WAYNESBURG, PA.

Wednesday, Feb. 26, 1862.

Subscribers in the West. We have a large number of subscribers in the West to whom we sent accounts several months ago, and who have, as yet, given them no attention. Will those who have not remitted the amount due us, be good enough to forward it by mail, at our risk, without further delay? We need the money to meet our obligations, and ought to have it at once.

THE MANY AND THE FEW.

The only difference between governments lies in the consideration they respectively give the many and the few .-Monarchies are based upon the assumption that the Almighty has made one class of men better than others,—that the masses are borne to serve, while the few come into the world, "booted and spurred," to "ride them legitimately, by the grace of God."-Republics are built upon other and radically different doctrines and ideas. They recognize and assert the national equality welfare and happiness of the masses, the mente, and not the grandeur and advantage of (what are too often.) the pretentious and arbitrary few. As a matter of course, governments predicated upon such different theories are necessarily antagonistic; and to this fact, and to none other, we attribute the hostility of European despotisms to American institutions. Hence their sympathy with the present unrighteous Rebellion, and their anxiety for its success. They are willing to seize upon any pretext for interfering in the struggle, and are, apparently, only waiting for an opportunity which will afford them a reasonable prospect of success to engage them in the unholy undertaking. Forgetful of every and New York for the army have just been principle of right and justice which should govern the intercourse of Christian overthrow of this Union would perish the let who will suffer. use of free government on this continent: and with it would also terminate, in great measure, our career of happiness and greatness as a nation. For it is to this Union we are indebted as well for our dignity and influence abroad.

What complications British and French interference in our affairs might lead to, time alone can determine; but if it resulted in involving all the great Powers of horror and lift up their hands in pious as-Cristendom in the struggle, we would be neither astonished or disappointed.

JOLLIFICATION AND SERENADE.

The recent gratifying successes of our arms in Kentucky and Tennessee have freshingly cool, we are no judge of impukindled the patriotic ardor of our citizens of all parties and all opinione. REASON OF THE INVASION.

The real object of the invasion of Mexico by the allied powers begins to leak out. The London Times' Mexican correspondent writes: "A dictator for eight or ten years, supported by a foreign force, might, perhaps, meet the case. Still this would be but a temporary expedient. A monarchy established, the pretensions of all these insured, and a check put to the democratic ambition of the North.'

We have noticed a great many propositions in Congress for reducing the expenses of Government and increasing the revenues, but not a single member has yet given evidence of disinterested patriot-

As he says nothing about his "good looks." we presume Brother Roddy is a poor judge of beauty, especially of the finer types. Aside from appearances, however, Mr. Pauley has substantial about the 2d Tuesday of October.

W. T. H. PAULEY.

"We lately had the pleasure for the first time, of meeting with Mr. Pauley, the exeditor of the Waynesburg Messenger, who is now strongly urged as a candidate for Auditor General, and if nominated would make a formidable candidate. The claims of Greene Co. and the fitness of Mr. Pauley for the position have already been laid before our readers, and so far as we can judge the prospects of Mr. Pauley are very encouraging.

The Waynesburg Messenger names Col. W. T. H. Pauley, of Greene county as the Democratic candidate for Auditor General.—Columbia Democrat.

THE CONTRACT FRAUDS.

In consequence of the alleged corruptions which has been exposed by the Committees of Congress, in the Quartermaster and Commissary Departments in New York and Philadelphia, the Secretary of War has determined that hereafter contracts will be given out in Washington .-No more private contracts will be made but everything will be advertised and awarded to the lowest bidder. The Secretary of War is determined to give this plan a fair trial. It is stated that twentyfive thousand coats made in Philadelphia

So says our republican neighbors of the Pittsburgh Gazette, and it's all very wise and well, but why didn't they speak out a little sooner, and while their political idol, Mr. CAMERON, had charge of the unexampled prosperity at home as for our Department? They had nothing to say in rebuke of the dirty work while it was going on, but now that it's all over, and the leaks are being stopped by an honest Democrat, they roll their eyes about in tragic tonishment at the stupendous villainies of their partizan friends, as if they had been living all this while in utter ignorance of their misdeeds! If this is not "cool," redence. The Gazette can take our "tile."

PENNSYLVANIA APPOINTMENTS in JEOPARDY.

A telegram from Washington says: The enormous lists of appointments from Pennsylvania has attracted much attention. It is so entirely disproportionate to that from all other States that the Senate Military Committee, to whom the nominations were referred, have withheld any report upon a majority of them. It appeared that in all these Pennsylvania appointments Governor Curtin's friends have been entirely ignored. Considerable trouble is anticipated. The whole batch will not improbably be thrown over-

'UNDER WHICH KING, BENZONI-AN ?"

Conversing to-day with an officer who had charge of the foraging expedition from Otterville, Mo., he informs us that if you méet a negro and ask him "Whose hay stacks are those?" he will reply, "Massa's." "Well, what is he, Union, or Secesh?" The reply invariably is, "massa, he's boff, he's boff."-Chicago Journal.

Yes Sir!

All small bills should now be promptly They are quite as likely to be neglected as large ones, because people feel that they are not of much importance, aggregate they are of great importance.-In many kinds of trade the bulk of the receipts is in comparatively small sums, as in the printing business, for instance .--Let all the small bills be punctually paid, and the large ones will take care of themselves, for it is upon the small bills that many a tradesman or mechanic depends to pay the large ones he owes.

Let every woman have a torch, every child a firebrand; let the loved homes of our youth be made ashes, and the field of our vintage be made desolate: so speak the two Cobbs, Crawford and Toombs to the South: and what are they to gain by all this sacrifice? Well, they by such fellows as the Cobbs, Toombs, &c., who have so far wielded a rod of iron over obedient subjects. Is not the prospect encouraging? Stand in front, Messrs. Cobbs, your own homes.

The New England papers are discussing the Cabinet and army, and the some indignation that Stanton, Secretary of War, and McClellan, the Commanderin the armies, and at the end of the war history can again record that "the dead Douglas has won a field."

February 19, 1862. TO CONSTABLES. AND ALL OTHERS INTERESTED.

TT WILL be seen by reference to the Resolution ad pied by the Board of Auditors of Greene country at its late annual settlement, and published in the Messenger of the 5th inst., that the County Tressurer is required to proceed at onc. to the collection of outstanding State and county taxes for previous years, so that at the next annual settlement, NO CREDIT NEED BE ASKED FOR UNCOLLECTED TAXES.

The Acts of 3d April, 1851, and 8th May, 1855, make it the express duty of the Treasurer, at the expiration of four months from the date of Constables warrants, to proceed, by suit upon their official bonds, to collect any taxes which they may have neglected to receive and pay over; and also declare that, upon all such sums, such delinquent Constables or Collectors shall pay interest at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum. Under these positive requirements of law and the Board of Auditors, no discretion is left with the Treasurer, and notice is hereby given to all conc. rned, that on or before the 1s day of April next, the accessary legal steps will be taken to cullect all outstanding takes.

I will be at the Treasurer's Office, in Waynesburg.
