No Paper Next Week.

With the hope that everybody may enjoy a safe and sane Fourth of July, the REPUBLICAN announces its customary cessation of hostilities next week, in consequence of which no paper will be forthcoming from this printer. The shop will be open for the transaction of business and the reception of visitors, who are cordially invited to come with well filled pocket books.

—Mrs. Eliza Warner, aged 68 years, one of Marienville's most worthy ladies and long-time residents, died in that place on the 21st ult., and her funeral was held on Tuesday following her death. Rev. H. F. Earseman, of the Presbyterian church, of which the deceased had been a consistent member for many years, conducted the services. One daughter, Mrs. J. Ross Barr survives her; also five sisters and four brothers.

—Judge Miller, Republican candidate for Congress in this district, was taken ill while in Ridgway last week and was obliged to cut short his visit and return to his home in Mercer. The Judge's illness is thought to have been brought on by the extreme heat. The Advocate says: "A few well known citizens of Ridgway called on Mr. Miller this forenoon, and were glad to meet and greet the new candidate. He was sorry he could not get out to see many others whom he wished to meet."

—Constable Payne of Marienville arrived in town at an early hour Sunday morning having in charge a woman named Maud Murphy, and placed her in the custody of Sheriff Hood on a charge of attempting to kidnap the 5-year-old child of Charles Follmer of Byrontown, the child being the woman's own grandchild. The case was heard before Esquire Lowman of Marienville Saturday night, who committed the woman to jail in default of bail in the sum of $300. The woman resides in Bradford.

—Dr. Detar of Kellestville was hustled out of bed about two o'clock Monday morning and taken to a hospital in a hand car to dress the wound of a man who had been slashed deeply and at great length on the right arm with a big dirk knife in the hands of a fellow countryman. Two sons of Italy, neither of whose names the doctor could spell, had locked horns with the result stated. Both men are railroad employes, and the injured one will recover without much difficulty, no arteries or ligaments being severed, although the gash in his arm is a bad one.

—E. P. Daley of Nebraska, employed as teamster by E. L. DeWoody, jobber for the Nebraska company, met with an accident Wednesday that will lay him up for several weeks. While skidding logs on Big Coon creek a stick which he was bringing down grade slewed to one side and caught his leg between the log and a gutter in the road, fracturing both bones of the right leg about midway between the knee and ankle. Dr. Detar of Kellestville was summoned and reduced the fractures leaving the patient feeling quite comfortable under the circumstances, and he is recovering nicely.

—A car load of water melons, the largest and juiciest the markets afford, are coming to the City Fruit store this week. For the Fourth of July season, which is now on, we will have the greatest display of fruits and vegetables yet shown by us. Wonderful stock of bananas, which will be sold at wholesale prices by the bunch. The largest pine apples ever brought to this market, and oranges to suit any taste or pocket book. In vegetables we have about anything the appetite could crave. You can't miss it if you depend upon Cohen to supply your wants in either the fruit or vegetable line.—Adv.

—With nothing on the program for the Fourth hereabout it is possible some may forget that next Saturday will be the day. The only celebration of any magnitude in the county will be pulled off at Kellestville, where preparations are making for a high old time. So we'd perhaps better all go there and help along with the stunt. The Tionesta club will go up to play ball with Kellestville at 3:30. As each team has won a game and this will be the rubber it will be worth seeing. The S. & T. Ry will run an excursion leaving Tionesta at 10:30 a. m., and returning leaving Kellestville at 9:00 p. m. A special low rate of 72 cents for the round trip has been made. This special rate will also be good on the regular train leaving Tionesta at 6:30 a. m. and returning leaving Kellestville at 5:45 p. m., allowing all who desire to go up early to see the grand parade, for which Kellestville has made elaborate preparations.

—In a game of base ball between Lucinda and North Pine Grove at Lucinda, Saturday afternoon, John Schill, playing in the outfield for Lucinda, sustained a broken ankle in a fall while running for a fly ball, and David Wilkinson, the North Pine Grove catcher, sustained a compound fracture of his left arm between the wrist and elbow in a collision when a player slid into the home plate. The two injured players were taken to Leeper, where Mr. Schill was attended by Dr. B. F. Phillips, and Mr. Wilkinson by Dr. H. H. Kahle. In the case of Wilkinson the fracture was a very bad one, the bones protruding through the flesh and skin. Our informant states that this was surely a hard luck game, no less than seven players being more or less injured, and even the umpire suffered, his glasses being broken when the ball struck him on the nose. The game was stopped in the seventh inning with the score 7 to 4 in favor of Lucinda.

—Before leaving for his western home Saturday, E. S. Collins met with District Engineer Frame of Warren and some of our borough authorities, and went over the ground with a view to putting a fence retaining wall along the bank from the Tiaworth hill to the creek bridge. Plans were agreed upon, as we learn, and Mr. Collins gave orders to have the work begun at once and presented to a finish. As soon as this work is completed the state highway department will let the contract for building and extending the pavement from the present terminus to the creek bridge, a piece of road which has been sadly needed for many years. While this work is going on the Sheffield & Tionesta railroad company, at whose instance it is being done, desires to warn teamsters and drivers of vehicles of all kinds to exercise proper precaution in passing this point in order that no mishap may occur, as a part of the road will necessarily be obstructed while regrading is in progress. A start on the work was made yesterday.

—Beginning yesterday additional service was established between Oil City and Tionesta by discontinuing train 75 between Oil City and Tionesta and running that train to Tionesta instead. Train 75 leaves Pittsburgh at 1:30 p. m. and will leave Oil City at 6:37 p. m., making all stops to Tionesta, arriving at 7:50 p. m. On the new schedule train 78 starts from Tionesta at 5:30 a. m. and runs through to Pittsburgh without going into the Union station at Oil City. This service is week days only.

—Children's day was observed at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning in a program of songs, recitations, solos, duets and dialogues by the little ones that pleased the large congregation which had gathered at the church in honor of the occasion. The decorations were exceptionally attractive and beautiful, consisting of a bank of wild ferns and rhododendron, which is just now in full bloom, with a profusion of wild daisies so arranged about the pulpit platform and choir loft as to produce a very pleasing effect.

Lightning Kills Horse At County Home.

During a severe electrical storm Wednesday evening last lightning struck the large new barn at the County Home, killing a horse belonging to the steward, W. N. Zahniser. The bolt followed one of the frame timbers near the north door of the basement, and Mr. Zahniser's horse occupying the stall next the door was knocked down and killed instantly. A horse belonging to Truman Hill tied temporarily in the barn next in the row was also knocked down by the shock, but was not injured. The county's work team occupied stalls in adjoining stalls but neither was hurt. The barn was only slightly damaged and did not take fire.

The barn of Elias Emert, on the old Emert homestead farm, German Hill, was struck by a bolt during the same storm but no material damage was done, and no fire resulted.

Grover-Thomson Wedding.

Wednesday noon, June 24th, at the residence of the bride's parents, the marriage of Miss Mildred Mae, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Thomson, and Byron Leigh Grover, was solemnized, with the Rev. B. L. Grover, father of the groom, as the officiating minister. The home was prettily decorated with ferns and roses. The bride was costumed in white crepe-de-chine and shadow lace. She was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Ruth Grover, who was costumed in pink marquisette. The groom was attended by Mr. John Thomson, brother of the bride. After a bounteous wedding feast was served Mr. and Mrs. Grover left for a short wedding trip. They will be at home after June 29th in their new home at Tunesassa, N. Y. The bride received a large number of very beautiful gifts, including silver, china, linen, furniture, etc. The out of town guests included Rev. and Mrs. B. L. Grover, Harold Grover, Claude Grover, Miss Ruth Grover, Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Harrington and daughter Reva, of Salamanca, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Zahniser and daughter Ariene, of Bradford, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Shadlerline, Misses Garnet and Eva Shadlerline, Mr. J. W. Botsford, of Hickory; Mr. and Mrs. John Rumbaugh, Mrs. D. M. Baker, Misses Susie and Myrtle Baker, Messrs. Clarence and Marion Baker, of Pleasantville, Pa. Their many friends in Tionesta wish them much prosperity and happiness in their new home.

Recent Deaths.

Catherine Elizabeth Sandrock, wife of Henry Wolf, died at the family home in Tionesta township, Tuesday morning, June 30, 1914, after an illness extending over a year. The deceased was born in Clarion county, near Fryburg, May 21, 1862, her parents being Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Sandrock. Thirty-five years ago she was united in marriage with W. H. Wolf, and to this union five sons and one daughter were born, namely: Charles W., Harry E., Milton A., of Pittsburgh; Archie and Alfred, at home, and Mrs. Roy Mong, of Tionesta township. Mrs. Wolf was a member for many years of the Washington M. E. church, and her whole life was one of consistency with the christian religion. Many friends will learn with regret of this good woman's passing, for she was loved and respected by all who knew her. To the stricken husband and bereaved family the sympathy of the entire community goes out in heartfelt tenderness in their irreparable loss. She bore her suffering with christian fortitude and uncomplainingly, and her reward comes in the grateful and eternal rest which she has now entered.

The funeral will be held at the Washington M. E. church, tomorrow morning, Thursday, at 11 o'clock. Rev. C. H. Frampton, of Bethel M. E. church, Oil City, an old friend of the deceased, will officiate.

Death of James T. Rose.

James T. Rose, in point of residence probably the oldest citizen of Jenks township, died at his home at Marienville, Tuesday morning, June 23, 1914, after a lingering illness, the immediate cause of death being apoplexy. Mr. Rose was born near Stratontown, Clarion county, June 7, 1845, his parents being the late Esquire and Mrs. George W. Rose, well remembered by the older generation of residents of Jenks township. The deceased came with his parents to Forest county when a mere lad, nearly sixty years ago, and grew to manhood on the farm two miles west of Marienville. He was universally known and respected as a quiet, unassuming, honorable man, who bore the high esteem of his neighbors throughout his life, being honored repeatedly by his fellow citizens with election to about all the offices of trust in the gift of his neighborhood, all of which he administered with credit to himself and his people. Mr. Rose never married and for a number of years past had made his home with his sister, Mrs. Belle Mercilliot, who with one other sister, is the only near of kin to survive him. Funeral services in his memory were held Thursday afternoon, with interment in the Marienville cemetery, Rev. G. W. S. Phillips officiating.

Cured of Indigestion.

Mrs. Sadie P. Clawson, Indiana, Pa., was bothered with indigestion. "My stomach pained me night and day" she writes, "I would feel bloated and have headache and belching after eating. I also suffered from constipation. My daughter had used Chamberlain's Tablets and they did her so much good that she gave me a few doses of them and insisted upon my trying them. They helped me as nothing else has done." For sale by all druggists.—adv.
