Each hill lifts up its head on high,
And spreads its fruits and blossoms out,
An offering meet beneath the sky;
And hill, and plain, and vale and grove
Join in the sacritice of love,
And wind, and stream, and lake, and sea,
Lift high their hymns of cestacy.

It is the festival of earth—
The flame of love o'er nature burns,
And to the holy heavens goes up
Like lucenso from a thousand urns,
And to, let man's impassioned voice,
With nature's self in song rejoice,
Until the blended notes of love
Ring from the templed-arch above.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

It is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sonse, they may he able so to regulate the system as to secure fermanen health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a patural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hestetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfac-tion to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stemach, bowels, and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to minimph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Natisee, Flatniency, Loss of Appetite, or any Bilions Compinists, arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels, producing Cramps, Pyscatery, Colle, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bittera have no equal.

Diarrhean dysentery or flux, so generally sontracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dyspepsia, a disease which is probably more prevalent, in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may always be attributed to derangements of the digestive organs, can be cared without fail by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as per directions on the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bitters of some kind; then why not use an article known to be infal-lible? All nations have their Bitters, as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the systen in general; and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation cmanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science. FEVER AND AGUE. -This trying and provoking disease, which fixes its relentless grasp on the body of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the use of HOSTETTER'S RENOWNED BITTERS. Further, none of the above stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create names nor offend the pulate, and render un-conserve any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but premote sound sleep and healthy digestion, the complaint is romoved as specific as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure. For Persons in Advanced Years, who are suffering from an enfeebled constitution and infirm body, these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mother's nour-ishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield. and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system.

Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and, before so doing, should ask their physician, who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness. CAUTION .-- We causion the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetten's Ochebrated Stomach Bittenas and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. I Hostelter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the state of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic com covering the cork, and observe that our sutegra
