—Mrs. J. C. Geist was notified yesterday of the sudden death of her niece, William Glenn, in Brookville, he having been found dead in his bed yesterday morning. He was one of the prominent citizens of the community. His age was 83 years. A wife, two sons and two daughters survive him.
—Our former citizen, James C. Bowman, submitted to an operation Friday at a Cleveland hospital for a stomach trouble which has been annoying him for some time past. Just what encouragement the surgeons gave us to an ultimate recovery we have not learned, but that it may have been favorable is earnestly hoped by Mr. Bowman's friends in this community.
—At the home of Charles Gricks, Highland avenue, a quiet wedding occurred Wednesday evening, when Miss Ethel Newberry, a sister of Mrs. Gricks, was united in marriage with Harrison Blum by Rev. E. B. Welsh. The groom was attended by a brother, Adolph Blum, and Mrs. Grick was bridesmaid for her sister. The couple went to housekeeping immediately in a newly furnished home on Englewood avenue, where they are "at home" to their friends.—Oil City Derrick. Mr. and Mrs. Blum visited the former's parents here Sunday, and received the congratulations and good wishes of many friends during their stay.

—While alighting from extra train 2472, northbound, Tuesday, at 12:16 o'clock, near the station at Hemlock, Andreas Ditta, a resident of West Hickory, fell upon his head and received other injuries that caused his death 40 minutes later. The deceased had been employed as a laborer with section gang until Monday, when he quit and was on his way to his home in Hickory when killed. The man was 26 years of age and single. The body was claimed by relatives.
—Autumn days are here and these are cool nights, with the front line all but touching us, when just a mile of gas in the heater of an evening doesn't feel bad at all. Swallows have taken wing for the south and are no longer in evidence in this latitude, although, perhaps, an occasional "one" may find its way to the right spot even in this "dry" country for which anybody knows to the contrary-wise.
—In sending remittance in renewal of her subscription to the REPUBLICAN, Mrs. J. L. Stair, of Altamont, Illinois, notes that they are now nicely settled in their lovely new home, a grey brick, and are enjoying its comforts to the fullest extent. Mrs. Stair is better remembered as Mrs. Samuel Hunter, formerly of Endeavor, Pa., by eastern friends, to all of whom she wishes to be kindly remembered.
—Hon. Samuel R. Mason, one of the leading attorneys of the Mercer county bar and a practitioner for over fifty years, died at his home in Mercer, Friday, aged 89 years. He had been prominent and well known throughout this section for very many years, and in 1878 was the Greenback candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania. He was the oldest trustee in point of age and service, of the state hospital at North Warren.
—The report of the Oil City Trust Company, in response to a call from the commissioner of Banking under date of August 27, shows continued growth in the business of this institution. Capital and surplus amount to $1,035,000; deposits aggregate $4,689,000, and total assets exceed $5,745,000. These figures do not include trust funds of over $1,050,000. It is believed this statement leads any ever published in Northwestern Pennsylvania.

—Charles Anderson, our expert gardener, florist and truck farmer, has brought out a tomato new to this section. It is of the ponderosa variety, yellow in color and most delicious in flavor, having less acidity than is usually found in other varieties. It grows to great size, Mr. Anderson having one that weighed 23 ounces and he believes they can be developed up to two pounds in weight. Next season he will have plants of this variety on sale.
—Addressed "To Farmers: What Has the Underwood Free-Trade Tariff Done to You?" is the title of Document No. 24 just issued by the American Protective Tariff League. This document advances no argument but simply gives the facts regarding the rate of duty on agricultural products under the Payne-Aldrich Law of 1909 and the Underwood Law of 1913. It ought to be in the hands of every voter. Ten copies sent to any address for Ten Cents postpaid. Address, W. F. Wakeman, Secretary, 339 Broadway, New York.

—Mrs. Charlotte Mazo died at her home at Scotch Hill, Clarion county, Friday, Aug. 28, 1914, from old age. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spence, and was born in Indiana county in 1828. On Nov. 12, 1848, she was married to Jackson Mazo at Clarion, Forest county. Most of her life was passed at Cooksburg, this county. She was the mother of twelve children, six of whom are living—Perry Mazo and Mrs. Caroline Phillips of Cooksburg, Phillip Mazo of Redely, Jackson Mazo of Scotch Hill, Barrett Mazo of Marionville, and Walter Mazo of Butler. Mrs. Mazo was a member of the Clarion M. E. church and an active worker in the Clarion W. C. T. U. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday, Sept. 1, by Rev. D. D. May, and the body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Clarion.
—Monday evening Mr. Cohen left for Pittsburg to lay in a stock of peaches, pears, etc., for the City Fruit Store. He will have a full car load of the finest peaches, the free stone, for canning purposes, ever brought to this market, and they will be first class in all respects. Also a large consignment of Bartlett pears, plums and green gages, for preserving. There will be no pains or expense spared to get the very best for his patrons. The prices will be at rock bottom and within the reach of all. This invoice is expected to reach here today, Wednesday, but certainly not later than tomorrow, Thursday, and will be sold direct from the car at the P. R. R. station, so as to avoid much handling, so don't fail to be on hand if you expect to put up the best fruit at the least expense. Go early and make your selection of this fine fruit.—adv.

—The unidentified dead body of the man found on the roadside between Pineville and Carsonville, in the edge of Warren county, Tuesday morning of last week, brief mention of which was made in the REPUBLICAN next morning, was taken in charge by the authorities of Warren county and given burial in the Tidoute cemetery. Coroner DeForest, finding no suspicious circumstances surrounding the man's death, deemed a formal inquest unnecessary. The man was of medium height, with grey hair and mustache, wore dark woolen clothes, a nondescript slouch hat and shoes covered with yellow mud. He was seen going through Pineville Monday afternoon and evidently lay down under the tree exposed to the storm of Monday night. The only thing found on him was a few matches—nothing to give any clue as to who he was or where he came from.

Notice To Pastime Theatre Patrons.
In the future we will open the doors at 7 p. m., show to start at 7:15 p. m. Sale of seats to stop when the seats are filled, until the next show. This is done to comply with the law forbidding the crowding of the aisles. Come early and get seats.

—Misses Maude Canfield and Marie Dunn went to Munnhill, Pa., Saturday night to take up their school work, having had a week at home following the county institute.
—Mrs. Vivian Foreman and children, of Oil City, after a three weeks' visit here with her mother, Mrs. Stella Stitzinger, left Monday evening for a visit in Dunkirk and Buffalo.
—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clark spent the week end at Allegheny Springs, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bryner of Pleasantville, going over and returning in the Bryner car, Sunday evening.
—Farmer Decker of Whig Hill dropped into the sanctum long enough yesterday morning to say how do-do and leave a basket of fine eating apples for the office force, for which many thanks.
—Mr. and Mrs. George Meader and children of Jamestown, N. Y., autoed through here Sunday on their way to visit Mrs. Meader's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weingard on German Hill.
—Mrs. J. F. Proper was hostess at a prettily appointed luncheon Saturday in honor of Miss Helen Smeaubaugh, a bride-to-be. Covers were laid for twelve, and the color scheme was pink and white.
—Arthur Stroup joined his family here last week for an indefinite stay. He has been drilling near Pacific, Missouri, where a new oil field is likely soon to develop, but the general slump in oil operations has caused a cessation in that region also.
—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swanson and daughter Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cleunginger, of Jamestown, N. Y., motored down Saturday evening and spent the Sabbath with former Tionesta friends.
—Judge Irwin will be a guest at the marriage of J. Edward Salter and Miss Lida Fassett, which will be a society event at Franklin tomorrow. Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hamilton will also attend. These parties are related to the prospective bride and bridegroom, respectively.
—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smeaubaugh visited their daughter, Mrs. Dr. Edwards, at Washington, Pa., the first of the week. Mr. Smeaubaugh returned last evening, leaving Mrs. S. to continue her visit to the first of the week. Mrs. Edwards was considerably improved in health at last accounts.
—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wolfe and John Wolfe, of Cooper Tract, motored through here Monday, stopping for lunch at the Waver. Accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Wolfe of Spencerville, Ohio, who are spending a short honeymoon with the brother's family at Cooper Tract, having been married recently.
—E. B. Mong of Renfrew, Pa., and Edward Parks of Lawrenceville, Ind., who have been drilling some wells at Irvinston, stopped off here Thursday and Friday for a visit with the former's brother, Urban Mong, while motoring to Renfrew. Miss Anna Mong, who had been visiting here, accompanied them home.
—Miss Isabel Jamieson entertained at a house party over Labor Day the members of "Glen Fern Camp," consisting of Mrs. George McNamara, Misses Lillian and Norma Perrine, Miss Louise Thran, Ray Morrison, Geo. McNamara, T. H. Bines, Lake Steffe and Henry Thran, of Oil City, Don Reed of Franklin, and Miss Hazel Fones of Tionesta.
—Midshipman Kepler Davis reached home Thursday from Annapolis naval academy on a month's furlough, having just returned from a two months' cruise with his class in foreign waters which are now in the big war zone. Kepler says the treatment accorded the men who wear the uniform of the U. S. cadet on land or sea in all foreign countries, is something approaching the royal, and their trip was an almost continuous ovation.

County W. C. T. U. Convention.
The attention of W. C. T. U. workers is again called to the county convention which meets in Clarion, Sept. 15 and 16. Mrs. Addie B. Parsels, vice president of the state organization, and a speaker of national reputation, will lecture both evenings. Mrs. Brewer, of Clarion, gives the address of welcome and Mrs. Ellen Catlin, of Kellettville, the response. Tuesday evening soloists are Mrs. Sule M. Sharpe and Miss Christine Healy. A recitation by Miss Flossie Braden will add to the pleasure of this session. Wednesday forenoon will be devoted to reports of department superintendent and election of officers. The afternoon to further business, a recitation by Mrs. Edith Murray of Gilroye, and a Round Table conducted by Mrs. Meelching. Wednesday evening, solo by Miss Gladys Braden; recitation by Miss Sophia Meelching; address by Mrs. Parsels. Offering and benediction.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.
"My attention was first called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as twelve years ago. At that time I was seriously ill with summer complaint. One dose of this remedy checked the trouble," writes Mrs. C. W. Florence, Rockfield, Ind. For sale by all dealers. adv

Tionesta Wins Two Good Ball Games.
Tionesta won a good ball game here last Saturday from Snyderburg, score 5-2, but the boys will need better crowds hereafter if they are to break even on the financial end of the game. The game developed into a pitchers' battle between Grove for Tionesta and Smith for Snyderburg, the hits being 4 and 2 and the strike outs 11 and 10 respectively. With good support behind them it made a game that was mighty interesting from start to finish. We scored two in the second and one each in the third, sixth and eighth innings. Snyderburg came along with her two runs in the fifth and seventh.
But the real game of the season was at Endeavor Monday when after ten strenuous innings of the fastest kind of base ball Tionesta was enabled to bring home the bacon by a score of 2-0. And from all accounts it was some ball game. H. P. on the mound for Tionesta held Endeavor to 4 hits. Tionesta had 12 hits off Thompson but could not score until the tenth when three solid swats by Foreman, Childs and Henry produced two runs and won the game. Both teams fielded brilliantly and perfectly and an immense crowd enjoyed the contest, it being staged at the Odd Fellows' picnic. An effort is being made to get Endeavor here for a game next Saturday.

Tionesta plays at Kellettville today. The game at Lucinda for last Wednesday was postponed on account of rain.

Osgood Family Reunion.
The seventeenth annual reunion of the Osgood family was held in Wheeler's grove, Endeavor, Pa., Saturday, Sept. 5, 1914. Present of the family were J. E. Osgood and family, seven; L. E. Osgood and family, five; Harry Osgood and family, five; Oscar Osgood and family, three, all of Endeavor, Pa.; Wm. Osgood and E. J. Behrens and family, six, of Starr, Pa.; Mrs. Mary Osgood and Mrs. Anna Osgood of Tionesta, Pa.; Warren Jones of Newtown Mills, Pa. Others present were: Mrs. M. M. Langworthy and Mrs. Homer Conner of Centerville, Pa.; Mrs. Gus Rhodes of Starr, Pa.; Hon. N. P. Wheeler, Rev. J. F. Scherer, Mrs. L. L. Lee and Miss Hilda Hillard, all of Endeavor. We were few in number compared with former gatherings but all reported a good time. The day was an ideal one for the occasion, also for photos, of which a number were taken. The tables were spread with an abundance of food both substantial and dainty, for the Osgood ladies are noted for the tables they set. About one o'clock we gathered around the tables where grace was returned by Mrs. L. L. Lee, after which we proceeded to satisfy the inner man. Everyone seemed to do this with great satisfaction. After luncheon was over with visiting was the order of the day. A little later the business meeting was held. Officers were re-elected, one new officer installed, and it was decided to change the date of our reunion to the first Saturday in August, when the eighteenth annual reunion will be held at the home of E. J. Behrens, at Starr, in 1915. Farewells were then exchanged and friends and relatives started home with pleasant memories of the day and the prospect of another the following year. Sec'y.

Odd Fellows' Picnic At Endeavor.
The annual gathering at the picnic in the style of the harvest home, at Endeavor, on Monday, under the auspices of Hillard Lodge, I. O. O. F., was a grand success in every sense of the word. The fantastic parade at 10 o'clock was an attractive feature, full of odd though orderly scenes. Floats were in the line with the boys and girls dressed in grotesque costumes representing agricultural and trade scenes which were viewed by hundreds of spectators along the line of march. The day was an ideal one, neither too warm nor too cold. Fleecy clouds flew over the beautiful valley while Old Sol with his brilliant rays lit up the vale and grove, adding to the joy of the good time. The music of the breeze as it floated through the trees was supplemented by the artificial music of the combined numbers played by the Kellettville and Endeavor bands. There were, it is estimated, over 700 people there to grace the happy occasion. It seemed as if the whole countryside were there—the old and the young. The young and middle aged were too numerous to speak of, but among the elderly people we noticed the well known and genial "Doc," Allison, James Henderson, Hon. N. P. Wheeler, who, by-the-way, was upon the sod all day, Geo. F. Watson, S. D. Irwin, John McDonald, Orion Siggins, Charles and Jonathan Albaugh, and others too numerous to mention. About 11 o'clock the Odd Fellows and people gathered around the speaker's stand in the beautiful grove where Rev. Henry Smallenberger of Kellettville delivered a beautiful and appropriate address. Mr. S. is blessed with a voice particularly good for open air speaking and made himself heard throughout the large assembly. After this the people repaired to the booths and the tables and had a grand dinner in the grove in the old fashioned picnic style. Then followed various games and races by young men, old men and matches in racing between fat men—the latter particularly amusing. About 4 o'clock the vast concourse of people repaired to the ball grounds where a game was pulled off between the Endeavor and Tionesta ball clubs. Not a score was made until the tenth inning when Tionesta made two scores and won. **

Resolutions of Respect.
Clarion, Pa., Aug. 30, 1914.
Mrs. Mary Ann Hillard departed this life August 20, 1914, aged 77 years. She was a charter member of the Womens Christian Temperance Union, of Clarion, Forest County, Pa.
Whereas, in view of the loss we have sustained by the decease of our friend and associate, Mrs. Hillard, and of the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to her,
Therefore be it Resolved, That it is but just tribute to the memory of the departed to say, in regretting her removal from our midst, we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of our respect and regard.
Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased on the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and whose chastisements are meant in mercy.
Mrs. MINNIE BRUBAKER,
Mrs. ANNA E. TRUBSH,
Committee.

Kellettville.
Mrs. Lewis Arner and Miss Hazel Morrison drove to Marienville Saturday and visited their respective parents, returning home Sunday.
Five auto loads attended the picnic at Tylersburg, Thursday. Three cars, J. F. R. W. S. Simpson and Ora Kinch, took the ball team over. Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Henderson and Mrs. M. Andrews were over in the former's car and Dr. C. Y. Detar, Dr. W. W. Serrill, F. E. Harkless and Charles Price went over in the Detar car. Kellettville won the ball game 10-1. Kellettville also defeated Mayburg here Saturday 7-6. The Outlaws, our second team, won a game at German Hill, Saturday, 6-0. The Outlaws also defeated the Sheffield Outlaws here Monday 11-1. After the Warren county lads had boasted of coming down into the big woods to carry off the bacon they were obliged to go home with just one little bite.
Glen Rich and Alvin Johnson left last week for Ada, Ohio, where they will attend school this year.
Mrs. W. S. Simpson and Mrs. Robert Proutt returned from Sargeant, Tuesday, where they were helping their brother to get his affairs settled. The former brought Harold Snyder, her five-year-old nephew, home with her and he will be at home with them for the present.
James Troutner has moved his family down from Buck Mills and they occupy the house lately vacated by Mrs. Dingle. Mrs. Anna Hunter and son Bowie of Erie visited her mother, Mrs. W. H. Dotterer, the first of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Reed and children Sarah and Clyde Jr. of Clarion, and Mrs. McNaughton of Nebraska, came over in a car Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. John Blum.
Rev. Henry Smallenberger preached his last sermon for this conference year Sunday evening and goes to Conference at New Castle this week.
Rev. Albert Bean preached in the Free Methodist church Tuesday evening and gave a street meeting on Wednesday evening during the past week and called on a number of old friends while in town.
Jennie Johnson and Edith Lawson were down from Warren Sunday and spent the day with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson.
Chas. Daubenspeck and Willis Dunkle were Tionesta visitors Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Dotterer were North Warren visitors Sunday, going over in the former's car.
Mr. and Mrs. Kaup and children of Venice were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Carbaugh, Sunday.
Dr. and Mrs. C. Y. Detar are entertaining two of their cousins at their home this week.
Miss Flora Klinefelter, Miss Josephine Porch and Frank Klinefelter of Sheffield were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Whitehill over Sunday.
Mrs. Alfred Johnson has been on the sick list for the past week suffering from a severe cold.
Our merchants are supplying their customers with peaches for their fall canning this week.
F. J. Henderson traded his Overland for a 1914 of the same make, bringing home the new machine Thursday.
Bertha Spangler leaves this week for Derry where she will make her home with her brother for the present.
Miss Emma Jensen was home from Corry during the week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jensen.
Howard Pope of Jamestown visited his uncle, Chas. Pope, several days during the week.
Miss Augusta Brewer moved from the hotel to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Proutt, where she will be at home while teaching here.

STETSON
Versus The "Hot Penny" Hat.

No need to tell you what a "Hot Penny" Hat is. You see enough of them on men who ought to know better. So all we have to do is to remind you, as a Stetson wearer, that our assortments of is now open to inspection here in our store. You know there is no law at the present time that will punish a dealer for stating untruths in his advertisements. That is one of the reasons that the "just as good" kind of hats sell to the man who don't know the better qualities of a Stetson Hat.
