

ONE is naturally mildly curious as to whether Secretary Bryan swore off grape juice on the first of the year.

Beneath Free-trade, decaying fast industries are laid, as in the past, When Free-Trade won and workers lost, They looked for sun and, and got a frost.

THE statement by state treasurer Young that the available funds in the treasury are now lower than they have been for some time, being less than six million left to do business on, will be less disquieting when it is remembered that a six-million balance is still some money.

SECRETARY REDFIELD asks Congress to give him an appropriation of $4,000,000 to pay the expense of finding out what all the country. An honest investigation and an honest answer to the question might be worth the money. But there is really no need of all that bother and cost. Business is suffering from an overdose of free trade policies. That's what ails the country.

IF it is true, as stated, that the free listing of beef and other food products, under the new tariff law, is causing enormous increases in the im-ortations of foodstuffs into the United States, it would be interesting to know who is deriving the benefit therefrom. Can it be the "beef barons" and others of their ilk are the chief beneficiaries? The ultimate consumers have not as yet noted any reduction in prices.—Blizzard. Say, brother, aren't you aware that such blamed impertinent questions as that are calculated to knock the beautiful theory of free-trade, "once and for all, into a cocked hat?"

DEAN William Draper Lewis, of Philadelphia, one of the founders of the Progressive party in Pennsylvania, has resigned as president of the Progressive State League. It is said that Dean Lewis' withdrawal was because his candidacy for United States Senator was frowned upon by William Flinn and others, because they want a man like Pinchot, who has the sinews of war in the shape of funds, says the Punxy Spirit. As Pinchot is a millionaire, and is expected to sacrifice a good deal of coin for the benefit of the Washington party, he is very likely to receive the endorsement of the State executive committee, which meets in Harrisburg this week.

"'Twas ever thus; I've seen my fondest hopes decay," will mean a four-flusher lament when he reads that Congressman Bartholdt, of Missouri, who is also a physician, misapprehended a Washington hostess at a fashionable luncheon Tuesday of last week by refusing grape juice and remarking that he would prefer beer. "We do not keep intoxicating beverages in the house," said the lady. Whereupon Dr. Bartholdt proceeded to elucidate. "Grape juice is too strong for me" he said, "especially in the middle of the day when I have work to do. Grape juice demands alcohol to preserve it and contains 6 to 7 per cent of it, while ordinary beer contains only 3 to 4 per cent of alcohol. Bryan will have to get something other than grape juice if he wants to avoid alcohol."

JUDG SCOTT at Easton asked an applicant for naturalization how many Congressmen Pennsylvania has and refused him, for the time, naturalization papers, because the Hungarian said there was a hundred and ninety-one thousand. He probably meant that there were that many who wanted to run for Congress. But, was it not an unfair question? How many Congressmen are there in this state? Do you, who was born here and voted here all your adult life know? And if you don't know, why should the applicant for naturalization be expected to know?—Franklin News. A little less attention given to men's mental qualifications and a great deal more to the moral rectitude of the applicants for naturalization would improve the citizenship of this country. No foreigner should be allowed to land in this country who cannot bring with him a certificate of good character from the mother country.

Lynch.

W. M. Lindsey of Halliton called at the home of James Stocum, Saturday. We are having fine sleighing here. W. M. Sinclair is hauling stove wood for Fred. Newark. Lawrence Stocum is driving team for Uncle Billy. E. C. Swartz is ill with the grippe. We hope he will soon be around again. James Stocum's young son John is ill with pneumonia. W. M. Swartz of Oil City arrived at Lynch Tuesday and is visiting relatives here for a few days. Percy Bean is visiting relatives here for a few days. James Stocum and his two friends are hauling chemical wood for the Forest Chemical Co. at Bio-Jay. Alex. Shay and lady friend of Nansen, Elk county, were calling on friends here the first of the new year.

Gazette Times Almanac for 1914.

The Gazette Times 1914 Almanac has just come to hand. As a book of reference on national, state and local matters it is fully up to the standard of The Gazette Times and is replete with interesting information on thousands of vital topics many of which are constantly coming up for discussion. The Almanac covers the fields of politics, religion labor and industrial affairs, sports and numerous other matters of interest. It contains a splendid calendar and astronomical section, together with weather records for this territory covering a long period of years. Late and early frosts, floods, extremes of wind and temperature are all given.

The sporting section of the book is unusually fine and complete. Boxing, horse racing, aviation, athletics, baseball etc.

The Almanac will appeal to all who value exact, concisely stated facts which are of practical, everyday use. It is well printed, handsomely bound, and is worth many times its price which is 25 cents a copy; 35 cents when ordered by mail.

Kellettville.

Mrs. George Parker was called to Brookville Tuesday on account of the illness of her mother.

Alex. Hunter, the conductor on the S. & T. passenger train, met with an accident Wed. Jay which made him feel somewhat uncomfortable for a few days. He had a plank from the baggage car to the store porch over which he was rolling a barrel of pork. The plank slipped and Mr. Hunter went down between the car and the porch, where the plank, the barrel of meat and a pail of lard landed on top of him, and in consequence the conductor had a sore head for a few days.

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Dotterrer Wednesday afternoon and discussed the subject of "foreign speaking people." The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ida Nash, January 21.

Mrs. Harry Shaw died Wednesday morning, 7th inst., from a stroke of apoplexy. She had not been in her usual health for the past year, but was able to go about the house and attend to her work up to the time of her death. Her husband's mother was suffering from a severe cold and she had stayed down stairs to look after her. Some time after four o'clock she went to the room and asked if she had taken her medicine, then said she would shut the door as she was going to get breakfast. She turned and went into the other room and fell, unconscious, upon the bed. Her husband hearing the fall came down. Dr. Serrill was called, but she never regained consciousness and died about nine o'clock. Her maiden name was Margaret Little. She was born near Tyersburg, and was thirty-four years old at the time of her death. She has been a resident of Kellettville ever since her marriage, about 12 years ago. Besides her husband she leaves four children to mourn her loss, the youngest not being yet one year old. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Henry Smallenberger in the M. E. church, Friday, at 1 o'clock, and interment in the Whig Hill cemetery immediately followed. She belonged to the burial association at Tidoute, who sent an undertaker to look after the body. Beautiful flowers adorned her casket, the gift of friends. Mrs. Shaw was a very quiet dispositioned woman, always busy about her home and seldom seen far away from it, but by her unselfish devotion to the duties thrust upon her she won the admiration of all who knew her. Friends from out of town who attended the funeral were, Mrs. Frank Pequinot Hickory, and U. S. Little of Tyersburg, sister and brother of the deceased, and Calvin Shaw and Ronald Spangler of Derry, Pa., and Bradner Shaw of near Pittsburgh.

Miss Margaret Goodfellow has moved her boarding place from Mrs. Downing's home to the home of Prof. and Mrs. Simmons, and Prof. Titterton is at home with Mrs. Mary Flynn.

The concert given by the colored troupe in the hall Monday night called a full house and all were pleased with entertainment given.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Watson were Warren visitors Tuesday.

The storm passed over our town during the week and left a thirteen-pound boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Pierson, Thursday, and an equally fine girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Paul, Saturday.

Mrs. Edwards of Crown was the guest of Miss Blanche Hendricks during the week.

John Cook had a portion of the third finger of his right hand taken off Saturday by the coming in contact with the machinery at the planing mill.

A goodly number of the young people attended the funeral of Leslie Graham, at Starr, Thursday.

Mrs. Parker is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Hendrickson and son Roger visited Rev. W. E. Frampton's family at Rousseville over Sunday. Meetings began in the M. E. church Sunday evening.

Lawrence Dunkle and Roy Harmon visited the latter's home in Clarion county, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Whitehill visited the former's parents at Treasman, Sunday.

Mrs. Sarah Shaw is suffering with a very bad cold.

Charles Daubenspeck was a business visitor in Sheffield, Wednesday. Emma and Arthur Jensen were Sheffield visitors Friday.

Ralph Daubenspeck is suffering with a severe cold. Grandma Dotterrer has also been confined to her home for the past week with a cold.

Alonzo Graham and family visited his mother and other relatives over Sunday. Ethel Rich is visiting friends at Starr.

Wolves Run Wild in Warren.

On the outskirts of the usually quiet and peaceful town of Warren the blood of the farmers residing in that vicinity has become somewhat chilled by the howling of a pack of wolves that holds its serenades in the small hours of the night and the farmers have started to organize a party to exterminate the beasts and put an end to their depredations.

The wolves have become bold since the recent heavy fall of snow and several times numbers of them have been seen on the public highways. Last week while John Walker, Sr., a prosperous farmer, was journeying to Warren to pay his subscription to the editor of the Times he was attacked by one of the nearly famished brutes which had become separated from the rest of the pack, and only escaped from what might have been a horrible death by the fleetness of his horse which was not spared at all by the terrified man.

As soon as he arrived at Warren Mr. Walker told of his encounter with the wolf and a number of the village's boldest hunters started out for the place where the wolf had been seen. The men were unsuccessful in finding the wolf, but they discovered a lot of tracks which would tend to show that there had been wolves in the vicinity.

Miss Kate Davis, social worker, was indicted by the Wilkes-Barre (Pa.) grand jury for libel in "poison pen" letters she is alleged to have sent to Mrs. J. C. Wallace, wife of a physician there. Miss Davis was a delegate to the National Purity congress this year. She was appointed on the state moving picture investigating committee by Governor Tener.

$15,000 in Jewels Stolen. Jewels valued at $15,000 were stolen from the apartments of Mr. and Mrs. T. DeWitt Cuyler at the Bellevue Stratford hotel in Philadelphia while the Cuylers were absent attending a dinner party. The robbery was a particularly daring one. One of the jewels taken was a pearl necklace set with sixty-nine graduated pearls and valued at $10,000.

Priest Bars Flock From Tango. Rev. Father James Kearns in his sermon in St. Michael's church, Greenville, Pa., forbade the members of his congregation from dancing the tango, hesitation waltz and other new dances which he branded as indecent. The young people were also strictly forbidden to associate with votaries of those dances.

Train Kills Car Inspector. Wilford Wright, twenty years old, a car inspector for the Pennsylvania Railroad company, was killed at Conemaugh, Pa., when he was run down by a passenger train. He was crossing the tracks to inspect another train when the accident occurred.

Dies in Sled. Robert Monahan, aged seventy, a Civil war veteran, dropped dead in his sled at Lilly, near Johnstown. Pa. His wife, who was in a store, saw the team without a driver pass and going home found her husband's body in the sled.

Christmas Bridegroom is Killed. Arthur Jackson, twenty-five years old, assistant section foreman of the Pennsylvania railroad at Wilcox, Pa., was killed when he slipped and fell under the wheels of an engine. Jackson was married Christmas day.

Excellent for Stomach Trouble. "Chamberlain's Tablets are just fine for stomach trouble," writes Mrs. G. C. Dunn, Arnold, Pa. "I was bothered with this complaint for some time and frequently had bilious attacks. Chamberlain's Tablets afforded me great relief from the first, and since taking one bottle of them I feel like a different person." For sale by all dealers. adv.

BIG SURPRISE TO MANY IN WEST HICKORY

Local people are surprised at the QUICK results received from simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka, the German remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. The West Hickory Drug Store states that this simple remedy draws off such a surprising amount of old foul matter from the body that a SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY. adv.

Cough Medicine for Children. Never give a child a cough medicine that contains opium in any form. When opium is given other and more serious diseases may follow. Long experience has demonstrated that there is no better or safer medicine for coughs, colds and croup in children than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is equally valuable for adults. Try it. It contains no opium or other harmful drug. For sale by all dealers. adv.
