

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

U. S. Senator—Boies Penrose. Governor—Martin G. Brumbaugh. Lieut. Governor—Frank H. McClain. Sec'y Internal Affairs—Henry Houck. Congress-at-Large—T. S. Crago, M. H. Gariand, D. F. Lafan, J. R. K. Scott. DISTRICT. Congress—Samuel H. Miller. State Senator—Josiah Howard. COUNTY. Assembly—A. R. Meehling. Supreme Court—Robert S. Frazer, George Kuckel. Superior Court—Frank M. Trexler, James E. Clark.

The anti-Penrose people fought for direct primaries in order to give the people a chance to elect Penrose. They got direct primaries and the people used them to nominate Penrose as a candidate for the United States Senate. Great is political reform until we get it.—Franklin News.

On Tuesday in Pittsburgh, after a heated debate in which the Democratic tariff law was upheld and condemned, the property and supplies committee of the board of public education was obliged to award the bulk of the contract for supplying lead pencils to the local schools next year to a company in Nuremberg, Germany, because the foreigners underbid the American manufacturers. As the bulk of the lead pencil industry of the United States is located in New Jersey our tariff smashing President may look for another left-handed endorsement from his home state at the next election. Great is Wilson tariff tinkering!

ACCORDING to President Wilson we are now in the throes of a "psychological depression" in business matters and things, whatever that may be, and he expects it to "improve soon." He told a large body of business men so last week, but being of a practical sort, not so highly cultured as His Excellency, they had to take his word for it and leave the rest to him. Meantime, stagnation in all lines continues throughout the land while Europe is getting the cream of American trade and is happy under our new Democratic free trade law. When the bill paid father by the nose the boy yelled to him to "hand on; it's hard on you, dad, but it's the makin' o' the pup."

Cooksburg.

Last Tuesday, while Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Knight were making garden, a fire occurred in their sitting room which caused considerable damage. It burned the paper, window sills and destroyed all the furnishings in the room. It is supposed that it caught from the window curtain being blown over the gas jet. They had to put up a hard fight to save the house.

John Ross of Clarion is visiting his uncle, A. W. Cook, for a few days. Mrs. Paup of Kane and Mrs. Dahle of Marienville spent Saturday at the cemetery, working at the graves of their dead.

Mrs. Ida Calvin of Los Angeles, Cal., is spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Cook.

Miss Naylon is having her vacation and is visiting at her home in Renovo.

This community was saddened Monday, May 25, to learn of the death of Mrs. William Irwin, who had been in the Kane hospital. Mrs. Irwin was born in Jefferson county in 1856, her maiden being Verissa Andrews. She was married to William Irwin in 1878. To this union seven children were born, three of whom preceded her to the other world. Those who survive her are Frank, Clarence, Ernest and Ord, all of this place. Mrs. Irwin had been an invalid for eight years, but she bore her suffering without complaint. She was a very good woman in her home and an excellent neighbor, and will be missed greatly. Interment was made in the Greenwood cemetery, Rev. D. O. May officiating.

Mary Louise Cook returned last week from Washington, D. C., where she has been attending school.

Clara Coon of Kane attended the funeral of Mrs. Irwin here last week.

Collin Frazier and family autoed from Butler, Saturday, and are spending a few days with Mr. Frazier's sister, Mrs. J. C. Knight.

Lina Smith has been chosen as delegate to represent our Sabbath school at the convention which is to be held at Clarion this week.

J. B. Slocum, known to everyone around here as "Barrett," gave us a surprise last week when he quietly stole away from our little burg and took a sojourn over to Fisher, where he took unto himself a wife. The young lady in question was Miss Anna Agnew, and is well known in this vicinity. All join in wishing them much happiness, but they will hear from us later on.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Knight received an announcement this week stating that their son, Harry, was united in marriage with Mrs. Christine Gregory of Mayburg. The bride is practically unknown here but we can all speak for the groom as being one of our finest young men. The young couple have our best wishes for a long, prosperous, and happy life.

Joseph and Thomas Knight, Wm. Barie, W. W. and Leo Braden are in attendance at Clarion court this week.

Dr. Franklin P. Phillips of Clarion was in Cooksburg, Sunday.

District quarterly conference will be held at Redclyffe, June 6 and 7.

J. R. Littlefield of Sheffield is helping his father and brother, build a rig on Lot 5280 for the Chemist Co., and is stopping with his mother at this place. Jim is a fiddler and plays left handed, i. e., fingers with the right hand and bows with the left.

Mr. Young of Enononton, accompanied by his wife and party of three, spent Sunday with the Geo. Blum family at this place and had a nice time, especially as they all took an outing on Minister creek. They returned home in the evening.

The funeral services over the remains of J. B. McCauley of Sheriff were held just after noon at the residence of the family at Sheriff and went to Sheffield on the afternoon train for interment, but the train had a bit of misfortune and all the cars left the track at a point near Gilsons. Rigs came down from Sheffield and took the people to that place in time for the burial and they came back on the evening train. The pall bearers were brother Maccoebes.

Mrs. O. E. Rupert and son Marian attended the commencement exercises of the Sheffield high school Friday night and were joined by the rest of the children on Saturday for the Memorial Day program. Four of the children returned on Saturday evening. For the benefit of those who might ask "for goodness sake, how many are there?" we would say there are only seven.

The Stroup Ice Cream parlor sold cream Saturday and Sunday for the last time, and we hear another will start so as to supply the trade next week.

Clinton Barber of Henrys Mill rode down Sunday and called on the Rupert family for a few hours.

A very young bear was in the town at Sheriff on Sunday last, and a lot of people went there to view this interesting animal, which, by-the-way, is not so wild. He is a cute little fellow and likes sweet things—especially girls 14 to 20, as after that they lose a lot of their sweetness—generally.

We are greatly indebted to the True-man writer, who does not write very often, but gave us a very high compliment as to our standing last week in the news items for the Times. Again we say, thanks, come again.

Delbert Decker of Whig Hill, who taught at Hastings the two past terms, was the guest of O. E. Rupert Saturday for a short time while on his way up the creek with his trusty camera.

By the great number of automobiles passing here on Sunday last it appears that our roads are becoming better, but in places they are quite rough yet.

The L. R. Brennan family called on the E. T. Downey family Sunday.

James Welsh Jr. and Miss Edith Carlson, of Sheffield, drove to Ballowen Sunday and made Mr. Welsh Sr. a visit. Mr. and Mrs. James McMichael are also callers at the farm.

Miss Bessie Littlefield is staying with Mrs. C. L. Littlefield at Barnes while Mr. Littlefield is confined to the hospital at Warren after an operation for appendicitis, and the reports are favorable for his recovery which at one time was considered doubtful.

To Join instead of Mexico. Ninety-three years old, Frank Smith of Johnstown, Pa., arrived in the Woods Run police station, Pittsburgh, soliciting aid that he might continue his way into Mexican territory to fight against the "greasers," as he called them. Instead Smith was sentenced to thirty days in jail.
