Uni-Door Laurements The real meaning and the lasting. chairm of athletic aports is, that they tand to bring out personal hardihood endarance, and pluck; and a show of real pluck is immensely dear to the British heart. It is the pluck of Lord Palmerston that makes so They greet Earl Russel with a cheer who remember the testimony of one friends, to the effect that he was plucky enough to say he would take command of the Channel Fleet as hours notice. This is really one of the feelings stirring in the bonom of a mob when it cheers or history under the gallows. The toughs detest a coward under any circumstances, and would willingly hng a man who can die game even Tom Brown, is so, because of its pluckiness, its out-of-door feeling, its heartiness. and robust English character. One of our manliest preachers of muscular Christianity, too, has been very appropriately called a discipline of Thomas Carlisle and Thomas Cribb. Indeed, of late years, we have been undergoing a reaction against the views of life and education that were for a time in the ascendant. People were too rapidly getting into the over-intellectual itate of the child who asked her grandmother what she should think, and they quite as much needed the old lady's reply, "My dear, dont think." We were to live as though minded was everything, and Bishop Berkeley's saying was accepted, and there was no matter, We were to listen in the lecture-room, study at home, and spend our lives betwixt book and bed. This sort of thing was getting us all into a state of maudin sentimentality. Fortunately a tide of fresh health has set in and we have our present army of rife volunteers. We rejoice that this is so, and would help on the change in every possible way. The life of the present day is so often lived at fever heat, it is so rapid and restless, as to produce a morbid nervous condition. The mental weer and tear is enormous. It is the ince that kills. We need all the aid we can obtain from the country, all the "healthy animalism" and physigree that are to be drawn from sport or play, to stregthen us in the strugde. As in social matters we support all those means and influences that help in their various ways to produce a healthy national life, so we slaim all out-of-door sports, pastimes, and athletic games as godsends of good. An old proverb tells us that the days spent in the chase are not reckoned in our length of life.-Those who cannot enjoy the chase in pearch of health, or tramp the heather with a gun, we should like to see at the foot-race and wrestling match, in the cricket-field or gymnasium.-And we wish the training of this national feeling to be in better hands than those of the prize-ring patrons. Bread and theatres was the cry of the Roman people. Ours is bread, education, and out-of-door recreations. Much of the healthiness and physical beauty of the Greeks was owing to their baths and races. We would far rather hear of the thousands that attend the trial of strength, skill, plusk, and mettle shown at a foote, than read of them crowding to see the performance of Blondin.-The one encourages a right admiration of sound manly qualities; the other feeds a morbid love of false excitement. In Blondin's case it is not only the exhibition of skill, but the suggestion of imminent danger that shrils through the acres of muslin, and russels along the leagues of silk below that bridge of life-and-death, narrow as the one which leads into the Mohammedan Paradise.—Telegraph.

CURE FOR PUTRID SORE THROAT .-As this dreadful disease, has already destroyed so many lives in this and neighboring counties, it may be well to publish the following receipt for its cure, furnished by a gentleman who wouches for its effectiveness in many cases personally known to him: Receipt.—One tea-spoonful Cayenne pepper, one tea-spoonful Baberry, put to half a pint warm water. Take Most tea-spoonful every half hour.—

A Bab Sore Leo Curen.—Pittsburgh, September 18, 1861—I hereby certify that I have had a sore leg for over a year. It was covered with ulcers and sores so that I could not work for nearly a year. My leg swelled so that I was unable to do anything for a long time, for at least six months. I tried several of the best doctors in the city, but without any benefit; finally I called on Dr. Keyser, at No. 140 Wood street who only attended me about two weeks and returns the contractions.

on Dr. Reyser, at No. 140 Wood street who only at-tended me ahout two weeks, and gave me but two bot-tles of medicine, and I am entirely well, and have con-tinued well for six months I am employed at the Eagle Engine House on Fourth street, where any ons can see ms. THOMAS FARRELL. READ THIS CURE.—I was afflicted with a horrid disease in my feet and ankles, so much so that for six weeks I was confined to my bed, and at other times to my chair, where I was compelled to sit for weeks. I was in the care of both our eminent physicians for a long time, but they could do nothing to effect a cure or ease my pain. My feet and legs became very such swollen, and having heard of your Blood Searcher (although I had very little faith in it), I was induced by Messrs. Alexander & Son, agents at this place, to try it. I had not us-d one bottle before I hegan to find immediate relief. I tried another, and am now able to walk about without crutches. I have tried other patent medicines, but received no benefit. I take pleasure in recommending your Blood Searcher above all others, to those who may be afflicted as I! ave been.

Monnouthshire, England, writes as follows:

BLAENOVON, Aug, 1861.

Sir:—An old woman in this place has wished me to write you respecting LENDEY'S BLOOD SEARCH.

ER, from which she found great benefit and wishes to have a little more. She has been suffering from a disease of a cutaneous nature for the last six or seven years. Her daughter, who is living in America, obtained it for her, and sent her eighteen bottles. She is now quite out of it, and I have written to her daughter twice and have received no answer; of course she is anxious to get more, to get completely cured. I told her! would write to you for the agency in this country, and she felt very much pleased to hear me say so. I now beg to ask you on what terms you will supply me; you will please bear in mind the carriage, and supply me as cheap as possible. The carriage on the one dozen bottles was £185 dd. The medicine was a present from her daughter. I would like to have the Rlood Searcher in a jar or small cask, if you can send it in that way, or in pint or quart bottles. I will send a bill through bank or registered letter, which ever will be most convenient to you, if you will send me carrier's receipt of the parcet as security. I would send you a stamp to anawer this, but as it is uncertain of this reaching you, and charge me with the postage. Yours, respectfully. [Signed.]
