

W. W. JONES, Editor. JAS. S. JENNINGS, Editor.

A sentiment not to be assailed, corrupted or compromised. It knows no partiality; it covers no danger; it oppresses no weakness. Destructive only of despotism, it is the true conservator of liberty, labor and property. It is the sentiment of freedom, of equal rights, of equal obligations—the law of nature pervading the law of the land.

WAYNESBURG, PA.

Wednesday, Feb. 12, 1862.

Subscribers in the West.

We have a large number of subscribers in the West to whom we sent accounts several months ago, and who have, as yet, given them no attention. Will those who have not remitted the amount due us, be good enough to forward it by mail, at our risk, without further delay? We need the money to meet our obligations, and ought to have it at once.

AGAINST THE UNION.

"Occasional," the Washington city correspondent of Forney's "Press," states in a recent letter that "the desire for peaceful and prompt separation is undoubtedly sincerely entertained in certain influential quarters." Of the truth of "Occasional's" declaration we have not the shadow of a doubt. Indeed, our deliberate conviction for months has been that the leading radical Abolitionists in and out of Congress, the Sumners, Lovejoys, and others of their ilk, were at heart against any reconstruction of the Union on the old basis. Their hostility to slavery is their master-passion and controlling prejudice, and they would rather terminate the War than prosecute it for any other purpose than the hopeless overthrow of Southern slavery. Their talk of "kicking out the slave States" and "letting the Union slide" had a great deal of significance long before the country was precipitated into this struggle, and is gathering additional meaning every day, now that the war is upon us and they can no longer conceal their wishes and policy. But the people understand them, and are very properly classing them with the enemies of the Republic. No man is in favor of the restoration of the Union as it was who advocates measures utterly at war with the rights of the States, wholly outside the limits of Federal authority, eminently fruitful of dissensions at the North, and full of discouragement to the true and loyal men who have taken up arms for the Government in Kentucky and Tennessee, Missouri and Maryland. Prate as they may of their devotion to the country, these anti-slavery zealots are really against her in this hour of her direst peril; and to follow their lead and counsels would be not only to incur disaster and destroy harmony of sentiment and action, but to render the re-establishment of order and the preservation of the Government of our fathers an utterly vain and bootless undertaking.

STEWART.

ELIJAH ADAMS, Esq., of this place, has been appointed, by the Directors, Steward of the Poor Farm and House of Employment the coming year. We understand the County is to pay him $365 per annum, meet the table expenses of his family, and furnish him with one hand for the house and another for the farm. Mr. ADAMS is a man of strict integrity, and we trust will make an efficient Superintendent. There were some 28 applicants for the position, and any quantity of first-rate material among them.

HAMILTON HOUSE.

We understand that SAMUEL HARTZELL, Esq., well known to most of our readers as the gentlemanly and excellent host of the "Green House," has rented the above popular and commodious hotel, and will take possession on the 1st of April next. No landlord in the county knows better how to cater to the taste and administer to the comforts of guests than friend HARTZELL, and under his supervision we have no doubt the "Hamilton" will drive a successful business. The house, we learn, is to be handsomely refitted.

THE COUNTY FINANCES—IMPORTANT NOTICE FROM THE TREASURER.

The Annual Exhibit of the condition of the finances of the County, published in our columns the present month, shows a balance of uncollected taxes for the last and previous years of $16,518 55. If this large amount were promptly realized, as it should be, the County Treasury would be relieved of its embarrassments and the County credit placed on its old-time footing. We congratulate our readers on the determination of the Auditors to have the outstanding taxes immediately collected, and future levies collected without the extraordinary and inexcusable delay which has characterized the process heretofore. It is certainly a hard case that the Commissioners should be compelled to borrow money to liquidate the public indebtedness, and that needy holders of county orders should be forced to dispose of them at a large discount, when simple means to meet not only them, but the public obligations generally are in the hands or on the duplicates of Collectors.

We direct the special attention of Constables, and other parties interested, to the advertisement of the Treasurer in another column, announcing his intention to meet the requirement of the Board of Auditors, and enforce the law against all delinquent collectors. This is just as it should be, and will meet the approval of all right-thinking and reasonable men. Mr. RANDOLPH's instructions from the Auditors are distinct and positive, and WILL BE OBEYED, and OUGHT TO BE. Nobody can blame him for DOING HIS DUTY, and no sensible man will.

THE LARGEST BEEF YET.

Mr. JOHN PERRY, formerly from this county, but now a resident of Illinois, in a letter informs us he can beat the best in the "Beef" line. He says he raised one two feet eight inches in length, and thickness in proportion, weighing leaving a portion of it still in the ground.

The following effusion of the pen of a young lady friend, indicates the possession of more than ordinary poetic talent. She has, evidently, the lively fancy and gentle sensibility inseparable from successful ballad-writing, and we trust she will not let this be her last, as it is her first, attempt at versification. A little more care, as to measure and euphony, would render her productions alike creditable and popular. We hope to hear often from her:

COME DOWN TO THE RIVER, JENNY.

Come down to the river, Jenny,
Come now, for the sun has set;
There'll be nobody to see our kissing,
The fishers have left their net.

Wrap your lilly-white mantle around you;
Haste! for your mother is coming from town;
If she sees us walking together,
You know how darkly she'll frown.

O! how sweet to have you beside me,
Here under the sycamore trees,
At our feet the rippling water,
Around us the June-scented breeze.

Do you remember a month ago, Jenny,
When first I met you here?
The crab-apple trees were in blossom,
And the moon was shining clear.

The blushing petals fell in showers,—
Your cheeks looked redder far to me,
And they stole their perfume from your lips,
For I kissed them, love, to see.

The fire-flies flashing their lamps,
Across the shimmering stream,
I thought were the gleams of your starry eyes;
Are you sure that I did not dream?

Your mother derides me, sweetheart,
And laughs because I am poor;
"You would love me always as dearly,
If I begged from door to door."

Look over the river, Jenny—
Do you see that grand stone hall,
That whitens and gleams in the moonlight,
'Mong the elms and poplars tall?

There are flocks of sheep on the hillside,
And herds in the valley below;
There are acres of corn in the meadow,
And orchards I cannot show.

Will you stay by the river, sweetheart,
With me in the grand white hall?
Your mother, I'm sure, will forgive us,
When she sees my possessions all.

LEIUT. GORDON.

We neglected, last week, to notice the return home of our excellent friend, JONAS A. GORDON, of Col. HOWELL'S Regiment.—The Lieutenant has been detailed on recruiting service, and hopes to add not less than a hundred stalwart lads to the 85th, and we trust will not be disappointed.—Col. HOWELL is exceedingly popular with his men, and is one of the most agreeable and estimable gentlemen in the Volunteer service. The Regiment is stationed on the Eastern branch of the Potomac, five miles from Washington, and will doubtless see service before the war closes.

A FAT CONTRAOT.

"An enormous contract has been entered into by the Government, with Mr. Hill, of Philadelphia, for furnishing one million of bushels of corn, at 77 cents per bushel; and seven hundred and fifty thousand tons of hay at $22 50 per ton. The corn contract amounts to $770,000; and the hay to $16,875,000—total, seventeen millions, six hundred and forty-five thousand dollars!"—Ohio State Journal.

EXPULSION OF SENATOR BRIGHT.

Senator Bright, of Indiana, has been expelled from the United States Senate, by the following vote, for alleged sympathy with the rebellion:—

YEAS—Messrs. Anthony, Browning, Chandler, Clark, Collamer, Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Fenwick, Foot, Foster, Grimes, Hale, Harlan, Henderson, Howard, Howe, Johnson, King, Lane of Indiana, McDougal, Morrill, Pomeroy, Sherman, Sumner, Simmons, Trumbull, Wade, Wilkinson, Wilson, Wilson of Mass., Wilson of Mo.

NAYS—Messrs. Bayard, Carlile, Cowan, Harts, Kennedy, Latham, NeSmith, Pearce, Powell, Rice, Saulsbury, Ten Eyck, Thomson, Willey—14.

Mr. Bright has announced his purpose to go before the people of his State, on the issue made against him, and test their opinion of his loyalty by being a candidate for re-election.

THE WAR TAX.

In the U. S. Senate, the resolution of the House declaring it to be the purpose of Congress to impose a war tax of one hundred and fifty millions of dollars, was passed by a vote of 39 to 1.

A SENSIBLE JUDGE.

At the recent term of the Bergen county Court, New Jersey, Judge Elmer, of that district, delivered a charge in relation to treason, which was remarkable for its firm adherence to law, and to the spirit of liberty. He charged that it is a right, which every citizen has, to freely criticize, to approve or condemn, the acts and measures of an administration, without subjecting him to the suspicion of being disloyal to his country, or rendering him liable to the charge of high treason.

Married.

On the evening of the 28th of January, by Elder C. Whitlatch, Mr. SPENCER PARSONS, of Marshall Co., Va., to Miss ELIZABETH, daughter of Mr. Henry Graham, of Franklin township, Greene Co., Pa.

PLATTERS.

The committee appointed by the House to investigate the fidelity of clerks and other employees of the Government about Washington, have come to the conclusion that at least five hundred persons employed in the Departments are disloyal to the Government. The report will be severe upon Mr. Smith, Secretary of the Interior, showing that Jacob Thompson's old clerk and his own family and friends draw two-thirds of the salaries in his Department.—They charge that Mr. Smith and at least one other Secretary have treated the respectful inquiries of a Congressional Committee with contempt, and balked their efforts to purge the public service of traitors. The sympathies of the country will be with the Committee, for the people know that the Government has been harassed and ruined by spies in Washington. The report will be finished this week, and published at an early day.

WORDS OF WISDOM.

The following extract of a speech of Pericles, of ancient Grecian renown, on the detection of Eucoba and Magara, contains much truth in a small compass. It is peculiarly appropriate at the present time. He says: No state can be respected if fragment after fragment be detached from it with impunity; if traitors are permitted to delude and discompose the contented, and to seduce the ignorant from their allegiance; if loyalty is a weakness, sedition a duty, conspiracy wisdom, and rebellion heroism.

THE INVESTIGATION OF CORRUPTIONS.

The committee which is engaged in ferreting out the actors in the abuses that existed previous to the recent change at the War Department are appalled at the field which opens to their view. Combinations were formed, and systematic arrangements planned for plundering the Treasury on a scale of greater magnitude than ever before was brought to light. Some of these base jobbers were men of influence and reputation, who traitorously used the confidence placed in them to betray and despoil the Government. The revelations that will be made will startle the public mind. The names of parties in Philadelphia and New York are associated with frauds which, if clearly proved, will entitle their names to be placed on the roll of infamy.

AUDITOR GENERAL.

We notice by several of our exchanges that our old editorial friend, W. T. H. PAULEY, of Greene county, is strongly recommended as the next Democratic candidate for Auditor General of the State.—Mr. Pauley will make a first rate candidate. He is well worthy the position, and we should be well pleased to see him placed in nomination.—Washington Examiner.

GLORIOUS AND IMPORTANT VICTORY.

Fort Henry Captured by Gunboats—Generals, Colonels and Privates Made Prisoners.—The M. & O. Railroad Seized.

Cairo, Ill., February 7.—Fort Henry, on the Tennessee river, surrendered yesterday at two o'clock, after a most determined resistance and fight, which lasted one hour and twenty minutes, and conducted by the gunboats Cincinnati, Essex and St. Louis.

The Cincinnati fired one hundred and twenty-five rounds, and received thirty-four shots from the rebel guns. Only one man was killed.

The St. Louis fired one hundred and ten shots, and received no damage.

The Essex was disabled at the tenth round by a ball striking her boiler, by which thirty-two were killed and scalded to death. Capt. Porter himself was badly scalded, but not dangerously.

Two rebel Generals, one Colonel, two Captains, and one hundred privates, were taken prisoners.

The fort mounted seventeen guns. The land force did not reach the scene of action for two hours after the surrender.—The Memphis and Ohio Railroad bridge, fifteen miles above the fort, has been taken possession of by our troops.
