—This is the time of year when the annual sasaparilla tea gets in our midst, tones up and liquefies the stagnated blood, and beats all the patent nostrums on the market for toning up the system. Get a little and feel chipper and lively like the early birds of spring.
—It is given out on what is considered reliable authority that the project, which has lain dormant for some time, to connect Oil City with Tionesta by trolley line, has received new impetus of late, not necessarily as a business proposition, but because there is said to be more moisture, and the fishing is going to be better this spring up in the Crawford diocese.
—A Sheffield correspondent states that the G. R. Woods Co. has a stone quarry job at Parish, Forest county, on the T. V. Ry., and on Thursday Lone and Charles Walker and Clarence Malm made up the army to advance on the same and work for a short time. The boys looked rather neat attired in the overall uniforms of blue and no doubt they will be muscle sore for a while.
—Bonnie, the pretty little English "setter" belonging to Rev. Mr. Bailey died very suddenly last Thursday, and there was grief at the parsonage, for a sweeter tempered or more affectionate little canine would be hard to find. She was the mother of many of our town's best bird dogs, and a general favorite. It is thought the dog got a dose of poison, probably ratbane.
—Judge Criswell handed down his decision in the license hearings last week refusing all applications, except in the case of the two asked for breweries, which are held up for further consideration, and now old Venango county is dryer than a bone, leastwise so far as the legal sale of intoxicants is concerned. There is gladness as well as sadness in her sacred precincts over the result, depending upon whom you happen to be up against in discussing the state of affairs, and we imagine we can hear the poetic wail at this distance, the refrain of which runs something like, "How dry I am; how dry I am; oh, nobody knows how dry I am, and nobody seems to care a continental."

—Reports from Youngville are to the effect that, on Monday of last week, a well was shot for Stow Suley of West Hickory, that started out at a ten barrel gait, and is settling down to a nice producer. This well was struck along the route of the Youngville and Sugar Grove railway and is in practically new territory. A number of other wells will be sunk in that vicinity.
—In the W. C. T. U. debate at the court house, Tuesday night of last week, on the question "Resolved, That the most effective method of securing prohibition and home protection is through woman's ballot," the affirmative as represented by Rev. H. A. Bailey, Rev. B. F. Felt and F. R. Lanson, won after a spirited and interesting contest. The negative side was ably presented by A. C. Brown, W. C. Inel and James J. Landers.
—Ho for the Cohen fruit store. The greatest stock ever, in all sorts of fruit and vegetables. Luscious Sun-Kissed oranges, today and Thursday, 5 dozen for $10.00. Most perfect bananas 10, 15 and 20 cents per dozen. Porto Rico grape fruit as large as your head, the like of which has never before been seen in this market. Finest onions, head lettuce, rhubarb, cucumbers, and vegetables of every kind. Be prompt for they won't last long at the rate we are selling these elegant goods. H. I. Cohen—adv.
—Friends in this section have received word of the death, on the 30th ult., of Mrs. Charles Creed, at her home in Duncombe, Iowa, aged about 75 years. Mrs. Creed will be remembered by many of the older citizens of this and Clarion counties as a former resident near Tylersburg, where many years of her life were spent. The family moved to Iowa about thirty-two years ago. Mrs. Creed was a sister of Mrs. J. H. Smith of Lickingville, Mrs. S. M. Whitehill and Mrs. Wm. Wilkinson, of Marienville.
—Wm. Smearbaugh is hobbling around on crutches these days because of a peculiar accident which befell him a few mornings ago. He had gone to the bathroom to perform an early morning ablution, and in attempting to take the plunge into the bath-tub the little toe of his right foot caught in some unaccountable manner, fracturing the bone and causing a painful injury. Dr. Henry gave the necessary attention and warned Mr. S. against too much rashness in his bathing tendencies and familiarity with water.
—We regret the departure from our community of neighbor W. H. Shaffer who has for a number of years very successfully operated the Proper farm at the top of German Hill. Mr. Shaffer purchased the N. F. Hoover farm near Tylersburg some time ago, and last week he moved his family and household effects to that place. His daughter, Miss Erdie, is a member of the senior class which will be graduated from the Borough high school this season, and remains to finish the course. W. S. Bowers, a Tidioute gentleman, will succeed Mr. Shaffer as tenant of the Proper farm, and has already taken possession of the place.
—At the annual congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church, Thursday evening, S. D. Irwin, E. Q., and L. J. Hopkins were elected to membership on the board of trustees, which is composed of five members, and T. F. Ritchey E. Q., was elected treasurer. Reports from the Woman's home and foreign missionary society, the Sunday school, the Christian Endeavor and the Ladies Aid, were given, all showing a healthy state of affairs in these several departments. The church roll was materially increased during the past year, the addition being active energetic accessions. As showing their appreciation and esteem for their popular Pastor, Rev. H. A. Bailey, the congregation unanimously voted him an advance in salary, the sum now being $1,200 a year.
—In a cheerful note from our old friend and former citizen, Rev. Wm. Richards of Warren, inclosing a substantial check in renewal of his subscription, he gives the welcome news that his health is very much improved, and the "old fellow" finds himself able to do a lot of business, though not just as spry as he once was, to be sure. The Jefferson County Gas Co., of which Mr. Richards is a leading member, is selling four million cubic feet of gas every day, with the future outlook good. They are also starting a string on a second crop in their old oil field near Sigel, where they have many acres to drill over for oil. Mr. Richards says the Free Methodists of Warren are building a very nice brick veneer church this season. It will be 40x50 by 18 feet in height, with a seating capacity of 300, together with a class room and Sunday school basement 25x40 feet.
—The managers of the Coleman, Harter & McCormick lumbering plant at Johns run expect to have everything ship shape for the starting of all departments by Monday or Tuesday at the latest next week. The railroad will be in condition by that time to begin regular trips to the timber tracts, and Mr. Alexander, who has charge of the carrying and bringing the logs to the mill expects to keep the big plant well supplied with stock so there shall be no delay for lack of saw material, once the saws are set in motion. The new mill boss, A. E. VanWegen, is said to be a hustler, and having completed all needed changes and repairs, the mill is expected to go along with shut-downs far between times, and the output of lumber will be much greater than last season. Shipping facilities, since the completion of the new bridge over Tionesta creek, are now well nigh perfect, which will greatly relieve the yard room as it is expected to keep the daily shipments over the S. & T. road well up to the mill's capacity.
Public Sale.
There will be exposed to Public Sale at the A. B. Kelly farm at Oldtown, Pa., on Wednesday, April 15, 1914, at 10 o'clock a. m., the following personal property: Three cows, eight two-year-olds, three yearlings, one spring calf, four head of work horses, three set of double harness, eight hogs and fourteen little pigs, mowing machine, side drop reaper, plow, two spring tooth harrows and one American harrow, one corn planter, two pair of trucks, one buggy, a lot of hay, straw and oats, buckwheat, corn, potatoes, and a general lot of household goods too numerous to mention. Also a farm of 39 acres, in Tionesta township, Pa. Terms made known on day of sale. J. D. WRANT, Pat. Fitzgerald, Auctioneer.

PERSONAL.
—Capt. J. J. Haight of Cooper Troop was a visitor in town yesterday.
—Mrs. Rosa A. Walker visited Warren friends several days of the past week.
—A daughter was born Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sparks, of Eagle Rock.
—Mrs. J. E. Wink is visiting her mother, Mrs. S. M. Whitehill, at Marienville.
—Prof. F. W. Gill was down from Tidioute to spend Sunday with Tionesta friends.
—Miss June Herman, teacher in the Youngville school, is home for the Easter week vacation.
—Editor Walker of the Warren Times was a visitor in Tionesta Monday, a guest of his son, Ross A. Walker.
—Mrs. Howe Lyon returned home Thursday from an extended visit to friends at her old home in Butler.
—Mrs. S. E. Pierce and mother, Mrs. Mary McFadden, are spending the week at their old home in Toronto, Ohio.
—Mrs. Cora Watson Felt came home Friday from her winter's visit with her sister, Mrs. L. A. Bozard, at Lamison, Ala.
—Charles Killmer came home Monday from near Bartlesville, Okla., where he has been for the past two months engaged in the oil fields.
—Mrs. Frank H. Hamilton and little son, Jack, are down from Tionesta for a visit with the former's brother and sister.—Franklin News.
—Misses Blanche Pease and Katharine Osgood came home Saturday morning from their school work at Akron, Ohio, to enjoy the Easter week vacation.
—Aurora Foreman, Charles Flick and Charles Dotterer are home from Allegheny college for the Easter vacation. This is Mr. Dotterer's last year at college.
—T. D. Collins is reported some better this morning from a serious attack of illness at his Nebraska home, being able to again give considerable attention to business affairs.
—Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Douth returned from Florida last week. Their daughter, Miss Genevieve, remains for six weeks as teacher of elocution in Southern college at Southernland.
—Mrs. Vernah Watson Shewman and son Alon have made arrangements to leave here May 4th for their home at Risley, Oregon, after spending the winter without relatives in the east.
—Roy S. Braden, our talented young friend of Cooksburg, this county, has been elected city engineer of Kane, Pa., and will assume his new duties within a short time. Roy will make good.
—Thomas Snodgrass, while moving into the Bromley house last week, gave his back a bad wrench in doing some heavy lifting and was laid up several days in consequence. He's able to be about again.
—Miss Edith Arner entertained her fellow members of the senior class of the high school, including their teachers, Prof. White and Miss Dimond, in a prettily appointed function at her home Wednesday evening.
—J. W. Korb, for the past couple of years superintending the work at the Wilburine pump station located at the mouth of Peters run, will in a short time remove to Warren to again take up his work for the same company in that locality. Before leaving he will superintend the work of moving the large tanks some distance back from the S. & T. railroad right of way. E. M. Korb of Pleasantville will take J. W.'s place here.
—W. L. Klinefelter, on account of his poor health, has been seeking for outdoor employment and is now working as outside foreman for the Sheffield tannery. He has been one of the head bookkeepers for the Elk Tanning Co. for close to twenty years and the inside work is no doubt the cause of his poor condition. Wayne Smith is the new bookkeeper and Frank Klinefelter takes up his father's work in the office.—Sheffield cor. Warren Times.

Kellettville.
Mrs. Wm. Watson was a business visitor in Sheffield on Tuesday and F. V. Hendrickson and wife were up last Wednesday.
James Flynn and Carroll Berlin were Warren visitors Friday.
Dora Suley of Ross Run was a visitor in town Thursday, being the guest of Mrs. J. Blum.
Emma Rudolph of Newtown visited her sister, Mrs. Wm. Watson, Thursday.
The W. C. T. U. held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Huidah Smalbenberger, Wednesday afternoon. The subject of "work among lumbermen" was taken up. Mrs. Ida Klinefelter, the superintendent of that department, conducted the meeting and a very interesting program was given.
The members of the Willing Workers' Sunday school class met at the home of Alvin Johnson, Wednesday evening, April 1st, and helped him to remember his nineteenth birthday. The fine lunch that was served was one of the enjoyable features of this most pleasant evening.
The pupils of the high school are preparing a play to be given in the near future.
Fred Gillespie has moved his family from Salmon Creek to Whig Hill, on the Emert farm.
Wm. Carbaugh spent the week in Oil City. While there he called on Rev. W. E. Frampton's at their home in Rousseauville.
Mrs. James Blyler was confined to her bed during the week with a severe cold.
Tressa Hendrickson was down from Mayburg over Sunday, the guest of Mabel Watson.
Margaret Goodfellow went to Warren Saturday to take her music lesson.
Mrs. M. F. Catlin was down from Minster Friday and took in the banquet in the evening. She was the guest of Mrs. Mary Flynn over night.
Margaret Detar has been confined to her bed for the past week with cold, but is improving.
W. C. Sizile will meet his boys Thursday evening to organize. They have suggested to the Helping Hand class that they might select the name of Helping Feet. Why not? You will be surprised to find how helpful your feet can be if you make an effort to direct them in the right course. No pun there.
W. L. Watson, Squire Geo. Zuendel and F. E. Harkless took "the civil service examination Saturday morning.
R. W. Whitehill and wife spent the week-end with the latter's parents in Sheffield.
E. E. Daubenspeck returned home from Tylersburg, where he spent a week at hard work on the farm.
The members of the Helping Hand Bible class served a three-course chicken supper to the members of the Men's Adult class at the hall Friday evening. Covers were laid for 130. The hall was tastefully decorated in the class colors, red and white, which color scheme was carried out in the service. Red and white carnations were used as favors and beautiful bouquets adorned the tables and were afterwards distributed amongst the sick and shut-ins. Toasts were given by Rev. Henry Smalbenberger, F. V. Hendrickson, Mrs. F. J. Henderson and Mrs. Dotterer. Mrs. Maude Berlin, chairman of the social committee, had charge of the serving and was assisted by the members of her committee. The men have promised to do us one better in the near future, so we are looking for a pleasant surprise.
Mrs. Chas. Price has returned from Erie, where she had been called by the illness of her mother, who is still in a critical condition. Their son Lloyd will not be able to leave the hospital at Pittsburgh for a month yet. Their daughter Carl had a nervous breakdown last week from overwork and worry. Altogether they seem to be having more of their share of illness.
Mrs. W. L. Watson entertained twenty of the members of her Sunday school class at her home Saturday evening. A very pleasant time is the verdict of all, the splendid lunch being one of the enjoyable features.
Dr. C. Y. and W. J. Detar entertained two of their brothers during the week.
Mrs. Waldo Reigies of Raymlton, came Friday to her aunt, Mrs. J. Smith, for a short visit there and at W. E. Carbaugh's and C. Tomadson's; also to visit with her sister, Mrs. Bailly, who is their guest.
Mrs. Saltgiver, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Daubenspeck, for the past month, returned to her home in Tylersburg the first of the week.
Mrs. McKensie, who has been visiting her daughter for the past week, returned to her home at Newmansville.
I would like to say to Rev. G. S. Bryan that we do not stand corrected. Rev. and Mrs. G. S. Bryan were making their headquarters at Mrs. Harrington's. The neighbors were asked to donate, for I was asked. A liberal supply of seats were given, for I was there and saw the supply. While I knew that I was somewhat exaggerating the need, I expected it to be taken in the spirit that it was given, and otherwise stated what I then believed, and still believe to be the facts in the case. Being busy when the committee called on me, I asked no questions but was told by my neighbors that they had been told that the donation was made because Mrs. H. thought she could not afford to supply the wants of all. On going down town I found that to be the idea conveyed by all, and when I presented my little donation I said if she was in need in a few weeks I would give her more, and she stated in the presence of several of the members of Mr. B.'s congregation that they would be gone by that time and there would then be no need. It has been the custom for years for the town to be asked to donate to the F. M. ministers, and they have always responded liberally, but always found it thankfully received and acknowledged before. It is known that Mr. B. bought some supplies while in town. So did the woman furnish who went to the Sunday school picnic and furnished one dozen pickles and seven children, then said people ought to be ashamed to ask folks to furnish for a picnic and not give any better eats. Wearable liable to overestimate what we do. Mrs. Harrington knew who wrote the item referred to and if the reverend gentleman did not he could have found out by asking almost any one in town. I am always glad to make right any mistake I make. It does not require very much courage to pipe from behind the pulpit that an individual is a falsifier, or to seek an apology from the editor who knows nothing of the facts in the matter, but I would ask the reverend gentleman if he has anything further to say on the subject that he play the part of a christian gentleman and come to me. I am willing to face him before any number of witnesses he may bring. As the reverend gentleman said when he stated that a certain minister was going to hell along with his members, "I might say more," but I believe that I have made it clear that nothing but a news item was intended. Any further reference to this matter in the paper will be simply ignored. I try to write what I think will be interesting to the people, and I have a better opinion of them than to think this is.

Forest County's Road Supervisors To Meet in Convention.
HARRISBURG, April 4.—On the sixteenth of this month the Bureau of Township Highways of the State Highway Department will complete the formation of organizations of township supervisors in the counties of the state as provided for in the legislative acts of July 22, 1913, and May 8, 1913, the latter of which authorized formations of such associations of officials in charge of the construction and maintenance of public roads in every county of the state.
Under the direction of Joseph W. Hunter, first deputy state highway commissioner in charge of the Bureau of Township Highways, assisted by E. A. Jones, second deputy state highway commissioner, and W. A. Wynn, maintenance engineer of the Bureau of Township Highways, these county meetings have been held at the rate of six or eight a week and, in counties where the supervisors already had an association, their meeting this year was held for the first time under the auspices of the State Highway Department.
During the week of April 13 the two final meetings will be held. On Thursday, April 16, the Forest county association of supervisors will be formed at a meeting to be held at 10 o'clock in the morning in the court house at Tionesta. This meeting will be addressed by Mr. Hunter, who will outline the procedure necessary to perfect the formation of an association of supervisors. This will be the final county meeting and the work of the Bureau of Township Highways during the coming year will be in co-operation with the various county associations thus formed.
Each township supervisor of Forest county has been notified of the meeting and the law specifies that all those who attend shall be paid $2 per day with mileage at the rate of three cents a mile, provided that no supervisor receives more than two days' pay in one year. In organizing the county associations there is elected a president, two vice-presidents, a secretary and treasurer, all of whom shall be members of the association, with the exception of the secretary, who may be a person not a member of the association and who may receive a salary not to exceed $10 a year. The mayor of any city or borough of any borough, or its representatives, county commissioners and county court judges are eligible to membership in the association and are permitted to expend $125 for convention purposes, which sum is obtained from the county treasurer under the provisions of the Act of May 8, 1913. This sum is not available until the treasurer of the county association presents to the county treasurer an itemized statement of expenditures incurred and verified by affidavit.
T. C. Frame, assistant engineer of the State Highway Department in charge of the district of which Forest county is a part, will attend the meeting, as will also Paul Brubaker, county superintendent of Forest county.
While these meetings are called by the State Highway Department under the terms of the acts of assembly, it should be understood that they are primarily intended to gather together in each county all persons who are interested in the subject of good roads and highway improvement and are to constitute the first steps in the formation of permanent associations in each county for the good roads movement. It is particularly urgent, therefore, that all persons interested in the subject of good roads should make it a point to be at these meetings and to participate in the discussions, offering such suggestions and recommendations as they may deem fitting.
Remember the date and time of meeting, April 16, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the court house.
Clarington.
Harry Campbell of Oil City came home for a few days and he and Mrs. Campbell left for their new home in Oil City, where he has employment.
E. E. Heasty has returned to his work in Warren county.
Kellettville high school basket ball team came over last Saturday and crossed swords with our team and won by 22-18. It was surely a fast game.
There are four wells drilling near here at present, and two others almost ready to start. These wells will test this field pretty well.
The play given by the W. C. T. U. in the opera house on the 27th ult. was well presented, and well received by the audience. The weather and road conditions were such that the outside world could not attend. The name of the play is "The Social Glass." Some of the performers surely did their parts well, and it may be hard for them to convince some that they have had no experience. They also gave a good program, and was fairly well attended for the kind of weather and condition of the roads.
Jos. H. Hoff is visiting in Warren for a few days.
W. D. Shields has gone to Wire Bridge, W. Va., to look after his lumbering interests. He expects to be gone for some time.
Mrs. Bishop of Ashabula, Ohio, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. A. Royer.
D. E. Danlike and wife were over from Mayburg for a few days taking care of his mother, who was afflicted with erysipelas. She is able to be about again.
Mr. Walters, of Idaho, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Waila.

We make it our business to sell you a hat that you'll like today, and every day you put it on.

Men's Gloves That Spell Satisfaction.
The average man need not think about the style of his gloves—he wants quality and wear, if he takes time to analyze his wants at all. Our gloves have these qualities, or they wouldn't be here. They're style, too—and among them are many new suggestions for men who like to be gilded a bit out of the ordinary.

For Confirmation or For Easter.
We've everything the boy'll need. Blue Norfolk Suits, of fine all wool chevots and serges, at $4.00, $5.00, $6.00 and $7.00. Spring Topcoats in fancy blue serges, and fine coverts and chevots, at $3.00, $4.00 and $5.00. Hats, Gloves, Waists, Neckties, Stockings, etc.—all decidedly correct and good.
