CO. C. CARSON. We are authorized to announce J. O. Carson as a candidate for Superintendent of Public Schools of Forest County, subject to the decision of the School Directors in Convention, May 5th, 1914.

Announcement.

ED. REPUBLICAN: At the urgent solicitation of friends throughout the county, I have consented to again be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Assembly from Forest County at the Primaries, May 19, 1914.

A. R. MECHLING, Clarington, Pa., March 31, 1914.

Our War With Mexico.

The war with Mexico is on, or is not, as you please to look at it. The latest phase of the entangled situation is the offer of the three greatest South American Republics—Brazil, Argentina and Chile—their good offices in mediation of the embroglio. This offer has been gladly and speedily accepted by President Wilson, and Huerta has reluctantly done the same for his government. If by this method further hostilities can be averted everybody will say amen to the proposition, but wise heads shake in doubt.

At last the railroads are "smoked out," and are flooding the national capital with their "big gun" spokesmen to convince the lawmakers that the Wilson canal surrender policy is just the thing. The whole people will have their say later on, and then, as happened in New Jersey two weeks ago, there will be fewer railroad-British congressmen in Washington.

We note with no little apprehension that a brother sufferer of the scissor and paste-pot, in the person of Editor Haldeman of the Enquirer Herald, has been literally dragged out of his editorial den and compelled to stand as a Republican candidate for Assembly at the approaching primaries in Venango county. While we have a feeling of commiseration for any erring brother, we are happy to believe that in this instance, it serves him right, and he will, to all appearances, have to take his medicine, there being two to nominate and but one other in the field.

Mrs. G. R. Johnson and daughter, Mrs. H. E. Murphy, who has been her guest for the past month, went to Sheffield Thursday and spent the day, the former returning home again in the evening while the latter went on to her home at Ridgway. Mrs. Johnson left again Monday and will spend the week in Sheffield. Mr. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cunningham and children went up Tuesday noon, where they are all attending the wedding of Hannah Johnson, which will be solemnized in the Catholic church this Wednesday morning, 29th.

Mrs. W. L. Watson spent several days in Warren and North Warren during the week. Harry Shaw's baby has been quite sick for the past week but is improving. Roy Berlin, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., was in town several days during the week, coming down to visit his wife who has spent the past month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, and to see the new baby who will be calling him papa in the near future.

Wm. Hartman was in town Saturday and placed his goods on the car to be shipped to the new camp above Mayburg, where they expect to keep boarders. Prof. and Mrs. J. L. Simmons, and Margaret Goodfellow, were Warren visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Sarah Shaw had a birthday Saturday and her friends remembered her with post cards. Olive Wolf was a business visitor in Warren Monday. Rachel Hunter spent Tuesday in Nebraska and did a fine business in fitting the ladies of that place with hats.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Helping Hand Bible class will be held in the men's room at the M. E. church Saturday at 2:30. The L. T. L. will meet in the church at the same hour. A baby boy came to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Blyler on Friday.

F. V. Hendrickson leaves this week for Nova Scotia, where he has secured a more lucrative position as machinist. If he is satisfied with the position after working there a few weeks he will move his family there.

Mrs. F. J. Henderson received word from Meadville that there was a great possibility of the National Guards of that place, of which her son Rex is a member, being called to the Mexican border, and she immediately left for Meadville, where she has spent the past week with her son.

The young ladies bible class, of which Mrs. C. Y. Detar is teacher, met with their teacher, and Miss Julia Sizle as invited guest, at the home of the Misses Meda and Nellie Detar Friday evening, where they spent a pleasant hour with their needle work after which a very tempting luncheon was served by the hostesses, who were ably assisted by Amy Salada. At a former meeting a very valuable centerpiece, on which Miss Olive Wolfe had spent thirteen years' work and had not yet completed, was secreted away and turned up at this meeting in the work bag of a very innocent person, who had to take the punishment meted out by the class for the offense. But before the close of the evening the real culprit was discovered and received her share of the punishment. A portion of the evening was spent in writing a story about this event, each lady writing a line. When it was put together they had the following: Thirteen girls of the Giesner bunch met at the hotel Detar for lunch; They were all a jolly bunch And enjoyed a fine lunch; With 13 in the bunch, And a center piece they stole, That was 13 years old; So the story was told; But who was so bold That belongs to this fold? On the thirteenth Olive caught cold, And she is getting pretty cold, But nevertheless she is good as gold, And when she found out it had been told, She felt as though she had been sold, And then she tried to unfold—What? 13. The school closed this week Tuesday. The high school having nine months will have one month more.

Mrs. J. Dingle returns this week to pack her household goods. We have not learned her arrangements yet, but she will leave town either for Union City or Meadville.

Robert Prondit expects to return to Sergeant the last of the week to bring his family over. They will occupy one of the company houses which has recently been vacated.

Mrs. C. E. McMillen of Canhan, California, and two sisters, Marie and Ruth McClintock, and brother Edward, of Oklahoma, arrived at their aunt's, Mrs. H. E. Gillespie, on Sunday. Their parents are both dead and the three children will make their home with their aunt for the present. Mrs. McMillen will return home after a few days visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Siggins and children visited their parents at West Hickory on Sunday. M. F. Catlin was in town and attended the funeral of Mr. Barnes on Friday, driving down from Minister in the morning. Don't forget the musical at the school house this Wednesday evening.

Some Opinions On The War.

While every patriotic American hopes it may not be necessary to call into requisition our country's resources for war, still if duty demands it, we have the money and we have the men.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Mayburg.

It appears as though the beautiful spring days, which both young and old have recently enjoyed, have produced numerous cases of spring fever hereabouts. Mrs. Don Antico, who for the past few weeks has been visiting with relatives at Conneaut Lake, has returned to her home. Mrs. John Hagerty and Mrs. Elva Kifer of Phelps were guests of Mrs. J. E. Paul for dinner Thursday.

Frank Parker and family for the past few years residents of Reynoldsville, have moved into the house vacated by Joseph Cook. Emerson Kifer has been very ill with lumbago for a few days but is now able to be about.

Elmoise Paul, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Paul, is also on the sick list. Miss Eva Pierce of Warren visited with relatives and friends in this place over Sunday. Quite an improvement has been made on Highland avenue since the construction of the new sidewalks.

Norris Kifer of Beaver Valley has again sought employment in this place, also John Burg. Misses Rachel Hunter and Bertha Paul of Kelleetville were in town Thursday and Friday with a display of trimmed and untrimmed hats, returning to Kelleetville Friday evening.

Harry Christenson was a Kelleetville visitor Thursday. Roland Dailley was in Jamestown, N. Y., visiting with relatives a few days last week. Messrs. Everett Collins and Fred Klinsator were in town Friday, viewing the sights and looking over the lumber in this place.

Misses Marie McKee and Augusta Hunter of Nebraska, and Ethel Rich and Irene Phillips of Kelleetville, were in Mayburg Friday afternoon, being entertained by their friends Fred Krinking, Carl Fitzgerald and Donald Ross. They took in many of the wonderful and interesting sights of the Tionesta Valley Chemical Co. plant and the former returned to their homes Friday evening.

Miss Chloe Cook, while fishing in Tionesta creek, Thursday, caught a large fish commonly known as a sucker, being just twelve inches in length. It appears as though some of the men of this place enjoy eating shredded omelet between meals, as some were caught in the act one day last week.

Dora A. Mealy of Beaver Valley visited with relatives here the first part of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hendrickson and son Roger Lee of Kelleetville were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hendrickson, Sunday afternoon.

Rev. G. S. Bryan filled his appointments at Beaver Valley and Town Line, Sunday. Rev. Henry Smallenberger also filled his appointment in the M. E. church here Sunday afternoon.

The sad news was received here Saturday of the sudden death of Mrs. Samuel Confer. The cause of her death was not mentioned. The family once resided in Mayburg but now reside on a farm near Brooksline.

Fred Plyler was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Plyler, a few days last week. Harry Christenson and Floyd Burrows called at the L. W. Hendrickson home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Chas. Deshner and daughter Ruth, aged four, were in Sheffield Tuesday, the latter having some dental work done. On the Thursday following she, Ruth, also was in Kelleetville and had her tonsils, and the adenoids in her nose removed by Drs. Serrill and Detar.

Newtown Mills.

Mrs. Wallace Hunter and son Chester of Starr visited her sister, Miss Emma Rudolph, a few days last week. Wm. Paul and Harry Rudolph are wearing broad smiles, as the stock left a son with the former on April 16th, and a son with the latter on April 18th.

Man Lauds General Villa.

James Lyle, an oil operator of Washington, Pa., returned home after six weeks spent in Mexico, where he had gone in the interest of oil investments. At a banquet tendered American oil men he met General Villa and sat near him at a table. Mr. Lyle says the reports that Villa is of a low, repulsive type are false. He says the man is of a commanding appearance, with a bright, intelligent face. His piercing eyes tested the feature which impressed Mr. Lyle the most. The rebel chieftain, he says, is a most interesting conversationalist.

Child's Face Bitten by Dog. While playing with a strange dog, Marion Baker, aged eight, of Altoona, Pa., was severely bitten in the face. The canine seized the child by the left cheek and tore the flesh loose from the jawbone.

Rheumatic Pains Relieved. Why suffer from rheumatism when relief may be had at so small a cost? Mrs. Elmer Hatch' Peru, Ind., writes, "I have been subject to attacks of rheumatism for years. Nothing So Good for a Cough or Cold. When you have a cold you get rid of the best medicine obtainable so as to get rid of it with the least possible delay. There are many who consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy unsurpassed. Mrs. J. Boroff, Elida, Ohio, says, "Ever since my daughter Ruth was cured of a severe cold and cough by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy two years ago I have felt kindly disposed toward the manufacturers of that preparation. I know of nothing so quick to relieve a cough or cure a cold." For sale by all dealers.
