THE announcement that, "owing to the high cost of living," the price of this commodity is to be raised, continues to stare one in the face almost daily.

SMITH, the wise old guy of the Punxy Spirit, thus philosophically observes: The old proverb, "He that eats longest lives longest" should be printed in large type, put in a frame and hung on the wall of every dining room.

RESOLUTIONS were adopted by the Pittsburgh Ministerial Union, representatives of all evangelical denominations in the city, calling upon the board of Education to dispense with all dances in the school curriculum.

State Highway Department is hampered. The appropriations made by the last legislature for the purpose of road construction under the Sprout Act have been almost exhausted and the Department is now waiting a legal decision as to the moneys in the State Treasury received from the taxation of motor vehicles.

NO DODGING THIS TIME. Candidates for Legislature must State Stand on Liquor Question. Straight county option, with no opportunity for legislators to hedge or dodge the question, will be made a prime issue of the coming primaries in every county of the state, according to a decision announced at a meeting of trustees of the Anti-Saloon league of Pennsylvania.

Workmen Boycott Scranton Revival. Because twenty-five ministers of Scranton, Pa., donned overalls and jumpers and started to build the mammoth tabernacle which will be used for the evangelical services to be conducted by Rev. William A. Sunday, the evangelist, there in March, the carpenters' union declared a boycott on the structure and on the religious meetings to be held there.

Say Aged Farmer Killed Workman. A jury, empaneled by Coroner M. A. Berkner, decided that James Bryant, aged sixty years, a farmer of Bryant station near Etna, Allegheny county, Pa., was guilty of the murder of Charles Covert, forty-five, of Mars, Pa., on Jan. 25 at Bryant station. Good Philosophy.

Senator Bristow of Kansas has been, and is yet for that matter, one of the country's most ardent progressives, but he has announced that he will be a candidate to succeed himself on the Republican ticket next fall.

"Senator Bristow will be a candidate to succeed himself in the Kansas Republican primaries next August because, in his opinion, "the third party movement will not succeed." There are thousands of men, he says, who have thoroughly progressive sentiments, but traditional attachments and pride in its achievements bind them to the Republican party.

"The Kansas is a good diagnostician and can scent coming events as well as any man. Desertion of a cause cannot be justified by the improbability of its success, of course, but it is mere stubbornness to insist on accomplishing the purposes desired with a particular instrument or not at all.

"The light which Mr. Bristow has seen in Kansas is beginning to break through the mental fog of thousands of other enthusiastic patriots. The rehabilitation of the Republican party is not being brought about by resolutions and meetings of leaders. It is a movement the direction of which is gauged by a multitude of individual cases."

SLAYERS IN ONE CELL

Condemned Men in Philadelphia Prison Called "Suicide Squad." Peter Lutman told an extraordinary tale before the common pleas court judges in Philadelphia, who are conducting an inquiry into the conditions of Moyering prison.

Lutman said that the condemned slayers were herded together in one cell and permitted to fight among themselves and that one of the men was killed by his fellow prisoners. Lutman spoke of the institution as a "chamber of horrors" and said that the prisoners among whom he was cast were "spread eagled" to the floor for days at a time.

Hard Times Over at Altoona Shops.

Hard times in the Pennsylvania railroad shops in Altoona, Pa., were ended when orders were received to build 1,000 box cars, 50 passenger coaches and 34 big locomotives which will keep the shops busy for nearly a year. Other orders for new work are to come shortly.

Foreigners to Be Disarmed.

Burgess Thorne has issued an order to the chief of police and his men to begin a campaign to disarm the foreign population in Greenville, Pa. Every time there is a drinking bout there is trouble and some member of the party is usually stabbed or shot.

Oil Boom Strikes Town.

Clarington, near Tionesta, Pa., is experiencing an oil and gas fever almost equal to that of the days fifty years ago. More than 100 wells will be put down in the next few months. Land has been leased all about the village.

Poetic Heredity.

Of poetic families, the Coleridges, like the Tennysons, are hard to beat. The author of "Christabel" had a daughter and two sons—all poets. The first, Sara, wrote lyrics which, according to Dr. Garnett, entitled her "to rank high among English poetesses."

Migrating Birds.

During many of the nights in September the inhabitants of the island of Helgoland are astir with big lanterns and a kind of enormous butterfly net, the former to attract and dazzle the migrating birds when they come to earth to rest, and the latter to secure them. Mr. Seeborn, the great authority on bird migration, states that he has known as many as 15,000 skylarks to be caught on the island in a single night.

Trial by Jury.

The establishment of the trial by jury runs back even prior to the time of Alfred the Great. He is said to have organized juries of twelve men as now in practice, but even earlier six Welsh and six Anglo-Saxon free men acted as a jury where there was a dispute between Welsh and Saxons.

Clear Inference.

"Jim told me a rip-roaring joke that was played on some member of your club last evening. Were you there?" "Yes, I was there! It was an abominable, far-fetched!" "O-ho! Jim did not tell me that you were the man it was on!" -Houston Post.
