they lay conversing, the judge suddenly said: "Betsy, the door don't lock; that 'man' will be coming home before long; and seeing another man, as he will suppose, in bed with his wife, he'll begin to chop! That will never do. I'll fix it though: I'll place the table against the door, and while he is pushing it open, 1 can make the whole thing plain to him in a minute." So the Chancellor arose, and had just pushed the supper-table against the door, when a tall, stalwart figure, in red flanuel shirt-sleeves, with a big black cat-skin cap on his head, shoved open the door. "Looked he frowningly," very; but thus then spoke his distingaished interloper; "My name," said he, "is James Kent; I am the Chanceller of the State of New York; the woman in bed is my wife Betsey; your wife is up stairs; there is your supper!" This brief grouping of relevant facts, without one tautological word, is as characteristic of the utterer, as the most condensed legal statement in the world renowned Commentaries.

Monmouthshire, England, writes as follows:

Sir:—An old woman is this place his wished me to write you respecting LINDSEP'S BLOOD SEARCH-ER, from which she found great benefit and wishes to have a little more. She has been suffering from a disease of a cutaneous nature for the last six or seven years. Her daughter, who is living in America, obtained it for her, and sent her eighteen bottles. She is now quite out of it, and I have written to her daughter twice and have received no answer; or course she is anxious to get more, to get completely cured. I told her I would write to you for the agency in this cauntry, and she feft very much pleased to hear me say so. I now beg to ask you on what terms you will supply me as cheap as possible. The carriage on the one dozen bottles was £185 6d. The medicine was a present from her daughter. I would like to have the Blood Searcher in a jar or small cask, if you can send in that way, or iv pint or quart bottles. I will send a bill through bank or registered letter, which ever will be most chavenient to you, if you will send you a stamp to answer this, but as it is uncertain of this reaching you, on account of the country being in sixes and sevens, a term which is commonly used, you will be kind enough and charge me with the postage. Yours, respectfully. [Signed.]

A Ban Sone Lee Cured — Pittsburgh, Septembar 18, 1861—I hereby certify that I have had a sore leg for over a year. It was covered with ulcers and sores so that I could not work for nearly a year. My leg swelled so that I was unable to do anything for a long time, for at least six months. I tried several of the best doctors in the city, but without any benefit, finally I called on Dr. Keyser, at No. 140 Wood street who only attended me about two weeks, and gave me but two bottles of medicine, and I am entirely well, and have continued well for six months. I am employed at the Eagle Engine House on Footth street, where any one can see me.
