the struggles of the printer with a liberal mess of sausage. Thanks, Henry, and may the shadows of your porkers never grow less. Likewise neighbor Blum comes to the rescue with a good helping of the delicious "brat wurst," so that our cup of joy will runneth over, but the digestive apparatus is proving equal to the occasion. Grosse danke, Wilhelm.
Short Argument Court.
The December argument court was held Monday with President Judge Hinkley and Associate Morgan on the bench.
Six foreigners were made citizens of the United States by being granted final naturalization papers, and taking the oath of allegiance. The court questioned each one closely and was satisfied that they were worthy of citizenship in this country.
A. L. Thomson was appointed an auditor for Tionesta township to fill a vacancy. The widow's appraisement in the estate of James E. Gaul, late of Jenks township, deceased, was confirmed and allowed.
In the estate of A. L. Weller, deceased, the court made an order authorizing the payment of lien creditors from funds in the hands of Mrs. Elizabeth Weller, executrix, obtained through the sale of decedent's real estate, and also approved the expense account incident to the sale.
Charlie Thomas Again In Limbo.
Charles O. Thomas, formerly a grocer of Brushton and now a resident of Calvery Junction, was arrested last night at 68 Arthur street by County Detectives Paul Sigal and Edward Weber. He is said to be wanted in three counties for horse stealing. On his person were found long letters from women, each of whom he had declared in letters to be "the only woman for me." Out of almost 100 letters found on Thomas, all but one were from Pittsburgh women, and one was written by a McKeesport woman. The letters written by Thomas, in almost every case, were answers to matrimonial advertisements. The letters averaged from eight to 10 pages in length. In each Thomas expressed his love and admiration for the person addressed. A ball of wax and several blank keys were found on Thomas. It is believed he operated by asking each woman to whom he wrote if he might visit her at her home. He would make prolonged visits and during his stay would make wax impressions of her door keys. Thomas' arrest followed the receipt by the local detectives of a circular from Butler county. It is believed he will be held by the local authorities pending an investigation of robberies committed in Pittsburgh homes recently.—Pittsburgh Gazette Times, Sunday, 14th.
It seems hard for that man Thomas to keep out of the clutches of the law. He was caught with a team of stolen horses from Scott Agnew at Cooksberg, on county, something over a year ago, and in default of $500 bail was placed in jail here. Some time after he was released and his bail bond was forfeited to the county, the supposition being that he was wanted in another jurisdiction as a witness. When he was used crates, claiming to be suffering from a disease of the hipbone.
To Sell Forest County Real Estate.
The first step toward the sale of the real estate of Isaac N. Patterson, of Franklin, for the benefit of the creditors of the Franklin Savings bank was taken Friday last, when Attorney Homer R. Blair, acting for the Franklin Trust Co., trustees in bankruptcy of Mr. Patterson, filed with Referee in Bankruptcy Thomas McGough a petition asking that permission be given to sell land in Allegheny county, Pa., New York, Kentucky and other places be given. It is not believed that the sale will be opposed.
Mr. Patterson has a one-twenty-seventh interest in a piece of property in Jamestown, N. Y., and the trustee asks for leave to sell this to persons in Sandy Lake, Jackson Center and other places for $1,695.66 at private sale.
Leave to sell the following pieces of public sale is asked: 14 parcels of land in Breathitt county, Ky., varying in area from 50 to 200 acres, which were conveyed to Mr. Patterson by a commissioner in the estate of Polly Davis; 1954 acres in Tionesta township, Forest county; 241 acres in Harmony township, Forest county; 50 acres in Kingsley township, Forest county; 28 acres in Mineral township, Venango county; a mineral right in Sugar creek township; interests in tracts in Elk township, Clarion county and Tionesta township, Forest county; two oil rights in Forest county; one-half interest in six lots or parts of lots in Pittsburgh, being the property of the late James S. Patterson, brother of I. N. Patterson.

Shooting Affray Near Mayburg—One Man May Die.
As a result of a quarrel at a camp of Italian laborers near the chemical plant a short distance above Mayburg, last Saturday night, one man is in the Warren hospital in a precarious condition with a bullet hole in his chest. Another man has skipped out, thought to have been shot in the hip or back. The actual facts connected with the affair are difficult to ascertain as those who know them are either gone or will not talk. Constable Shannon of Kellettville went up Monday to investigate the matter, but was unable to get much information.
It seems that the quarrel started in the boarding house kept by Dominick Delgrossi, and was between Tony Woodsum and Dominick Vassil, half brothers, a brother of each of these men being also involved. The boarding boss ordered the four men out of the house when the trouble began, between 9 and 10 o'clock, and shortly after some gun shots were heard, and some of the party came back to the house but were refused admittance. They then went to Mayburg to summon medical aid by telephone, and early Sunday morning Dr. Serrill arrived, and found the wounded man, Dominick Vassil, lying near the S. & T. railroad track, where his friends had built a fire. He was taken to a neighboring house where his wound was dressed, and Monday he was taken to the Warren hospital on the train, his brother and half-brother accompanying him. A .22 calibre bullet had entered the chest about an inch above the heart and was lodged somewhere near the back. Tony Woodsum, who is said to have received a shot in the hip or back, was taken up the railroad track some distance on a handcar and had not been seen since, and it is not known how badly he was hurt. Who fired the shots that wounded these men is not known to the authorities, but probably the two whose names are mentioned did the shooting.
No arrests have been made up to this time.
Former Forest County Boy Fatally Shot.
Melvin Huff, the sixteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Huff, of 231 West Fourth street, Erie, Pa., was accidentally shot by a boy companion on Saturday, Nov. 23rd, and died from the effects of the wound, Wednesday, Dec. 31. The unfortunate youth went hunting with John Busch, a boy friend, carrying a high-powered 303 Savage rifle. While in the woods near the Grab road, about four miles south of the city, the gun in the hands of Busch was discharged, the bullet striking young Huff just above the heart and passing completely through his body. After the accident Busch became terror stricken and deserted Huff, running back to the city, but notwithstanding the shooting, thinking he had killed him. The wounded boy was found in a few minutes after the shooting by Walter Ott, a farmer, who heard his cries for help. Medical attention was given him at the scene of the accident and he was removed to St. Vincent's hospital, where he passed away the following Wednesday, being unable to withstand the severe shock and loss of blood. When questioned by the police Busch asserted that the shooting was accidental and this was substantiated by the wounded boy. He was walking behind and a little to one side of Huff, and thought he had the gun on the safety cock. He could not explain how it was discharged.
Melvin Huff was born at Kellettville, this county, and was a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gillespie, former well known residents of Kingsley township. The family left Kellettville about eight years ago, moving first to Union City and later to Erie. They will have the sympathy of many friends in this county in their sad bereavement. The funeral was held at the family home, Saturday afternoon, Dec. 6th. Miss Jennie Wolfe, of Tionesta township, was one of the relatives who attended the funeral service.

Recent Deaths.
COPELAND.
Azro A. Copeland, perhaps the oldest citizen of Harmony township, passed away at his home near Stewart Run, Forest county, Pa., Tuesday evening, Dec. 16, 1913, about 6 o'clock. The infirmities incident to age had crept upon him quite rapidly within the past year, and his failing health had been noted by old friends as his visits to this place became less frequent. Mr. Copeland was born at Braintree, Vermont, March 16, 1832, and in 1850, when a young man of 18 years, he came to this community in which he had since made his home, honored, respected and revered as a friend by all who knew him. In all our years of acquaintance with him we never saw him in an impatient mood, but gentleness and good nature were always his best traits of character, and his friends were very many. Loyalty to his friends was another of his best attributes, and his word once given could always be depended upon.
Mr. Copeland was married in early life, and of that union seven children survive, his wife dying in 1894.
ARMERBERGER.
Jacob A. Armerberger, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Armerberger, of Hunter Station, Forest county, died at his home at 4:00 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 16, 1913, following about a month's illness from typhoid fever. Just prior to his illness he was employed at the Coleman, Harter & McCormick lumber mill at Johns run, and went home from that place sick during the last weeks of November. All that medical skill and careful nursing could do was done for him and he seemed much improved on Monday. Tuesday his condition became alarming and the collapse came at the hour above noted.
The deceased was aged about 22 years and was born at Hunter Station. He was known to many friends as a quiet, industrious young man of correct habits, and will be sincerely mourned and missed in the family and in the community. The sympathy of all will be extended to the bereaved family in this hour of sorrow. Besides his parents, two brothers and two sisters survive him, all residing at home. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at one o'clock at the home. Interment at Tionesta.
