SPECIAL TRAIN FOR TOURISTS

Army of Unemployed "Passed Along" by Californians

COUNTIES GLAD TO PAY BILLS.

"On to Washington" Contingent Having Pleasant Journey—L. W. W. Oratory in New York City Checked.

A pleasant journey across the continent seems to be the good fortune of "General" Kelley's command of unemployed men, on their way from San Francisco to Washington to complain to congress of present conditions.

The communities which the army has invaded, only too glad to rid themselves of the "undesirables," have adopted the "pass them along" policy. It cost Contra Costa county $709.50 in railroad fares to ship the army to Benicia, Solano county. Benicia at once made preparations to send it to Colo and Sacramento counties.

An appeal to the state railroad commission brought permission for the Southern Pacific to grant a reduced fare, but the railroad company itself refused to be a party to any plan "for dumping a lot of undesirables onto unoffending communities" and the Solano county officials then agreed to pay first-class fares, as had Contra Costa. A special train was arranged for the party.

Contra Costa county was lavish in its hospitality. It distributed to the two camps of marchers 200 loaves of bread, 6 quarters of beer, 50 sacks of potatoes, 12 sacks of onions, a wagon load of fish and tea, coffee and rice by the hundredweight.

"Colonel" Louis La Place, attached to the staff of "General" Kelley, deserted and returned to San Francisco to resume his place as a police detective. La Place says the army consists of 1,177 officers and privates and is growing in numbers daily; that it plans to divide into two divisions on reaching Kansas, one continuing to Washington by way of Kansas City and the other by way of Omaha.

La Place expresses little sympathy with the personnel of the army or the purposes of its leaders. Some of the members, he says, are working men who were lured from good positions and the rest he declares to be incurable vagrants, with no thought of looking for work. The leaders, he says, are all professional agitators.

Church Invaders Get Thirty Days. Joseph Albers, a member of Frank Tannenbaum's Industrial Workers of the World army, which stormed New York churches, was sentenced in police court to serve thirty days in jail. He was convicted of disorderly conduct and breach of peace.

William Greene, whose case came up next, also received a sentence of thirty days. The magistrate ruled that the man's presence in the church was sufficient evidence of disorderly conduct since he was not a member. Ok-soff Barston, a blacksmith, among the prisoners, was released on $1,000 bail.

Magistrate Campbell received a letter signed "Black Hand" in which he was threatened with dynamite if the Industrial Workers of the World men should be convicted.

Tannenbaum's followers expected that he would be out on bail last night to encourage them. He was not sending word that he would stay in jail until the last one of the rioters was released.

The holding of Frank Tannenbaum for inciting to riot sort of took the starch out of the meeting last night at Rutgers square. All the police had to do was look on.

From his cell in the Jefferson Market prison Tannenbaum sent out a message to his followers to keep up the fight.

Man, Blinded by Snow, Killed. Blinded by the driving snow, Alphonse Jesse, a section hand employed on the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad, stepped in front of a train near New Castle Junction, Pa., and was killed instantly.

Women's Suit Fashions

The tailored suit of yesterday has gone.

The new suits are "untailored" much like dresses. It is hard to tell where the coat leaves off, and the skirt begins. The waist line is disappearing.

Coats do not fit at all, but seem to be falling off.

Collars stand away from the neck.

The bustle effect has come to stay.

Though different the new suits are more beautiful and feminine than ever with ruffles and "poufs" and olden-day collars, and one does not need to "get used" to them.

PENROSE QUI FOR SENATE

Formal Announcement Made—Takes Pride in His Record. Placing the tariff to the front as an issue and attacking the Mexican policy of the Wilson administration Senator Boies Penrose of Pennsylvania made formal announcement of his candidacy for re-election to the United States senate.

"At the urgent solicitation of many persons in all walks of life I have consented to become a candidate to succeed myself as United States senator," reads the announcement. "I invite full discussion as to my record during eighteen years of service in the senate of the United States and as part of that discussion I welcome the candidacy of any Republican who may aspire to the nomination of the Republican party for the office of United States senator at the approaching primaries.

"When I shall have completed my present term in the senate I will have served continuously in legislative office for a period of thirty years. As a member of the house of representatives and senate of Pennsylvania and the senate of the United States I have given the best years of my life to the public service. During that time I am confident it will be found that my vote always has been upon the right side of every public question and it will be admitted generally that my door has been open to my constituents as freely to the poor as to the rich, and to all men regardless of distinctions.

Prisoner Seeks Death. Eluding a guard at the county jail in Pittsburgh, Walter Asser, thirty years old, a federal prisoner, clambered up the outside of several cell tiers, fought off prisoners who reached out through cell bars to seize him on his way up, then leaped from the fourth tier to the cement floor of the jail fifty feet below. His leg was broken and it is thought his skull was fractured. His condition is said to be critical.

Will Use Films to Warn Flirts. Flashing on moving picture screens warnings to men and women not to flirt may become a reality in the downtown nickelodeons of Pittsburgh. Director Charles S. Hubbard of the department of public safety has the subject under consideration.

RECLUSE LOADED WITH COIN

Found Dying in Fireless Shack With $1,700 in Pockets.

James Logan, a recluse, aged seventy, was found dying in a shack on his farm in West Salem township, near Greenville, Pa. His pockets were bulging with money. Logan was found in a room in which there was neither bed or heat.

Logan was taken to the home of a brother and, despite the efforts of neighbors, he would not allow a physician to be called, it is said. More than $1,700 cash was found in Logan's pockets.

Girl Frozen to Death. Miss Ella Sweeney, twenty-two years old, of Freeland, Pa., was found frozen to death in a cutter where her companion, James Bartholdi, had left her in a blinding snowstorm while he went for help. When he reached help two miles distant Bartholdi was so exhausted he was not permitted to return.

Convert Returns Stolen Watch. Last April W. G. Conrad of Pittsburgh lost his watch. He had given up hopes of finding it. One day recently he received a package and this note: "I enclose your watch, which I stole from you last April. I was converted from you last Sunday meeting and I want to live right. Please forgive me."

Man's Head Beneath Engine Tender. An unidentified white man was killed by a Pennsylvania train at Coal Center, near Charleroi, Pa. The accident was not discovered until Engineer Lopp on looking beneath the tender of the engine found a man's head, a leg and an arm.

Banked in the Cellar. Representatives of the Farmers' Trust company of Lancaster, Pa., which is settling the estate of Jefferson Miller, have searched a basement where he spent much of his time. Bonds and cash amounting to $17,000 were found hidden. Miller who left a big estate was afraid of banks.

Charged With Attacking Girl. Bruce Little, aged twenty-two, was arrested and held for court in $1,000 bail by Justice Addison Courtney in Beaver, Pa., on the charge of attacking Elizabeth Vogel, aged ten.

Track Employee Killed. One man, a foreigner, was killed and another seriously injured while at work on the tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad at Mineral Point, five miles from Johnstown, Pa.

Waves Goodbye to Children: Dies. Waving goodbye to his two daughters, seated in a coach of an eastbound Pennsylvania train, a man, aged about thirty-five, leaped beneath the wheels of the coach in which his children were riding and was instantly killed at the East Liberty station in Pittsburgh. He was a foreigner named Stec. The daughters continued their journey not knowing the fate of their father.

Policeman Goes to Mule's Rescue. Rescuing a mule, the heels of which were tied to the rafters of a stable, was the delicate experience of Police Commissioner Johnston in Pittsburgh. The police suspect that the owner hit upon this plan of administering a lesson that terra firma is the best place for a mule's heels after all. The owner of the animal could not be found.

Attacked: She Kills Man. "I defended myself from this brute's attack," declared Mrs. George Strain as she led Lee Glen, superintendent of the lumber camp in Hunter's camp, near Tionesta, Pa., through the deep snow to the body of Bert Allen, whom she had twice stabbed with a butcher knife. Allen was taken to the lumber-bearing camp and died.

Drops Case After Spending $30,000. Having spent $30,000 in court actions against the M. T. & S. Kennedy company in an attempt to gain possession of an alleged street opening to the Beaver river known as Island Lane, the Rochester (Pa.) town council has voted to drop the suit rather than expend another $1,000 on an appeal to the supreme court.

Woodman Frozen to Death. The remains of George Mattie, forty-five years old, a woodman, was found in a forest one mile from South Fork, Pa. Mattie had been missing since last Friday, when he went to the woods to cut some lumber. It was the opinion that he became lost in the snow and perished from the extreme cold weather.

Banked in the Cellar. Representatives of the Farmers' Trust company of Lancaster, Pa., which is settling the estate of Jefferson Miller, have searched a basement where he spent much of his time. Bonds and cash amounting to $17,000 were found hidden. Miller who left a big estate was afraid of banks.

Exceptional Early Season Prices in the Second Floor Garment Section.

Garments and prices that should make this an exceedingly busy department. An occasion planned for during our recent visit to the New York market. At which time some very extraordinary purchases were made in conjunction with other members of the great buying syndicate of which we are members. And the garments are here today at prices so much less than garments of such character are usually quoted that they seem like reduced prices. Just a brief summary of what this showing consists of:

- All Silk Crepe de Chine Waists $3.50.
- New Tailored Skirts at $2.75, $3.00 and $3.50.
- A wonderful showing New Silk Dresses at $10.00 and $11.50.
- A Combination Dress—bodice and sleeves of chiffon and lace and charmeuse messaline skirt, $11.50.
- A half hundred wonderfully pretty New Spring Coats, Wool Ratines, Striped Eponges, Soft Diagonals, Novelty Mixtures, Honeycomb Cloth, etc., at $11.50, $12.50, $14.50, $15.00, $16.50 and $18.50.
- One hundred new Suits—tangos, terra cottas, chickory, reseda, canard blue—styles just as attractive as the colors—colors just as cheerful as the styles, $10.00, $12.50, $14.50, $15.00, $16.50, $18.50, $19.50 and $20.00.

A SEAMLESS ALL SILK HOSE 60c PAIR.

And there's not a better hose shown on any counter anywhere for a half dollar.

KEYSER'S CHAMOISETTE GLOVES 50c PAIR.

"Keyser" means best—white, natural color or tan—black or self stitch.

Die geeignete Auswahl von Brillen.

Es sind mehr Augen durch unrichtiges Anpassen von Gläsern als durch sonst etwas ruinirt worden. Hat das Auge mangelhafte Refraction, so muß das Bild aller Gegenstände nach einem Focus auf der Netzhaut durch außergewöhnliche Tätigkeit des musculus ciliaris gebracht, oder das Bild unvollkommen fein und das Resultat vermindertes Sehen mit Schwäche und Schmerz um Augen und Stirn. Dies verursacht Congestionen, welche sich durch schwere Augenlider, Rötze, Jucken oder Brennen, im Gefühl, als sei Schmutz im Auge, and häufigen Schmerz, verbunden mit Empfindlichkeit gegen Licht zeigen. Je schwächer das Auge, desto fühlbarer obige Symptome. Augen mögen physikalisch stark und gleichwohl sehr schwach sein und umgekehrt.

Um durch Gebrauch einer Brille die Kräfte aufzuheben, wird die Tätigkeit der Muskeln geändert, und wenn der Schaden vorüber oder durch zu stark oder zu schwache Gläser nicht aufgehoben ist, so sind die Ursachen der Congestion eher vermehrt statt vermindert. Bestes gemischte Refraction, muß irgend ein Handelsglas den Schaden verheben. Jeder Schwächliche sollte sich sorgfältig wissenschaftlich unterziehen und Brillen anpassen lassen, ehe er sie in Gebrauch nimmt.

In besonders Fällen werden Gläser auf Bestellung geschliffen, in jedem Falle garantiert.
