Now is the time for all good men to keep cool.

Who, by the way, put the "mob" in "mobilize"?

SPEAKING of travel in Europe, see America first.

MR. BRYAN might send John Lind to Europe to try his hand.

EVIDENTLY America's big crops will be needed, at big prices, too.

As we understand it, Carranza is willing to grant amnesty to all the Mexicans that he cannot catch.

THE Republicans of the Senate who represent the progressive spirit of the times are making a vigorous fight against the stand-pat methods by which the White House has effectually dominated the country in order that the people of the country may know by what methods Colombia has brought Uncle Sam to his knees using forgiveness, while he contritely holds aloft $25,000,000, and cries pitiably to the Latin-American country, "Please take it".

EVERYBODY in this broad land will lay aside partisan feeling for the time being to deeply sympathize with the President in the great sorrow that has come into his life in the loss of his wife. As the Punctuated Spirit says "a man's greatest satisfaction in making good, in triumphing over obstacles and overcoming difficulties, is in sharing them with the one person who, next to himself, is the most vitally interested, and when she is taken from him by Death, life loses all that really makes it worth while. Mrs. Wilson, according to all accounts, was a woman of rare good sense, who possessed, in large measure, all those qualities which make a good woman so invaluable to a good man.

AFRONS of the talk about general crop production, indications are that the forthcoming Democratic "lame duck" crop will be one of the largest in years. While no statistics have as yet been given out from the Democratic clock room of the House of Representatives, general reports point to the belief that the number of Democratic "lame ducks" after the fall elections will exceed the number of those which President Wilson may have to bestow on those who will have gone down to defeat while carrying his banner in their own home districts. More and more Democratic Congressmen are "born with hoodluming emotions" in their dual attempt to please the President and please their constituents at the same time.

THE surest barometer of political sentiment in the nation is the clock-room talk in the House of Representatives. The House has two "clock-rooms," Democratic and Republican. It is in these rooms things are said freely which could not be safely voiced on the floor of the House. In these rooms, Congressmen gather and exchange political confidences. Their expressions are free and uncolored by political expediency. In short they represent the thought of the "folks back home." Leaks from the clock-room indicate a belief among Congressmen that few Democrats will be elected from the Northwest in the coming campaign. The reason for this agreed on among Democratic Congressmen (but not for publication, of course) is the almost complete abandonment by the Wilson administration of the interests and industries of the Northwest.

Congress and Confederate War Claims. Washington, Aug. 10.—Thousands of war claims mounting up in the millions may make a heavy drain upon the Treasury, if the amendments of which Oscar Underwood's Democratic House leader, is the author, is forced through. Mr. Underwood's amendment is the first instance in fifty years where the barrier of loyalty to the Government, which has always been the basis of all war claims, is absolutely shattered.

So far as the Democratic leader's amendment is concerned, the flood gates are thrown open for the filing of hundreds of thousands of Confederate war claims. If the Democratic leader's policy is approved, it may mean the payment of millions of dollars to the South. And it looks as though it might be, since Democrats, south and north, followed Mr. Underwood in his break over the loyalty bars like sheep.

Republican leader Mann fought against the establishment of this unusual precedent in the House, but he was swept away by the Democratic current.

The particular claim was that of Antonio Q. Lovell and heirs-at-law of Confederate General Quitman for federal occupation of lands owned by that General, in the crop year of 1865. The United States Court of Claims rejected the claim because the owners of the land failed to establish their loyalty to the Government. The Standing Committee on War Claims likewise rejected it, but the Democratic leader put it through.

Concern has been expressed by those who see the possible drain on the Treasury that this precedent may create, lest, immediately after the coming elections, thousands of other such claims may be considered and allowed, regardless of the loyalty or disloyalty of claimants during the war. Minority Leader Mann called attention to this danger, but he was ignored by the Democratic majority.

Kellettville.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nurea of Hickory were guests of their daughter, Mrs. Isaac Sigis, on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Catlin of Jefferson, Ohio, are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Tobey, this week.

Mrs. W. L. Watson was a week-end visitor at North Warren and was accompanied home by her daughter Adelaide, who has spent the past month with her aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitmore of Kittingan are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. E. E. Daubenspeck, this week.

Mrs. George Parker and Viola Vanderwort were called to Brookville during the week by the death of their grandmother.

Pearle Dejar is home from Meadville for a short vacation. She was accompanied by Mr. Onley, who was the guest of the family over Sunday. The Misses Meda and Nellie Dejar gave a party Saturday evening in honor of Pearle and her friend.

Mrs. R. Lorom and children came home during the week. She has purchased a home in Salamanca, N. Y., and will move to that place in about three weeks. Margaret leaves the last of this week for Pittsburgh, where she is taking a course in professional nursing.

Ray Weller entertained the Keystones at their monthly business meeting Friday evening. One of the things decided upon by the boys was to give a hayload party in honor of the Gleasers, Thursday evening, and invitations are out for the same, which causes a pleased smile. After the business session the host waited upon the boys with a toothsome lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Simpson took in the harvest home picnic at Scotch Hill, Thursday, and autoed to Elk City and Knox, returning home Friday.

Quite a number of town people took in the ball game and picnic at Mayburg, Saturday.

Dr. W. W. Serrill and Julia Lohmeyer spent Sunday at the lake.

Mrs. W. A. Kinch and Ora and Amy autoed to Clarion county Wednesday and helped the former's mother to celebrate her eighty-fifth birthday.

A very interesting mothers' meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Mary Barnes, Wednesday afternoon. It was decided to hold the annual picnic at the home of Mrs. Nash, at Mayburg, Aug. 19.

Mrs. Fred McNaughton of Nebraska, Oliver Hunter and Miss Lang of Erie, were guests of Mrs. W. H. Dotterer, Friday.

H. E. Murphy was called to Mayburg Saturday to take his place in the Ridgway band, which furnished the music for the day.

Mrs. M. Andrews and granddaughter Emma of Cleveland, Ohio, are in town this week looking after the former's property interests.

The Truth Seekers go the last of this week on a ten days' camping trip to locate near Tidouits. The teacher, Chas. Daubenspeck, not being able to go with them, has secured the services of Mrs. Mary Flynn to chaperone the crowd.

Mrs. Flynn moved into the house vacated by Frank Nash on Monday.

Miss Olive Wolfe goes to Buffalo Friday to select her fall and winter supply of millinery goods.

Miss Ruth Wilson and Miss Kelley of Sheffield, and Miss Tressa Hendrickson of Mayburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Hendrickson over Sunday.

O. L. Johnson came down from Sheffield Saturday and spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Johnson. His wife and daughter Helen returned home with him on Monday.

Tionesta Wins From Sigel.

The Tionesta ball team won from Sigel on the Island grounds last Thursday afternoon, score 4-2. The game was a good one from every view point and the article of ball put up was so good that it will awaken interest in the fans when future contests are put on. Harry Truman always has a good ball team on the job in his ballclub at Sigel and our boys had to play ball every minute to come off victors. Both pitchers did good work and aside from a slight slip-up here and there they were well supported. Sigel had things all their own way until the sixth inning, scoring once in the third and again in the sixth. Tionesta came up in the sixth with a determination that something must be done and when the last man was put out had chalked up four runs and the game, as neither side got within sight of the plate after that, going out quickly in one, two, three order. Now get busy, boys, and give us some more of that kind of games. The score:

Porkey

It is said since the army mow had visited J. J. Haight's meadow at Cooper Tract, it reminds one of a piece of the Sahara desert. You remember that, no doubt, when we were there—a long stretch of brown, sandy waste.

A large car from Warren owned by Mr. Onion broke an axle at the top of Orphanage hill and was delayed a few hours after telephoning for the necessary parts for repair, which were brought in from Warren with a Ford machine.

Edward Shaffer of Church Hill visited the Brennan and Shaffer families at Minister and Sheriff, Sunday, driving over in his new Ford.

J. M. Jackson of Sheriff figured in an experience that will make him lame for a few weeks. Last week while helping to tube a well he was thrown a few feet and hit on his hip on an anvil that was set up in the rig. His injuries are not considered dangerous, we are glad to state.

J. A. Kinch, who lives on Hell Hill, put a horse in the same barn with his noted driver, and the newcomer did not seem to be friendly toward Joe's horse and tried to cave in its sides by playing mule. Joe's horse got badly damaged on the hind corner, so bad that repair was considered out of the question, and he was humanely put out of misery. This is quite a loss to the family, as it was their only mode of travel of the hill. No doubt Joe now thinks the hill was properly named.

A beautiful Holstein creature at Sheriffiff that was gentle and unoffending, with always a kind look in its eyes, has died and it is said the call was anthrax. The owner was offered $50 for the animal a few days ago, and it is too bad he did not go to a new home, which might have changed affairs so that he might be living now.

Sunday morning it was discovered that a cow had roosted in the Minister church one night last week, and it was found the lock was easily picked, and we judge this cow is one that is noted for opening gates, etc. No great damage was done to the property, but we will have to refuse this lady admission to the above building in the future. The lock was repaired and everything will be all right later on.

There was no preaching service in the church Sunday on account of Mr. Warren Jones being unable to be with us, but we hope he will be up again in two weeks. The Sunday school has decided to have the picnic on the 29th. All the people in this neighborhood are welcome to take part with us and bring something good along to make the children happy, and the big ones too.

The Geo. Shay family were all at home Sunday and it seemed good to all to be together again. We hope this may occur many times before the family circle is broken by the grim reaper.

We hear that the Hanson family at Cherry Grove had a family reunion last Sunday, but do not know the particulars, so we will look for the correspondent at that place to give them to us. James McMichael of Balltown was the only one from here.

Wm. B. Card of Grand Valley drove over Sunday and took back with him Mrs. F. U. Eastwood and Mrs. E. T. Downey and family for a visit with his family.

Mayburg gave a big picnic on Saturday last and quite a number of our people went down to celebrate with them. There was a ball game between Mayburg and Endeavor at three o'clock, which resulted in a victory for Mayburg with a score of 5 to 7. The crowd then went to the park where a large table was covered with tables prepared by the good housewives and young ladies of that place. Many hungry people satisfied their stomachs and about seventy-a band from Ridgway of 35 pieces arrived on the scene and after they had partaken of the bounteous feast prepared expressly for them, they opened their instrument cases, and took of their music. These gentlemen had the attention of the audience until after ten o'clock. It is about the best music we have ever heard in these parts, and we know what music is. The band boys like our scenery and town and we hope they will not forget the road that runs to our country. We certainly enjoyed the concert.

Albert Leichtenberger will take charge of the boarding house here for a few days while Mr. Kuhl takes a trip for pleasure.

Cooper Tract.

Del Noblet of Barnes, with the J. J. Slocum team, hauled the tools onto the Forest Chemical company's lease to do some cleaning out, beginning this week.

Miss Flossie O'Dell went to Marienville Saturday to meet her mother who was to arrive at that place from Williamsport to make relatives a visit.

We had a better attendance at the Sunday school last Sunday and the lesson was also a grand one. In the evening Rev. John Gardner of Clarendon preached a very forcible sermon to an appreciative congregation.

C. W. Atkins and son drove in from Warren Tuesday, to attend some lease work on their property near here.

E. A. Wolfe and wife and Clarence Ekis and family drove to Blue Jay in the auto Wednesday evening to attend the revival in session there by the Saints.

Wednesday Mrs. D. F. Groscock went to Sheffield to take vibratory treatment on her injured shoulder. These treatments are very beneficial and last a half hour. She went to Barnes and called on Mrs. Hans Boyd before returning home.

Mrs. D. C. Ewings, Mrs. Samuel Ewings and Mrs. Frank Acile went to Sheffield Friday on business.

E. A. Wolfe drove his auto to Sheffield Friday, and spent the day at Sheffield and Tionsa, calling on business associates.

D. F. Groscock attended the session of the illustrious Howe school days' meeting, and elected a teacher to straighten out the bad ones at Hastings. This is an exception to the general run of the township and we hope the patrons will wake up and assist the new teacher instead of throwing things that hinder in his way. When things don't suit the patrons it is their place to lay the matter before the school board and not the teacher, as has been the custom there.

Mayburg.

Chloe Cook was a guest of friends at Tionesta a few days last week.

F. Burrows of Spring Creek has been the guest of his son, Frank, for several days.

Misses Adeline Campbell and Lottie Deshner have returned to their homes after visiting with the former's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell, at Grand Valley.

Fred Burrows of Kinzua is back to his home here.

Mrs. Arch Pettigrew and children, Agnes and Aerial, of Oil City, were guests of relatives here the past week.

Henry Deshner spent Sunday with his wife at Cherry Grove.

Fred Campbell and Kathryn Babb spent Sunday with the former's relatives at Grand Valley.

Mrs. Carroll of Freestown, N. Y., and Mrs. Fred Halterman of this place, visited with relatives at Kane the latter part of the week.

Oliver Mealy, a former resident of Franklin, has sought employment at the chemical plant at this place, and he is again welcomed to citizenship.

Mable Gifford of Cherry Grove was the guest of the Wm. Deshner family Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Carroll and son were guests of relatives at Jamestown, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Paul and children were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Paul, at Newtown, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grubbs are visiting with relatives here.

Mrs. John Littlefield of Porkey was the guest of her son, Lafayette, here Saturday evening.

Chas. Deshner visited his mother at Cherry Grove over Sunday.

Miss Tressa Hendrickson was a guest at Kellettville over Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Kranking, Chloe Cook and Marjorie Nash, with Messrs. Fred Kranking and Frank Hendrickson, enjoyed a trip to Nebraska Saturday forenoon in Kranking's car, Fred being the chauffeur.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Donley, of Tionesta, called on friends at this place Saturday.

Nicholas McManigle and Dewey Kiffer of Beaver Valley were in Mayburg Saturday picking blackberries.

Mable Shepard was a Kellettville shopper Saturday.

Saturday afternoon was made memorable by a harvest home picnic, which was of interest to one and all. At two o'clock the Mayburg and Endeavor ball teams gathered at the grounds and played a game which was a defeat for Endeavor, 6 to 7. At six o'clock the tables were prepared and all enjoyed the many goodies which were too numerous to mention. The Ridgway band being obtained, at nine o'clock sweet strains of music began to flow from the different band instruments. It was a delight to all to have the privilege of hearing such soft strains of music. At a late hour, people began to depart for their homes, and some came from a long distance. All enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent, and on returning to their homes had the pleasure of conversing with one another about a "grand and glorious time."

Virginia Haight, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Haight, is suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

Mayburg 7, Endeavor 6.

Mayburg won a hard fought game at home Saturday afternoon from Endeavor. The game was a ten-inning one and was intensely interesting from start to finish. Endeavor started the scoring in their half of the first with two runs; Mayburg followed with one each in the first and second; Mayburg scored three times in the third and once in the seventh; Endeavor scored twice in the sixth and twice in the seventh, making the score at the end of the seventh a tie. The struggle then went on until Mayburg's half of the tenth, when Fitzgerald by a timely single brought in Childs by the winning run. Score, Mayburg 7, Endeavor 6. The box score:

The Corry Fair.

The big Erie County Fair to be held at Corry, Pa., Sept. 1, 2, 3, and 4, has all the earmarks of being a greater success than heretofore, the management having spared no pains in booking special attractions. A new feature this year is the idea of limiting the exhibitions of horses, cattle, sheep and swine to residents of Erie, Warren, Crawford and Chautauqua counties, thus giving local people a better opportunity of making exhibits that will not have to come in competition with herds that have been especially prepared for exhibition purposes. Among the special attractions already booked are, Trout's trained seals, the Webber family, six in number, society acrobats. The Great Metropolitan Carnival Co. will show on the grounds. Kirk's Vocal Orchestra, who gave such splendid orchestral last year has again been engaged. The best of races, both trotting and running and motorcycleing daily. The fair will again be open day and night.

The Case of L. L. Cantelou.

The case of L. L. Cantelou, Clarendon, Texas, is similar to that of many others who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says, "After trying a doctor for several months, and using different kinds of medicine for my wife, who had been troubled with severe bowel complaint for several months, I bought a 25c bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using the second bottle she was entirely cured." For sale by all dealers.

Mines Working Full Time.

Central Pennsylvania bituminous miners are working full time to fill orders that have been placed in anticipation of the exodus of Hungarians, Austrians, Slavs and Italians in response to calls to the colors. It
