EVERY speaker on Lincoln thinks that the great president if living would take his view of current problems.

AGAIN corn usurps the throne of King Cotton. A Kansas chemist makes an oil from corn that is as genuine olive oil as that made from cotton seed.

THE statement, "You're a hell of a Governor," which Mr. Sulzer says Mr. Murphy roared at him, is the only popular utterance credited to Mr. Murphy.

THE president expressly repudiates the Baltimore platform pledge which reads as follows: "We favor the exemption from tolls of American ships engaged in coastwise trade passing through the Panama Canal."

RAILROADS caused nearly half the forest fires in Colorado and Wyoming last year, and almost one-sixth were set by lightning. In California lightning started more than half, with railroads a comparatively insignificant cause.

A GLANCE at the following figures will demonstrate that the G. O. P. is by far the liveliest of the three out in Iowa, and if there are any dead ones it is by no means the Republican party. In 1912 the vote in the Second Congressional District of Iowa was: Democratic, 19,371; Progressive, 13,906; Republican, 8,303.

WHEN in Washington the other day William Flinn, the recognized and accepted boss of the bull moose party, said that if Col. Roosevelt would retire from active leadership in the bull moose party then he, Flinn would act with the Democrats and give them his financial support.

EVEN before the campaign in the state has fairly opened the Democratic factions are at war. President Wilson has determined that he shall name the state candidates for the Democracy of the state and independent members of the party are viciously resenting the President's interference.

THE announcement by the veteran Henry M. Honck, of Lebanon, that he would again be a candidate for secretary of Internal Affairs on the Republican ticket will again settle the matter as to that office, for his universal popularity throughout the State will undoubtedly land him for the third time in the position he has held since 1907.

THE Philadelphia Public Ledger, speaking of the vitality and recuperative powers of the Republican party, says: "The country demands a party which, while not static, shall be stable; a party with its face hopefully set toward the future, but whose forward march shall be evolutionary and not revolutionary. The Republican party has had wonderful recuperative qualities. It has been pronounced dead several times, as youthful scribblers, with short memories, are now writing its obituary. After the election of 1890, which returned 88 Republicans to the lower house of Congress, and again when the Cleveland landslide of 1892 came, the last nail was pronounced driven and clinched in its coffin, but it survived to give the Democracy an awful drubbing in four successive presidential elections."

But it should not be forgotten that it took a good many people several years to appreciate Lincoln.

Basket Ball at Clarington.

CLARINGTON, Pa., Feb. 14, 1914. The Clarington High School basketball team tackled the "jinx" that has been following them lately and beat him on "double jinx day," Friday, the thirteenth, by handling the Sigel High team a "jinx" defeat 9-13. It was a different team from the one that played Kelleysville a week ago.

The boys were all confident and set out to win at the sound of the whistle. It was a good game from the start, the boys from Sigel giving the locals a hard fight. Both teams played good clean ball throughout and the game was not decided until the final whistle blew. Every man in the game distinguished himself by his good clean work, but the guarding and passing of James Heasley, who prevented Cybert, Sigel's star, from scoring, and the shooting of Ivan Royer were clearly the features of the contest. Royer played against Hoy, who was head and shoulders taller, yet he fairly outdid himself and played Hoy off his feet. The team plays at Clarion High Friday evening. The lineup:

- C. H. S. - 19. S. H. S. - 13. M. Davis, F. Haggerty, W. Heasley, C. Hoy, J. Royer, G. Ackley, Williams, G. Matson. Field goals - M. Davis, I. Royer, J. Heasley, H. Haggerty & Hoy. Free goals - Davis, Haggerty, I. Cybert, 2. Referee, Parks; Umpire, Walters; Timer, Henderson; Scorer, Frantz. Time of halves, 20 minutes.

Kelleysville.

Raynor Lorum has been on the sick list for the past week. The protracted meetings closed at the M. E. church, Friday evening. Communion services were held Sunday morning, at which six were taken in on probation, one to full membership, and two by letter.

Paul Daubenspeck was up from Crown visiting his father the last of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Wade Simpson were called to Marienville Wednesday by the sickness of the latter's father.

Roger Lee Hendrickson was on the sick list Sunday. Isaac Sigina and family are nicely ensconced in their new home.

Vinton and Lyman Mealy were called to Clarion county during the week, their sister being quite sick at that place.

Wm. Fitzgerald and Wm. Rudy left Monday for a few weeks' visit in Pittsburg. They expect to hear Billy Sunday while in the city. We hope there will be a charge up the sawdust trail when the three Billys meet. E. E. and John Daubenspeck will fill their places at the Salmon creek mill during their absence.

The Misses Olive Wolfe and Nellie De-tar leave Wednesday for Buffalo to attend the millinery opening at the wholesale house and select goods for the spring and summer season.

Lewis Arner was on the sick list Sunday. The school entertainment was greatly disturbed Monday evening by three men from out of town who had imbibed freely of the stuff which makes fools of all persons who trifle with it.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Shepherd and family are rejoicing over the arrival of a 13-pound boy at their home Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Mary Antico was a Warren shopper Tuesday. A number of the young folks attended the lecture given in Andrews' Hall, Kelleysville, Monday evening of last week.

Mr. Holmes of Warren is visiting his daughter, Mrs. G. S. Bryan, for a few days. The girls and boys of this place enjoyed themselves skating Wednesday evening.

Miss Adeline Campbell entertained her friend, Miss Desher, Friday evening. Chloe Cook was the guest of Lottie Desher, Tuesday evening of last week.

Thirty Head of Horses For Sale And Trade. The best lot of horses ever brought to Brookville, for big sale beginning Monday, February 16th, and for two weeks only.

F. E. Harkless, J. C. Cunningham and Prof. J. L. Simmons took the Democratic meeting in Tionesta, Monday. Jacob Dingle and E. Bean are jurors from town this week.

On Tuesday evening of this week Rev. Henry Smalenberger will meet all those who are interested in taking up a teacher training course for Sunday school work.

The Helping Hand Bible Class have a social event planned for the near future. They are waiting for a little warmer weather, as the gas in the hall is not sufficient to make for pleasure.

The recent snow has made fine sleighing again and the pleasant jingle of the sleigh bells is heard on all sides.

Mrs. Jennie Phillips did not come to take charge of the home of Harry Shaw, as reported last week, and Mrs. Cook is still looking after their interests.

Mrs. John Shaw is in Oil City for several weeks. Prof. Titterton has sent in his resignation as teacher in the high school here and as soon as a substitute can be supplied he will accept a more lucrative position in Clarington.

Mrs. Lohmeyer had the misfortune to burn her hand the other day and is experiencing the accompanying discomforts.

Kribbs & Ray have the material on the ground on their farm on Whig Hill for a large barn and will start work as soon as the weather permits.

Mrs. Howard Watson and son are with the husband and father in Warren this week. The town people are preparing to harvest this week.

We have not heard from our new band yet. We hope to hear the music start in the near future, for we think it will be a pleasure and benefit to the town. So tune up boys and don't disappoint us.

Jay Catlin has been appointed Constable of Kingsley township to fill the vacancy caused by A. C. Shannon moving from the district.

Clarington.

The Sigel high school basketball team came down Friday night to play our team and lost. The score was 19-13.

Mrs. Linn Kerr of Marienville was a visitor here over the Sabbath. She was called to Sigel to attend the funeral of her aunt, Rebecca Long, a sister of her father, Isaac Long, a former resident of Clarington. Miss Long was in her 88th year at the time of her death. Interment was made in Mt. Taber cemetery, Rev. Humbert conducting the funeral service.

Our township will be well represented at court at Tionesta this week. There is nothing new in the drilling line. The Slaughterband No. 2 well will get the Bradford sand this week, barring accidents.

Mr. Blackburn of Dayton, Ohio, is here looking after his property, having some holdings on Blue Ridge. Valentine socials were very popular. The young married set and the young men and ladies held theirs at the home of T. K. Williams, and the ladies and gents, with a few of the mothers, were at the school house. All report a good time.

Valentine day is gone and some will not forget it for some time. Mr. Whitman of Ridgway is visiting friends here over the Sabbath. The residences of A. J. Riorlan and Blake Reed, on the hill above Clarington, on the Jefferson county side, were destroyed by fire on Friday evening. The Reed home and everything inside was consumed. Riorlan's got part of their goods out. It is a total loss, as neither had any insurance. They expect to move into the James Wallace house for the present.

The W. C. T. U. held their annual memorial service in the Presbyterian church on Saturday, Feb. 14th. A fitting program was rendered. The high school basketball team expect to go to Clarion to play the high school team there on Friday night. O. B. Hattal, who is working in Brookville, spent Saturday at his home.

Mayburg.

We now can welcome winter once more, as about six inches of snow fell during Friday night.

Mrs. Chas. Desher and family have been on the sick list the past week. Mrs. D. Dunkle visited friends in Ridgway Tuesday.

Fred Burrows, of Kinross, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burrows, of this place. Mrs. G. F. Walters and daughter Kathryn were Sheffield shoppers one day last week.

G. P. Lunt, of Memphis, Tennessee, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Cook for a few days last week. M. H. Hendrickson of Youngsville, Pa., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hendrickson, Thursday. Accompanied by his sister Tressa he returned to his home Friday on the 1:45 p. m. train.

Mrs. Dun Antico and Mrs. D. Dunkle were Sheffield shoppers. From there they visited friends in Tiona one day last week. Wm. Desher, while on his way, had the misfortune to leave a piece of shafting drop, hitting him on the toes and bruising them badly. He is now able to get back to his work again.

Gertrude Antico, who for the past two weeks has been with friends in Clarion and Warren, is now with her parents here. Miss Henrietta Kiffer of Glade was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. George Shepherd, the latter part of the week.

Rev. G. S. Bryan filled his appointments Sunday at Beaver Valley and Town Line, returning to his home on Monday. Mrs. L. W. Hendrickson, while coming down the steps at the back door yard, slipped and fell, hitting her back on the steps and causing a severe injury.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Shepherd and family are rejoicing over the arrival of a 13-pound boy at their home Wednesday afternoon.

Colds and Croup in Children.

Many people rely upon Chamberlain's Cough Remedy implicitly in cases of colds and croup, and it never disappoints them. Mrs. E. H. Thomas, Loganport, Ind., writes: "I have found Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best medicine for colds and croup I have ever used, and never tire of recommending it to my neighbors and friends. I have always given it to my children when suffering from croup, and has never failed to give them prompt relief." For sale by all dealers. adv.

TAKE TO SAWDUST TRAIL

Two Pennsylvania State Officials Profess Christianity. Personal work by Rev. William A. Sunday combined with a powerful sermon brought two of the highest officials of Pennsylvania up the sawdust trail in the tabernacle in Pittsburgh. State Highway Commissioner Edward M. Bigelow was the first of the prominent ones to step up and a few minutes later he was followed by John Francis, warden of the Western penitentiary.

The crowd, which numbered nearly 20,000, cheered and applauded as these men stepped down from their seats behind the rostrum, shook hands with the evangelist, then marched on to seats with the other professing converts.

SAVED BY DEFECTIVE FUSE

Suitcase Full of Explosive Found in Rear of Bakery. An infernal machine containing enough dynamite and nitroglycerin to demolish several houses was found behind the bakery of C. F. Kuenzler in Munnhall, Pa. The fuse had been lighted but had gone out and the infernal machine lay for hours before its nature was learned.

Kuenzler saw the suitcase lying in the rear of his shop, but thought it contained tools left by workmen. Later passersby examined the suitcase and found a fuse protruding. The fuse was defective and had burned for only a short distance. The suitcase was then opened.

Ice Cutter Slain in Payday Brawl.

Following a payday brawl among the ice cutters at Gouldsboro, near Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Alex. Viesnok lies in a morgue and Andrew Terbera is in the Wayne county jail charged with murder. Terbera attempted to strike Paul Maslowski with a club when Viesnok interfered as peacemaker and received a blow that killed him.

Counterfeiter Jailed Eight Months.

Samuel Tate, eighty-six years old, said to be the oldest convicted counterfeiter in the United States, is again in jail in Philadelphia charged with counterfeiting silver coin. With him is George Reilly, seventy years old, who is held on a similar charge. Tate has served thirty-nine years in the penitentiary for burglary, counterfeiting and other offenses.

Miners' Bodies Found.

Despite heroic efforts of a big rescue force working in relays, Michael Deffe, a miner, and his laborer, entombed for two days, were dead when reached. The men were imprisoned behind a fall of coal in a Lehigh Coal and Navigation company colliery at Pottsville, Pa., and when found their bodies were lying side by side.

Heroine Made Thief of Him.

Pleading guilty to charges of larceny, Edward Petler in criminal court in Pittsburgh told Judge Joseph M. Swearingen he had become addicted to the heroin habit after he had used the drug to relieve a cough, and that since he has been enslaved by the drug he had lost all sense of moral responsibility.

Tack Causes Loss of Sight.

Mrs. John Wheeler, a resident of Beaver township, near Greenville, Pa., will lose the sight of one of her eyes as the result of a peculiar accident. She was pulling out carpet tacks, using a butcher knife to pry them out, when one of the tacks struck her on the eye destroying the sight.

Says Wife Scalded Him.

Anthony Gatazin is in the Nanticoke (Pa.) hospital, where his life is in danger as a result of scalding. The patient says his wife threw a kettle of boiling water on him.

11,000 Sign Remonstrances.

Remonstrance papers against granting liquor licenses in Butler county, Pa., contain approximately 11,000 signatures.
