Miss Bernice Passauer of Tionesta township, who, in her illness, was remembered recently by the Sunday schools and bible classes of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches of Tionesta in a copious shower of postal cards and oranges, takes this means of expressing her thanks to all who participated in this loving kindness, and to say that their thoughtfulness was gratefully appreciated.

Those who are giving the automobile question any thought whatever should keep in mind the fact that S. C. Mensch, Marienville, Pa., is sole agent for the world famed Ford cars, and that a telephone call, or a postal card will bring the agent to your door in one to two hours' time with a spick span new car, for they have them in stock. The Ford gets there when all others fail, rain or shine.—adv

Epworth League Chapter No. 15,165, of Nebraska, Pa., has elected the following officers to serve one year: President, Mrs. Ida K. Small; first vice president, Miss Mabel Combs; second vice president, M. E. Sibble; third vice president, Miss Marie McKeen; fourth vice president, H. L. McKeen; secretary, Miss Augusta Hunter; treasurer, K. L. Haugh; organist, Miss Ruth Cook; Junior superintendent, Mrs. F. R. Klinefelter.

We are pained to note that our old friend, Jacob E. Wenk, editor of the Forest Republican, has not been trout fishing this year, and hasn't even caught a buffalo sucker. Is he no longer animated by the sybilian spirit or fascinated by the wood nymphs?—Panzutawney Spirit. Huh! Can't you guess the reason why, when Tionesta's dry, and the rattlers are coiled along the streams? Of course Jake's fascinated, and by spirits animated, but he only catches beauties in his dreams.—Oil City Blizzard. Aw, for the love of Mike, fellows, let up. You're all likely to get where the moisture is scarce if you don't mend your ways pretty soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Canfield and daughter, Miss Flora, of Elk Mound, Wis., have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Sager at President for a week past. Mrs. Canfield and Mrs. Sager are sisters and this is their first meeting since the former moved to the western state, 33 years ago. They will be remembered by the older generation of German Hill residents when it is stated that their maiden names were Elise Good and they were reared to young womanhood in that community. Last Sunday a family reunion was held at the Sager home when 35 children, grand-children and great-grand-children were brought together and spent a most enjoyable day.

In a column account of the remodeling and enlarging of the Lincoln school in that city, the New Castle Herald of June 3d makes the following pleasing reference to the principal, Ira B. Shoup, of Muzette, this county, all of which his friends here will feel is well deserved: "The school board is to be complimented on their insightfulness and the principal, Professor Shoup, on his perseverance in working for the improvements and in the plans for the building which were nearly all made by him. He had made a close study of the conditions in the building and had figured what could be done to increase the capacity of the building, give more advantages and at the same time save the city money. All feel that he has done all three of these things in an efficient and expedient way."

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Plattner near Oil City at noon Wednesday, June 10, when their son Edwin Daniel was united in marriage with Eleanor May Chambers of Youngsville, Pa. The bride was gowned in pale blue satin trimmed in lace. She was attended by her sister, Miss Hattie Chambers, while Mr. Claude Plattner, brother of the groom, acted as best man. The Rev. J. Moir officiated, the ring service being used. Only members of the immediate families of the contracting parties were present. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. The bride received a number of handsome and useful gifts.—Oil City Derrick. The bridegroom's parents were former residents of Hickory township this county.

The State Highway Department is preparing to begin repair work at once on the state highways of the commonwealth. The decision of the Dauphin county court handed down this week releases for this purpose the sum of $1,028,665, which is the accumulated money derived from the taxation of automobiles and licensing of drivers during the current year. This vast amount of money has been withheld from the State Highway Department by the action of the Auditor General and the State Treasurer, who have sought judicial interpretation of the act of July 7th, 1913, under which all such sums are appropriated to the uses of the State Highway Department. Unless further delay is caused by an appeal taken from the court decision the "good roads" cause will receive an up-lift in Pennsylvania.

That the hundreds of dead fish of late seen floating in the river by local fishermen were killed by the pollution of the stream by a manufacturing concern at Jamestown, N. Y., and not by dynamites as was generally believed, is officially stated by Commissioner of Fisheries N. R. Buller, of Harrisburg. A recent letter from him says: "Your letter in regard to violations of the fish laws in the Allegheny river was duly received. The department has just received a report from the warden who has investigated this matter and finds that the large number of fish that were dead in the river was not due to dynamites but to pollution of the Conewango river by manufacturers in Jamestown, N. Y. He traced this pollution up to its source and found that it was killing fish in enormous numbers and these were floating up into the Allegheny river. As the pollution comes from New York it is outside the jurisdiction of the department, but the department will take the matter up with the New York authorities. The warden will be directed to continue his investigation, and if he finds there has been any dynamiting to see if he can bring the dynamites to justice."

Hit by Engine; No Bones Broken. Thomas Elgin was struck by a locomotive while crossing the Pennsylvania railroad at Union street, Kittanning, Pa., and hurled twenty-five feet. Physicians can find no bones broken, yet the man was unconscious long after the accident.

Former Tionestans in Trouble. The following "special" from Leechburg, Pa., under recent date concerns two former well known Tionesta gentlemen, the first named being a mere lad when his family left here and the latter was one of our prominent physicians: Justice of the Peace T. Leo Van Gieson found himself between "the devil and the deep blue sea," when his banter concerning the speed of certain makes of automobiles caused his friend and uncle, Dr. F. T. Nelson of McKeesport, to be arrested by Chief of Police J. H. Davis. To prove that the justice and C. F. Armstrong, cashier of the Farmers' National Bank, riding in the car with him were wrong, Dr. Nelson sent his automobile up a hill at such a speed that the police intervened. The physician was arraigned before Justice Van Gieson, charged with violating the speed law. "Three dollars, Doc," said the justice. "Twas worth it," said the physician.

This was one of the cold mornings and it will not be surprising to hear that in some places vegetation has been nipped by frost, though perhaps no great damage has been done.

This afternoon Dr. C. E. Bolton and Dr. H. H. McMullen departed for Dawson, where they will spend the coming week at the former's cottage. With the opening of the bass season Monday they expect to put in the major portion of the week at fishing.—Oil City Blizzard, Saturday.

A jovial party of Meadville gentlemen autoed over Sunday evening and spent a few days in their favorite town of Tionesta. Monday afternoon they were entertained at Goshgoshunk lodge by friends here where an interesting program of clay pigeon shooting was pulled off, and a six o'clock dinner was waylaid. The honor guests were Samuel Clark, Daniel Reamer, R. A. Hays, Fred Betts, Otto P. Houck and son Karl, John Kelly, James and Fred Scowden and James J. Scowden, and Clyde G. Scowden of Sharon.

The Jenks township school board at a meeting Friday elected the following teachers for the ensuing year: Marienville, principal of high school, W. N. Strawbridge, 3 years; first assistant principal, no election; second assistant principal, M. J. Black; No. 7, no election; No. 6, Clara DeSmet; No. 5, Edith Austine; No. 4, Mabel Baumhart; No. 3, Bessie Songer; No. 2, Mary Brown; No. 1, June Fitzgerald; Gilfoyle, Lenora Strout; Nicolas, Josephine Groenlund; Byron-town, Marlen Gant; Dubring, Susie Rainsnyder; Anl's, Sarah Vose.

A rather exciting episode occurred last Thursday morning at Pine Camp, 12 miles above Endeavor, when some Italians were working on the Hickory Valley railroad. They were moving a car loaded with wood which stood in their way. There is quite a heavy grade in some places along the road and the Italians lost control of the car, and their presence of mind at the same time and jumped to the ground, leaving the car to shift for itself. Otis Rudolph, foreman of the woods work at the camp, quickly phoned to Endeavor, stating what had happened, and advising that the track be cleared of engines, cars, etc. This had just been accomplished when the car broke in sight. The only damage done was when the car left the track just above the upper mill and knocked down the elevator which carries the refuse from the mill to the slab pit, the car being also badly used up. It is said the car was going at the rate of a mile a minute in some places, as the distance was covered in about 15 minutes. This would indicate an almost faultless condition of the track else the car could not have stayed on for that distance at the rate of speed it was going.

Enjoyable Meeting of D. A. R.

The Tionesta Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. William Smearbaugh last Saturday, with Madames Hopkins and Proper and Miss Smearbaugh as hosts-ess. Forty members and guests were present who partook of a delicious four-course luncheon. Flag Day was observed, the decorations, placards and program all commemorating Old Glory. From the spacious veranda hung the rich silken emblem of our Republic, once given as a tribute of love by the late Capt. Daniel Stow Knack, father of Mrs. Smearbaugh, to the Sons of Veterans of Tionesta. As many read his name on the attached pennant, they were reminded of his paternal grandfather's services for our country at Valley Forge, and of that of his near kinsman, Gen. Henry Knox, who was Secretary of the Treasury in Washington's first cabinet.

Owing to the unavoidable absence of the regent, Mrs. Lillian Acomb Hunter, the business and literary part of the program was in charge of the vice regent, Mrs. Orion Siggins. Excellent papers on Francis Scott Key and Dolly Madison were read by Mrs. Sumner Vail and Mrs. Susan Hardy May Sharpe. Inspiring features of the program were a reading, "The Return of the Flag," by Miss Genevieve Dault of Tionesta, and a song, "The Star Spangled Banner," by Mrs. Cora Watson Felt, while an interesting part was a song sung by the members, which was composed by Belle N. Doughty of Corydon, entitled "Flag of Our Nation," and which was dedicated to the Salamancas Chapter, D. A. R. The Salute to the Flag marked the close of the day's program, and with it passed into history one of the most pleasant meetings in the history of the Chapter.

The members and guests present were: Mrs. John Siggins, Miss Ida Siggins, Miss Edith Stright, Mrs. S. F. Marks, Mrs. Frank S. Downing, Mrs. S. H. Evans, Mrs. Amelia Stillman, Mrs. Sarah West Parshall, Miss Christie Turner, Mrs. Cora Clinger, Miss Nancy Morrow, Miss Martha Morrow, Miss Sarah Morrow, Mrs. J. Allan Turner, Miss Martha Jennings, of Tidoute, Mrs. Orion Siggins, Mrs. Sumner L. Vail, Miss Alice N. Siggins, of West Hickory; Mrs. W. H. Mable, of Mable, W. Va.; Mrs. A. S. Brady, of Fairmount, W. Va.; Mrs. Joseph Kelly, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mrs. A. W. Zahnleiter, of New Britain, Conn.; Mrs. Frances A. Kelly, Mrs. Sue May Sharpe, Mrs. George F. Watson, Mrs. Sallie Jackson, Mrs. J. E. Wenk, Mrs. H. A. Bailey, Mrs. George B. Robinson, Mrs. Cora Watson Felt and Miss Genevieve Dault, of Tionesta.

Brookville Republican: Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cook were in from Cookeburg for a day the latter part of the week. They were accompanied to their home by ex-Governor Morrison, of Idaho, who was here going over business matters with Mr. Cook.—Mrs. A. R. Meching and son, Dean, of Clarion, were Brookville visitors last Friday on their way to State College commencement. Dean is a member of the graduating class.

PERSONAL.

—Mrs. Guy Robinson of Pineville, Pa., is a guest of relatives here for a week or two.

—Harold Allen of New Castle, Pa., is visiting at the home of his uncle, J. A. Adams.

—Charles McGee of Curwensville, Pa., was a guest of Tionesta friends over Sunday.

—Roy Bovard is home for a two week's vacation from the Westinghouse works at Pittsburg.

—F. R. Klinefelter of Nebraska, went to Wheeling, W. Va., Monday evening, on business.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Kelly of Pittsburg, were guests at the home of Mrs. A. B. Kelly the past week.

—Miss Vinnie Chappell, who was visiting her aunts, Mrs. Moor and Mrs. Borts, returned to her home at Sandy Lake, Saturday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weingard of German Hill spent Sunday with the family of their daughter, Mrs. James Wilco, in Bradford.

—Miss Belle Jamieson entertained Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Beck of Titusville, Sunday. They came over on the Bradford excursion train.

—W. G. Wyman of Erie was a business visitor in the community last week, and a guest at the home of James A. Huling Friday and Saturday.

—Miss Elva Lanson went to Elwood City, Pa., Friday, for a few weeks' visit with her aunt and sister, Mrs. J. B. Sproull and Miss Olive Lanson.

—Mrs. L. L. Zover and children, Grace and Billy, were among those from Tionesta who took advantage of the excursion Sunday to visit Bradford friends.

—Mrs. Henry Wolfe is critically ill at her home in Tionesta township and her friends will be sorry to learn that hopes for her recovery have been abandoned.

—Miss Valerie Jenet, of Franklin, accompanied by her nephew, A. Jenet, autoed up Sunday in the latter's car and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mose.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gaston of Cochran, Pa., and Hubert Hazelton, of Barto, Pa., were guests at the home of their cousin, Postmaster Gaston, during the past week.

—Mrs. F. R. Klinefelter and children of Nebraska, went to East Smithfield, Bradford county, the last of the week for a few weeks' visit with her father and other relatives.

—Ex-Congressman and Mrs. N. P. Wheeler autoed down from Endeavor yesterday and spent a few hours with Tionesta friends. The REPUBLICAN was favored with a call from Mr. Wheeler.

—County Supt. J. O. Carson is absent for the week, holding teachers' examinations at Clarion and Marienville, Tuesday and Wednesday, and at the Clarion Normal Monday and Tuesday of next week.

—John Hood, one of Tionesta's oldest citizens, returned a few days ago from a visit to his old home community in Sugar Creek township, Venango county. He looked up as many of his old chums of 70 years ago as he could find, but they were few in number.

—Editor Pickens of the Marienville Express was a visitor at the county seat a few hours yesterday. Br'er Pickens reports good progress for the glass plant which his town is installing, and which will be blowing bottles of a superior quality before snow flies again.

—District Attorney Carringer and Jay N. Bankhead joined a party of Endeavor friends yesterday morning in an auto trip to Codersport, Pa., where a new Masonic temple is to be dedicated, in which exercises some of the most prominent Masons of the country are to take part.

—E. L. DeWoody of Nebraska, who was injured Tuesday of last week when his automobile went over the bank a short distance below Nebraska, has so far recovered as to be able to bring his family to Tionesta in their car last evening. After the car was hauled back to the roadway the damages to the machine were found to be slight.

—Friends of H. W. Horner will be grieved to learn that he sustained a paralytic stroke involving the whole left side of his body, Monday evening of this week, while staying at his cottage at Allegheny Springs. He is conscious and able to talk some, but physicians give the family little hope for his recovery. Mrs. Horner is with her husband.

—W. S. Shaffer of Ambridge, Pa., spent the past ten days in the vicinity of his home of younger days, fishing and camping with a party of congenial friends up in Hickory and Kingsley townships. Scott was a caller on Tionesta friends Saturday and met a lot of them who found him the same good natured, wholesome boy of 35 years back. Always welcome up here, Scott.

—Oris L. Moore, of Franklin, who will be pleasantly remembered here as the assistant principal of the Tionesta high school a few years ago, was graduated yesterday from the School of Applied Science of the Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh. The graduating class in all departments of the institute numbered 190 and the exercises were held at 10 a. m. in Carnegie Music Hall.

—The Sheffield correspondent of the Warren Mirror says: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hunter have their household goods packed and ready for shipment to Oil City, where Mr. Hunter has accepted a position with the C. B. Smith Co., at that place. Mr. and Mrs. Hunter have made many friends in this town, who will be sorry to have them leave. They have the good wishes of the community in departing for their new home.

—Brookville Republican: Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cook were in from Cookeburg for a day the latter part of the week. They were accompanied to their home by ex-Governor Morrison, of Idaho, who was here going over business matters with Mr. Cook.—Mrs. A. R. Meching and son, Dean, of Clarion, were Brookville visitors last Friday on their way to State College commencement. Dean is a member of the graduating class.

Farmers, Notice! Do your horses' teeth need attention? I will be in town circus day, the 18th. J. M. NUGENT.

Kellettville.

The Misses Margaret Lorum and Anna Lease are home from Pittsburgh on a two weeks' vacation from the hospital, where they are taking a course in nursing. Margaret stopped over for a few days at the Warren hospital, where her brother, Raynor, has been taking treatment. She reports her brother improving.

Mrs. Jerry Jones and children, who were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Watson, left for their home in Warren Thursday.

Last Tuesday the heat was so intense on the board yard that two of the workmen, Messrs. Rudolph and Wolfgang, were overcome by the heat.

Dr. Bangert, with his wife and mother, of Shippensville, stopped in town Wednesday. They were going home from Mayburg, where they had spent the week fishing.

The W. C. T. U. met at Mrs. E. E. Daubenspeck's Wednesday afternoon and discussed parliamentary rules, after which a lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Rich.

When Mrs. Sekins was in Meadville recently she attended moving up day at Allegheny College and saw one of our town boys, Melvin Dotterer, take his place in the senior class.

Mrs. John Silzle and Mrs. W. C. Silzle were Warren visitors on Monday.

Valrie Day went to Shippensville Sunday to stay with her grandmother and Vera returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Simpson autoed to Sargeant Saturday and spent the week end with friends.

Mrs. Snyder came up from Tionesta during the week and will be at home with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Prouditt, for the present.

Mrs. Andrew Spangler and Henrietta Kifer were down from Four Mile camp over Sunday.

Ronald Spangler and family, of Derry, are expected this week to spend a week with his parents and other relatives and friends in town.

The Willing Workers will hold an ice cream social in the hall Friday evening. Everybody invited.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Henderson, Mrs. F. B. Robbins and Daupine Smallenberger autoed to Jamestown, N. Y., last Friday.

On Sunday Mr. Henderson's father and Mr. and Mrs. Middleton came over from East Hickory, and in the afternoon they all returned to Hickory in F. J.'s car.

Mrs. C. Y. Datar and children, Reed and Margaret, and Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Hendrickson and son Roger were Sheffield visitors Friday.

Alva Watson came home from State College during the week. He came by way of Meadville, where he spent three days at Allegheny College.

The boys were beaten in a hard fought battle on the ball ground Saturday afternoon by the Tionesta team. After an eleven inning game the score stood 16-11 in favor of the visitors.

At an early hour Wednesday morning the town was aroused by the fire whistle. A good crowd of people responded and it was found that an old barn belonging to the company was nearly consumed. It was very still and no other damage was done more than to burn the chicken coop on the Nelson lot and scorch the garden on Robert Prouditt's lot. After watching it fall in the people dispersed, thankful that it was no worse.

This was a week of class meetings. Monday night Paul Daubenspeck was reminded that it was his birthday by a meeting of his class, Friday evening the Victors met at the home of Howard Blum, the Gleasers at the home of Lulu Shaw, and the Truth Seekers at the home of Ethel Rich. The latter class elected the following officers: President, Dewey Datar; vice president, Base Jenkins; secretary, Mary Dunkle; assistant secretary, Catherine Ransom; treasurer, Wm. Watson.

Mrs. Chas. Pope expects to leave this week for Jamestown, N. Y., where she will enter the hospital for treatment.

The Misses Haugh and McCullough called on Miss Daupine Smallenberger during the week.

Frank Nash expects to move his family to Mayburg the last of the month.

Olive Wolfe read a very interesting report of the convention at Clarion, on Sunday morning. The report was prepared by the delegates, Olive and Mary Dunkle, and showed that the girls were on their job and captured the good things that were given.

There will be a ministerial meeting held in the M. E. church, Monday and Tuesday, June 22 and 23.

Daupine Smallenberger leaves the last of the week for Garland, where she will visit over Sunday, going on to Edinboro to take in the commencement next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pope of Cherry Grove visited the former's uncle, Charles Pope, Sunday.

Mrs. J. F. Ray and children are visiting in Tionesta this week.

Adelaide Watson had a picnic on the island with her friends Thursday.
