Died.
At Asylum on the 24 inst. ESTER INGHAM, the wife of Thomas Ingham Esq. aged 49 years.
Mrs. Ingham was called away suddenly. Her departure was peaceful and triumphant. The state of her mind in the trying hour, impressively exhibited in hymn beginning thus:
"Hear what the voice from heaven proclaims
For all the pious dead."
(One of the hymns sung at her funeral, by her request.)
About half an hour before her death, she took leave of her weeping family, in expressions of the most tender solicitude for their earthly comfort, and of the deepest concern for their spiritual interests.
"And I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, said the spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."—Rev. 14: 13.

MECHANIC'S LIEN.
To all claimants and persons interested in the property described below or in the heirs thereon. Take Notice, that a writ of Sine Facias of which the following is a copy is now in my hands, and has been duly served on Amos Pennypacker, the owner and contractor therein named.
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Bradford County ss.
To the Sheriff of Bradford County, Greeting.
Whereas Nelson P. Brown and Henry A. Carey have filed a claim in our County Court of Common Pleas for the county of Bradford against Amos Pennypacker for the sum of two hundred and twenty five dollars for work done to and materials furnished for a certain building one and a half story framed, situated on the west side of River Street between a lot owned by Jesse Woodruff and a lot owned by the heirs of James P. Bull deceased in the borough of Towanda in said County of Bradford, containing in front on said street twenty two feet and in depth thirty feet and the lot or piece of ground and curtilage appurtenant to said building. And whereas it is alleged that the said sum remains due and unpaid to the said Nelson P. Brown and Henry A. Carey; now we command you, that you make known to the said Amos Pennypacker and to all such persons as may hold or occupy, the said building, that they be and appear before the Judges of our said court at a Court of Common Pleas to be held at Towanda, on the first Monday of May next, to show if any thing they know or have to say why the said sum of two hundred and twenty five dollars should not be levied of the said building and piece of ground and curtilage appurtenant to said building to use of the said Nelson P. Brown and Henry A. Carey according to the form and effect of the act of assembly, in such case made and provided, if to them it shall seem expedient and have you then and there this writ. Witness the Hon. John N. Conyngham President of our said Court, at Towanda the 15th day of March A. D. 1844.
