Calendar for April 1914 showing days of the week and dates.

Election of County Superintendent.

To the School Directors of Forest County: Notice is hereby given that the School Directors of Forest County will meet at the Court House, in Tionesta, on Tuesday, the 5th day of May, 1914, at 1:30 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of electing a legally qualified person as County Superintendent of Public Schools for the ensuing term.

J. O. CARSON, Superintendent of Public Schools, Tionesta, Pa., March 30, 1914.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.

We are authorized to announce J. O. Carson as a candidate for Superintendent of the Public Schools of Forest County, subject to the decision of the School Directors in Convention, May 5th, 1914.

Announcement.

ED. REPUBLICAN:—At the urgent solicitation of friends throughout the county, I have consented to again be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Assembly from Forest County at the Primaries, May 19, 1914.

War With Mexico.

When a yellow dog barks at you on the street, make him stand on his hind legs and salute. If he demurs, call out the Boat Club.—Oil City Blizzard.

The fact that the present counselor for the Department of State was formerly attorney in Washington for the Huerta government is not without its advantages. He may be able to tell Secretary Bryan how to get next to Huerta's curves.

Warmly Endorse Mr. Brumbaugh

Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, the Republican candidate for Governor, is a native of Huntingdon county. The editor of the Huntingdon Globe speaks of him in a recent article as follows: "The citizens of Huntingdon county, regardless of political affiliations, are exceedingly rejoiced over the announcement that one of her most distinguished sons, Dr. Martin Greve Brumbaugh, has accepted the request of the 'Home Folks' together with many thousands of other friends, and announced himself as a Republican candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania."

man who subsequently became the first commissioner of public education of Porto Rico, the head of the department of pedagogy in the University of Pennsylvania, now the superintendent of the public school system of Philadelphia with its 5000 teachers and 200,000 pupils, and an educator of national renown. "Dr. Brumbaugh has filled every post with distinction. He is absolutely void of guile and subterfuge. He has the courage of his convictions and is no man's man in anything. We at home who know him best unreservedly vouch for that. Dr. Brumbaugh has further ambitions. It is to be the governor of his native state. It is a laudable ambition. He is worthy of it. He has the brains, the moral courage and the purpose to do right. A man of prodigious energy and strong intellectuality, coupled with genius as an executive, he is the undoubted Man of the Hour.

DR. MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

"In our political experience, covering a period of over thirty years, we have never witnessed a more sportsmanlike and universal call for the public service of any man than in the case of Dr. Brumbaugh. It is on a par with that great uprising of the people in favor of Major McKinley for President in 1896, when every other candidate, no matter how worthy, was but a drop of water in that stupendous avalanche which swept the 'Little Napoleon' from Ohio to Washington. "At the outset of this campaign we submit that, having known Dr. Brumbaugh from his boyhood days, we have been such a constant witness of his integrity, ability and truthfulness, as well as his confidence in so many of the noble purposes and high ideals which invest his character, that we cheerfully commend him without any equivocation or reservation to the people of the commonwealth who want the services of a great and good man. "He was born in Huntingdon county, at the foot hills of the Alleghenies, fifty-two years ago. He is in the prime of life, a giant in stature and intellect, a teacher, a preacher, a lecturer, a disciplinarian, an executive, and a man of such pure life and unassailable character that singles him out from among the seven millions of Pennsylvanians as the one man who gloriously meets the emergency of the hour, as it has in many epochs of our state and nation's history heretofore. "He is a farmer's son. He was a schoolteacher at sixteen, a college graduate at nineteen, our county superintendent of schools at twenty-two, and president of Juniata college, his alma mater, at twenty-seven. That was making great strides, but it was only the budding of the splendid career of

FOR JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA. GEORGE KUNKEL, President Judge of Dauphin County. The Judge in all state tax cases of the past ten years. The Judge who upheld the constitutionality of the Full Crew Law—sustained by the Supreme Court. The Judge before whom the Capitol Graft conspirators were convicted, resulting in nearly $2,000,000 being recovered by the state. The Supreme Court has sustained him in nine out of every ten of his decisions which have been appealed. Six years as District Attorney—six years in the General Assembly—ten years on the Dauphin County Bench. His absolute fairness as a Judge resulted in his re-election last year without a vote against him. Whether you are enrolled or not you can vote for him on the non-partisan ballot in this way:

GEORGE KUNKEL, President Judge of Dauphin County.

Recent Deaths.

DONOVAN. Daniel Donovan, of President twp., Venango county, Pa., died suddenly at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ellen O'Hara, near Stewart's run at 3:30 p. m. April 19, 1914, from a paralytic stroke. Mr. Donovan suffered a similar stroke some six years ago, since which time he has been in failing health. He was born in County Cork, March 21, 1892. When ten years of age he emigrated to America, first living at Eagle, Rock, Pa., with his brother, the late Patrick Donovan, a prominent citizen of President township for many years and who was employed in building the Warren & Franklin railroad now a part of the P. R. R. system, up the Allegheny valley. Later he moved on the farm in President twp., with his brother Patrick, where he has made his home since.

He is survived by three brothers, William, of Kansas City, Mo.; John, of Franklin, and James, of Parkersburg, W. Va., and by one sister, Mrs. Ellen O'Hara, of Stewart's run, Pa. The deceased was single, and after the death of his brother resided on the Donovan homestead with his nephew, Patrick Donovan, Jr. He was held in general esteem in the section in which he lived and by all who knew him. The funeral services were held at the Catholic church, Tionesta, on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Father Andrew Wiersbinski, of Tidioute, after which the body was conveyed to Oil City, where interment was in St. Joseph's cemetery at that place.

ADAMS. Wm. H. Adams, father of our townsman, J. A. Adams, died at the home of his daughter, in Boston, Mass., at 4:15 o'clock Monday, April 20, 1914. He had been in declining health for two or three years, and at one time within the past year his children were summoned to his bedside believing that the end was near, but he rallied from the attack and had been able to be about again. Mr. Adams was born near Slippery Rock, Butler county, Pa., Dec. 4, 1840. In the year 1869 he was united in marriage with Miss Mary A. Armstrong, who survives him. Most of his married life was spent in the vicinity of New Castle, Pa., where he owned a fine farm. Not long after disposing of his property in that locality he and his wife broke up housekeeping and made their home with their children, Mr. Adams spending a year with his son in Tionesta, during which period he made many friends by his quiet unassuming manner, all of whom will bear of his passing away with genuine regret. Mr. Adams was a true christian gentleman, and from early manhood was a member of the Presbyterian church. Besides his widow five children survive, namely, Eli D. Adams of Butte, Mont.; Mrs. A. Gifford of Boston, Mass.; Mrs. M. D. Allen and George W. Adams of New Castle, Pa., and J. A. Adams of Tionesta. The body will be taken to New Castle for interment, where the funeral will be held, the date and hour not having been determined at this writing.

DINGLE. Jacob D. Dingle, one of Kelleetville's well known and very highly esteemed citizens, died at his home in that place Monday morning, April 20, 1914, of uraemic poisoning after a short illness. He was born in Ohio Nov. 23, 1865. Twenty-four years ago he was united in marriage with Miss Elizabeth Williams of Orwell, Ohio, who, with six children, survives, namely, Mrs. Forest Beck of Meadville, Pa.; Vivian Dingle of Ashabulab, Ohio; Lena, Paul, Helen and Lois Dingle, at home. Two grand children, and the following brothers and sisters, all living at Union City, also survive: John, George, William, Arthur and Joseph Dingle, Mrs. Nellie Rouse, Mrs. Catherine Prisket, Mrs. Lizzie Coe, Miss Emma Dingle. The deceased was a carpenter by trade, and had lived successfully at Union City, Cloughs Mills, Buck Mills, and less than a year ago had moved with his family to Kelleetville, where his employment had been for several years past. In all of those places he had left his impress as a model citizen, a true friend and a clean, upright man in all the walks of life, and his circle of friendships was limited only by the number of his acquaintances. His passing away in the prime of life is a distinct loss to the community from which he will be greatly missed. Mr. Dingle was a member of the Odd Fellows fraternity under whose auspices the funeral will be held at Union City, today.

In this connection the stricken wife and children desire to express their thanks to the neighbors and friends who have so kindly ministered to them in this hour of their great affliction.

Nothing So Good for a Cough or Cold.

When you have a cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to get rid of it with the least possible delay. There are many who consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy unsurpassed. Mrs. J. Boroff, Elida, Ohio, says, "Ever since my daughter Ruth was cured of a severe cold and cough by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy two years ago I have felt kindly disposed toward the manufacturers of that preparation. I know of nothing so quick to relieve a cough or cure a cold." For sale by all dealers.
