

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

U. S. Senator - Boies Penrose. Governor - Martin G. Brumbaugh. Lieutenant Governor - Frank B. McClain. Secretary of Internal Affairs - Henry Honck. Congress-at-Large - T. S. Crago, M. H. Garrison, D. F. Latham, J. R. K. Scott.

Result Of The Primary Elections. Not only in Forest county, but throughout the whole state as well, the vote at the primaries was exceedingly light, showing that unless some sharp local contest is on the voters care little about the preliminary contests and will not take the trouble to go to the polls, even though they have a chance to assist directly in the choice of candidates for Governor, Senator and other high state offices.

Another thing that is made apparent is the fact there is a mighty slim chance for the success of a candidate outside the large cities or the heavy centers of population, where it is easier to get out the voters and center them on a particular candidate. Nevertheless the state-wide primaries are here, and probably to stay, at least until a more popular method is found and given a trial, and so it needs to be that all shall take their medicine and look pleasant. Likewise the honorable thing for a voter to do is to loyally support the nominees of the party in whose primaries he participated, otherwise parties and principles might as well be cast aside and the whole thing thrown wide open without head or tail to direct.

MEDIAN has given the president a chance to attend to the pie counter. The appointment of 169 postmasters in one day was no small achievement.

THE PUNKSTAWNEY Spirit, which earnestly supported Mr. Dimmick in the recent primary campaign has this to say: "The statement of J. Benjamin Dimmick to the effect that his declaration that Penrose had become a moral issue, publicly eliminated the possibility of his support of Penrose in the event of defeat, is a trifle ambiguous. Participation in the primaries is presumed to carry with it the obligation to support the winner. And this obligation has always been regarded as particularly binding upon the candidates themselves. Mr. Dimmick does not say he will support any other candidate for Senator, and the probability is he will decline to take a stand for any candidate." In another item the Spirit also remarks, very consistently, that "The Republican party has nominated its candidates after a primary election that was open to all, and the thing for Republicans to do is to forget all factional feeling and prejudices and line up for the ticket."
