At a meeting of the Tionesta school board Monday night the two vacancies in the corps of teachers were filled by the election of Miss Florence Hilton of Oil City for No. 2 and Miss Pearl Elliot of Tionesta for No. 4.

Dates for the holding of county fairs in this section have been announced by the Pennsylvania department of agriculture as follows: Corry, Sept. 1 to 4; Titusville, Sept. 8 to 11; Stoneboro, Sept. 8 to 11; Mercer, Sept. 15 to 17; Clarion Sept. 22 to 25.

The granting of pensions and increases to the following persons well known to many of our readers was announced last week: Mrs. Rebecca G. Brownell, Warren, formerly of Tionesta, $12 per month; Mrs. Sarah E. Mohnay, Muzette, $12, and James Johnston, Tionesta, $30.

Trains 65 and 66 running between Pittsburgh and Buffalo on the P. R. R., and known as "the flyers," will be restored to service on the 20th inst., much to the delight of patrons along that route. It is thought the extra train between Oil City and Warren on the river division will also be resumed for the summer, but nothing definite can be learned as to that.

Charles L. Thompson went in swimming last Tuesday. While in the water somebody swiped his clothing, getting a watch and some money. He was practically reduced to a state as natural until he could send down to Ul's and get something to wear.—Tidout News.

Charles is an Endeavor boy who is a member of the high school graduating class.

When you want to convince an editor, lay it on his table, then there's no disputing the evidence, and that's what our genial friend Herman Blum of Newtown Mills did last Thursday with a fine mess of the speckled fellows, all dressed and ready for the frying pan. Very many and very truly thanks, Herman. Such evidences of true sportsmanship are always appreciated at this shop.

The Macon, Ga., News, speaking of the Sun Brothers circus, which exhibited in that city recently says: "And best of all, the circus is clean. The Sun Brothers will not tolerate any immoral shows or gambling. It is one of the few shows in the country free from these objectionable features. That the policy pays is indicated by the many unsolicited requests to play return engagements that are received each year." Show in Tionesta, Thursday, June 18.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the Kellettville Methodist parsonage, Thursday evening, May 28, when Harry C. Knight of Cooksburg and Mrs. Christine A. Gregory of Mayburg, were united in marriage, Rev. H. Smalinger officiating. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Millard Albright, brother-in-law and sister of the groom. Sincere congratulations are extended to the bride and groom, with best wishes that their married life may be prosperous and happy.

A more perfect day for the observance of Memorial Day could not have been wished than that of Saturday. After lunch had been served by former ladies of the W. R. C., to the veterans and their friends at the dining hall of the Presbyterian church, the ceremonies were carried out as scheduled by the G. A. R. Post. The gathering at Riverside cemetery was quite large although the departing ranks of the Civil war veterans was quite noticeable. After every soldier's grave had been decorated with bouquets of sweetest flowers, the line of march was taken up and led by the concert band the veterans and friends gathered in the court room, where Rev. B. F. Feit delivered a short but most eloquent address. The music voluntarily furnished by the band lent much to the day's pretty celebration, which was carried out to perfection.

—Friends of Homer C. Johnston, a former well known Tionesta boy, who has been making his home temporarily at Amos Shoemaker's, near Tylersburg, will be interested to learn that he expects soon to submit to an operation at the West Penn hospital, Pittsburgh, for chronic appendicitis, intestinal adhesions and an obstruction of the gall, from which he has been a sufferer for upward of a year past. Homer's many friends hereabout will hope for a favorable outcome of his trying ordeal.

—Rev. H. A. Bailey will be absent from his church here next Sabbath, having gone to Seneca, Venango county, to assist in the installation of a new pastor of that church tomorrow evening. Sunday he will conduct services at Nickleville for a brother preacher who is sick. Mrs. Bailey and the children will visit friends at the old homestead in the meantime. Rev. B. F. Feit will occupy the Presbyterian pulpit here next Sunday morning, the evening services being dispensed with.

—Mrs. S. E. Pierce, of the Hotel Weaver, on Monday purchased the Gem Theater, the moving picture show located in the Grand Army block, Tidout, from Henry DeRoche, and John F. Colter, the manager of the Weaver, went up to Tidout that day to take possession of the theater. The theater has always enjoyed a good patronage from the people of Tidout and under the efficient management of Mr. Colter we predict will give the amusement loving public the best pictures to be had, as well as all the comforts due them when they come to the show.

In a note renewing their subscription Mrs. Arthur Stroup requests that the paper be forwarded from Bridgeport, Ill., to their new address at Pacific, Missouri, where Mr. Stroup has been engaged in his work as an oil well driller for several weeks past, and which will be their home for some time to come. Mrs. Stroup thinks she is going to like the new home because of the friendliness and sociability of the people and the congenial, healthful climate, being located in the foot hills of the famed Ozark mountains. Great sand mines are located there, and the glass industry is one of its flourishing enterprises.

—Mrs. Nannie Neill Church, relict of the late Charles R. Church, one of the most esteemed older residents of Titusville and vicinity, died at the family home in that city Thursday morning last. She was 80 years of age and had been ailing for some time. She was a sister of the late attorney Samuel J. Neill of Warren, well remembered by many Forest county people as a former practitioner in our courts. Her only son, Charles Church, with whom the deceased resided, was absent in California when she died.

—The County Board of Farmers' Institute Managers will meet at the County Commissioners' office on the second Tuesday of June, to arrange for the places where institutes are to be held this season. All of our people who desire institutes ought to attend this meeting and present their claims. This board is composed of the local members of the State Board of Agriculture, and one representative from each County Agricultural Society, the Pomona Grange, County Alliance and other kindred organizations. If you find that you cannot attend this meeting, address a letter with your request to Chairman of Board of Institute Managers, care of County Commissioners.

—Funeral services in commemoration of Mrs. James G. Carson were held at the family home, West Hickory, Wednesday afternoon, and were very largely attended, many friends from Tionesta being present. Rev. W. W. Dale of the local M. E. church, and Rev. R. L. Foulke of Erie, a former pastor of the church at West Hickory, and a special friend of the family, conducted the services, each paying glowing tributes to the memory and beautiful life of the deceased. A choir composed Mrs. Harry H. Smith, Mrs. W. G. Morrow, Mr. Roy Fitzgerald and Dr. Morrow beautifully rendered three of Mrs. Carson's favorite hymns. The floral offerings were many and very beautiful, mute attestations of the love and esteem in which the deceased was held in her community. The pall bearers were selected from her brothers, sons, and sons-in-law, and were Charles, William and Tilden Hood, Frederick and Anon Carson and John F. Sheasley. After the services the friends were driven to Riverside cemetery, Tionesta, in automobiles, there being twelve in line. Many of our townspeople met the funeral party at the cemetery to witness the ceremony of interment.

The three men are located in Oklahoma, and are returning there after a visit to their old home at Tionesta.—Oil City Derrick.

Gibson—Grove Nuptials.

The following account of a pretty wedding in which the many Tionesta friends of the bride will be much interested, is taken from the Jamestown, N. Y., Morning Post of May 26th:

"Yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur W. Grove, 200 West Second Street, Miss Maud Frances Grove was united in marriage with A. L. Gibson of this city. The double ring service of the Methodist Episcopal Church was read by Rev. Dr. Horace G. Ogden, pastor of the First M. E. Church of this city, as the bride and bridegroom stood unattended before a bank of lilacs in the reception room of the Grove home. Only the immediate families were present. The home was very attractively decorated for the occasion with bouquets of lilacs and greens. At the close of the service a wedding dinner was served at the Hotel Humphrey.

"The bride received a large number of beautiful gifts. A chest of silver and other silverware, a piano and other furniture, cut glass, china and many other things numbered among the gifts. A set of solid tea spoons was the gift of Mt. Moriah Lodge, F. and A. M. of which the bridegroom is a member. The gift of the bridegroom to the bride was a string of pearls with a diamond baroque pearl pendant. Among the other gifts was a traveling bag from the clerical force at the Jamestown Worsted Mills where the bridegroom is employed.

"Mr. and Mrs. Gibson left last evening for a wedding trip to Atlantic City, N. J., where they will remain for several weeks. They will be at home after June 20th at 200 West Second St. Both are well known young people of this city. Mr. Gibson has resided here his entire life. He is a valued employe of the Jamestown Worsted Mills and prominent in Masonic circles. His bride during her ten years of residence here has made many friends who will join in extending best wishes."

Recent Deaths.

M'CAULEY.

J. B. McCauley, one of the well known and highly respected residents of Trueman, Howe township, died at the Warren Emergency hospital Thursday, May 28, 1914. He had been a sufferer for a long time with Bright's disease and had been taken to the hospital a short time prior to his death in the hope that the treatment might save his life, but his decline was rapid. Mr. McCauley was born Dec. 15, 1855. He is survived by eight children: Mrs. George Hadden of Henry's Mills; Mrs. Andrew Phillips of Trueman; Mrs. Leslie Dushner of Meadville; Valgene, Mary, Grace and Frank of Trueman. He also leaves three brothers: Billie of Russell City; Gilmore and Geo. of Pleasantville. Funeral services were held Sunday at Sheffield, followed by interment in the cemetery at that place.

WALTERS.

The death of Mrs. James M. Walters occurred at the family home at Fogel Farm, Harmony twp., on Monday evening, May 25, 1914. Some time ago Mrs. Walters was stricken with cancer and sixteen weeks ago she was forced to take to her bed. The end had been expected for some time, but was none the less a shock to a wide circle of friends. The deceased, whose maiden name was Miss Rosamond Connelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Connelly, the former deceased, was 47 years of age. She was united in marriage with James M. Walters, Sept. 22, 1897. No children were born to this marriage. She is survived by her husband, her aged mother, who is lying at the point of death; two brothers, Charles F. and Harvey Connelly, who reside in Oklahoma, and two sisters, Mrs. James McIntyre of Bolivar, N. Y., and Mrs. A. A. Bryant of Shelmadine Springs. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. Victor Bucher of Pleasantville, were held at the family home Thursday morning, and interment in the Pleasantville cemetery followed in the afternoon.

ZUENDEL.

Anna Ledebr Zuendel, widow of the late Ernest E. Zuendel, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Ledebr, was born in German Hill, Green township, Forest county, Pa., Jan. 14, 1870, and died May 28, 1914, at her home at Starr postoffice, not far from the place of her birth. Death came suddenly to this good woman, she having been stricken with pneumonia less than a week previous. Twenty-five years ago on the 2d day of May the deceased became the wife of Mr. Zuendel and together they lived happily until his death, two years ago May 19, he also having passed away suddenly. To them nine children were born, namely, Roy, Reginald, Raymond, Walter, Mary Alice, Edie, Chester, Alta and Helen. While residing at Endeavor she and her husband united as charter members with the Presbyterian church at its organization, and she remained faithful and loyal to the tenets of that church to the end of her life. Of a kindly, quiet disposition, devoted to her family, but ever ready to lend a helping hand or do a kindness to her neighbors, her friends were limited only by the number of her acquaintances, and her sudden taking away has cast a gloom over the community in which her whole life was spent. Besides her children she is survived by her parents and three brothers and sisters: Wm. Ledebr and Mrs. J. M. Zuendel of Starr, Mrs. O. Davis and Mrs. Geo. Childs of Tionesta twp.; George, Beulah and Virginia Ledebr at home with their parents, also in Tionesta twp.; Mrs. E. W. Whaley of Tonino, Wash.; Mrs. R. C. Davidson of Mayger, Oregon; Conrad E. Ledebr of Dillon, Mont.; Mrs. J. W. Blaker of Oil City, Pa.; Miss Maude Ledebr and Walter H. Ledebr of Tionesta.

Funeral services in her memory were held at the Zuendel church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. J. F. Scherer of Endeavor officiating, and the interment was in the cemetery connected with the church, beside the remains of her husband.

Only One Entirely Satisfactory.

"I have tried various colic and diarrhoea remedies, but the only one that has given me entire satisfaction and cured me when I was afflicted in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I recommend it to my friends at all times." writes S. N. Galloway, Stewart, S. C. For sale by all dealers.

—Glory is a very transient and uncertain thing, and yet men will go all lengths to obtain it, even to the laying down of lives.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Earl Passauer Seriously Hurt.

In the derailling of several cars of a north bound freight train on the B. & O. railroad near Edenburg Saturday a week ago, Earl Passauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Passauer of Tionesta township, was seriously injured. He is a brakeman on the road and was near the center of the train when the wreck occurred. When found he was lying buried under hundreds of pounds of coal, having been caught in the wreckage as the cars toppled over. When Passauer could not be found after the wreck it was feared that he was buried, and it was necessary to search carefully before indications were found which led the relief party to the right car. When he was dug from under the coal it was found that the right arm was very badly crushed, and he had sustained other bad bruises. He had lain under the wreckage half an hour before being released. He was at once taken to the Butler hospital where his injuries were given surgical attention, and at last accounts he was doing well, and the physicians expect to save his arm.

Passauer is 26 years of age, is married and lives at Foxburg.

Big Show Coming To Tionesta.

One of America's oldest, richest, tented shows, a modernized great combination of the very greatest trained wild animals, the most superb horses and ponies, the greatest European and American artists, the latest "thrillers" that mankind can devise and in fact the newest novelties of the present day, all in one union, will be found with Sun Brothers' World's Progressive Shows, now on their twenty-second annual tour and will give two complete exhibitions at Tionesta, June 18.

This stupendous aggregation is under the personal direction of the Sun Brothers and the assurance is made that the programme for the present season is newer and richer than ever.

To add to the variety a complete Japanese Circus Company will exhibit the very clearest Oriental acts ever imported to this country and now seen in America, for the first time.

Over one hundred great artists appear with this big show. Dean and his matchless band appear at every performance and they are a delight to all that hear their great concerts. The managerie and wild beast exhibition is complete and an educational diversity.

This great exhibition will appear in its completeness, rain or shine, at Tionesta on Tuesday, June 18.
