Leaders in Fight Over Canal Tolls Repeal. By virtue of an Act of Assembly entitled 'An Act to regulate the collection of taxes on unseated lands', approved the 6th day of June, 1897, interest will be charged on 1912 taxes from January 1, 1913, to date of payment, and on 1913 taxes from January 1, 1914, to date of payment, at the rate of six per cent, per annum.

W. H. BRAZEE, Treasurer, Tionesta, Pa., March 23, 1914. Mercantile Appraiser's List for Forest County for Year A. D. 1914. The Wholesale and Retail Venders of Foreign and Domestic Merchandise, Etc., in Forest County, Pennsylvania, are as follows, to-wit:

NO IMPROVEMENT

NO IMPROVEMENT. Trade Affairs Fail to Show Anything, Says Report. Dun's Review of Trade says this week: 'Expected improvement in trade conditions has not as yet materialized, and while indications of progress are manifest in certain directions, there is still a lack of uniformity in reports from the padding centers.'

RESISTING ITALIANS SHOT

RESISTING ITALIANS SHOT. Seven Masked Bandits Fire Into Party of Foreigners. Two parties of Italians were held up near Barnesboro, Pa., by seven armed and masked bandits. Both parties of men were robbed and the second crowd was fired into, one man being killed and two others being probably fatally injured.

Jap Arrested as Spy

Jap Arrested as Spy. F. S. Otruka, a Japanese arrested as a possible spy, was captured as he tried to escape in a taxicab from the immigration station in Philadelphia. It was seen to take photographs of Fort Mott and the League Island navy yard.

Steel Company to Make Benzine

Steel Company to Make Benzine. An appropriation of $400,000 has been made by the United States Steel corporation for an extension to the by-product coking plant of the Carnegie Steel company at Farrell, Pa., to manufacture benzine. It will afford employment to a large number of men.

FEDERALS ARE TRAPPED IN CITY. So Reports Villa, Telling News of Torreon Victory. REBELS WIN GREAT BATTLE. Juarez Reports That Three Federal Generals Were Slain During Five Days' Fighting—General Villa a Picturesque Leader as He Heads Army in Onslaught—Losses Reported Heavy at Gomez Palacio.

Another Sensation is Added to England's Army Crisis When Premier Announces Temporary Retirement. London, March 31.—A series of sensations in the house of commons in connection with the army crisis reached a climax with the announcement by Premier Asquith that he would assume the portfolio of secretary of war vacated by Colonel Seely. He added that, as provided by law, he would retire from the house of commons until his constituents in East Fife re-elected him.

ASQUITH QUILTS FOR TWO WEEKS

ASQUITH QUILTS FOR TWO WEEKS. Takes Post of War Secretary For That Period. WANTS APPROVAL OF VOTERS. The decision of the premier was unexpected. It momentarily overshadowed the retirement of Colonel Seely, Field Marshal French and Adjutant General Ewart. Politicians, however, were brought back to the original cause of the ministerial crisis by the admissions of Viscount Morley in the house of lords, which confirmed many Unionist charges, and gave the intimation that Viscount Morley himself intended to retire from politics.
