The Election -- A Last Appeal. We issue this week's paper on Monday evening. It will reach but few of our readers, and to them, and to Democrats generally, we appeal to stand by the WHOLE TICKET. Under no circumstances, scratch A SINGLE NAME,---vote for EVERY NOMINEE, from the HIGH-EST to the LOWEST. This is your duty as HONEST and FAITHFUL DEMOCRATS, and we trust you will discharge it INDEPEND-ENTLY and FEARLESSLY. This STRICT FIDEL-TY to your organization constitutes its pow-ER, makes its INFLUENCE, and insures its SUCCESS. If any man approaches you with a view to TRADING CANDIDATES, spurn the offer, and hold fast to your integrity.-In this way you will retain your SELF-RESPECT and testify your sincere ATTACH-MEET to the PRINCIPLES and time-honored USAGES of the party.

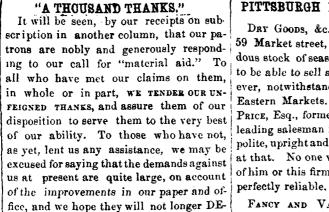

Again we say, vote the WHOLE TICK-ET, and NOTHING BUT THE TICKET.

PRRSIDENT LINCOLN AND FRE-MONT'S PROCLAMATION.

We clip the following editorial paragraph from the Pittsburgh Dispatch :

"President Lincoln has made no mistake since he came into the Presidential chair so great as that of interfering with the proclamation of Gen. Fremont. We have refrained all along from finding fault with his war policy, or that of his Cabinet, but the outspeaking of the people is unmis-takable. Could he but mingle among them-not among Republicans only, but among Democrats-he would feel that he has committed a very grave error. It is an almost universal sentiment, we believe, that if any property of traitors and rebels is to be confiscated, slave, above all, should not be exempt.'

The "Dispatch" is not the only Abolition print that denounces Mr. Lincoln for manfully insisting upon the observance of LAW. Nearly every radical Republican paper we have seen, and nearly every Republican politician, and all "the little dogs," "Tray, Blanche and Sweetheart," are denouncing him or yelping at his heels. If Democrats bespattered the President with half the epithets some of his professed friends have of late been applying to him, their necks would need insuring. But then we should remember that "the case being altered alters the case :" and as these utterances and outgivings concerning the President (which would a few weeks since have been pronounced treasonable if they came from Democrats,) are from members of his own political household, they are all well and less. proper enough. "Oh, consistency ! thou art a jewel !" Mr. Lincoln great praise for his firm and probably not less than fifty thousand dolpatriotic adherence to the plain line of his duty and the plain letter of law in modifying the Fremont proclamation .--He is sworn to see the laws "faithfully executed," and we are glad he has the mate. nerve and Jacksonian independence to do The water was higher than at any previit, regardless of the threats and clamor of ous time since 1852. THE WAYNESBURG MESSENGER. We have heretofore inadvertently omitted to notice the recent changes in that sterling Democratic journal, the Waynesburg Mcssenger. The interest of J. G. Ritchie, Esq., has been purchased by our good-humored friend, Col. R. W. Jones, erally, can be suited perfectly in his varied late of Pittsburgh, and formerly publisher of the Cumberland Presbyterian at Brownsville. Col. Jones is an energetic business man, and the decided improvements in the paper since his connection with it show that he is familiar with the duties of a first rate editor. The Messenger has been clothed in an entirely new dress, and is now one of the neatest, as well as one of the best, papers on our exchange list. We wish the new firm all manner of success, politically and pecuniarily. We are indebted for the above flattering notice to our old and estimable friend ECKER, of the Washington Examiner. Making a capital paper himself, and full of pluck and energy, brother Ecker ought to know "a thing or two," (when he thinks about it,) and evidently does in this instance. "Green be the turf above thee," noble youth !!

Brother Swax of the "Review" also pays us a compliment, but how the deuce practical knowledge of the business, his could he help it? Nothing like taste and judgement, gentlemen,-we always said so.

GREAT FRESHET.

Our Pittsburgh exchanges are filled with details of the losses by the late sudden rise in the Monongahela, Allegheny and Ohio rivers, and their tributaries. The creeks in this county were all much swollen, and a great deal of property was destroyed. At Pittsburgh, the "Post" informs us the fall of water was uninterrupted for twenty four hours, and the rise of the water was very rapid. The Monongahela rose first, but in a few hours the Allegheny commenced pouring down and the two rivers joined their powerful currents into an angry and destructive flood. On Saturday afternoon the water was at 27 feet, and it continued rising until it reached between 26 and 30 feet.

All day on Saturday and Sunday the surface of the Allegheny was covered with timber, shingles, oil in barrels, and other property which had been lying along the banks of the rivers not well secured. An immense number of rafts of boards and city. timber have been carried away.

In the lower part of Allegheny the houses were submerged to the first floor and the cellars filled with water. Picture Frames. Gilt Mouldings and Look-The water was more than a foot deep on

JEFFERSON FAIR.

The Fair of the Jefferson Agricultural Society, which comes off at Jefferson on Thursday and Friday the 17th and 18th inst., promises to be a highly creditable exhibition, and will doubtless be attended by "every body and his wife" or sweetheart.
