Agricultural.

Our Creed.

We believe in small farms and thorough cultivation.

We believe that soil loves to eat, as its owner, and ought, therefore, to be manured.

We believe in large crops which leave the land better than they found it—making both the farmer and the farm rich at once.

We believe in going to the bottom of things, and, therefore, in deep plowing, and enough of it. All the better if with a subsoil plow.

We believe that every farm should own a good farmer.

We believe that the best fertiliser of any soil, is a spirit of industry, enterprise and intelligence—without this, lime and gypsum, bones and green manure, marl and guano will be of little use.

We believe in good fences, good barns, good farm-houses, good stock, good orchards, and children enough to gather the fruit.

We believe in a clean kitchen, a neat wife in it, a spinning-piano, a clean cupboard, a clean diary, and a clean conscience.

We firmly disbelieve in farmers that will not improve; in farms that grow poorer every year; in starveling cattle; in farmers' boys turning into clerks and merchants; in farmers' daughters unwilling to work, and in all farmers ashamed of their vocation.

The Wheat Deficiency in England.

It is estimated that the amount required to supply the deficiency of the last wheat harvest in Great Britain was 65,000,000 bushels, of which 40,000,000 have yet to be supplied.—France is estimated to have been deficient 80,000,000 bushels, of which she has received from abroad say 32,000,000, leaving a demand for about 48,000,000 more. A large portion of the required supply must come from America, and hence there will probably be an active demand for our surplus, which will keep up prices, and prevent the balance of trade turning against us, and the consequent export of specie.

How to Choose a Good Potato.—A correspondent of a Scottish paper gives the following rule:—The finest, mealiest, and most nutritious potato are always denser and heavier than the soft and waxy. By taking advantage of this difference in their specific gravity, the light and inferior potatoes are made to swim on the surface of a solution of salt, while the heavy and good sink to the bottom.

TO CONSTABLES,

AND ALL OTHERS INTERESTED.

IT WILL be seen by reference to the Resolution adopted by the Board of Auditors of Greene county, at its late annual settlement, and published in the Messenger of the 5th inst., that the County Treasurer is required to proceed at once to the collection of outstanding State and county taxes for previous years, so that at the next annual settlement, NO CREDIT NEED BE ASKED FOR UNCOLLECTED TAXES.

The Acts of 3d April, 1851, and 8th May, 1855, make it the express duty of the Treasurer, at the expiration of four months from the date of Constables' warrants, to proceed, by suit upon their official bonds, to collect any taxes which they may have neglected to receive and pay over; and also declare that, upon all such sums, such delinquent Constables or Collectors shall pay interest at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum.

Under these positive requirements of law and the Board of Auditors, no mistake is left with the Treasurer, and notice is hereby given to all concerned, that on or before the 1st day of April next, the necessary legal steps will be taken to collect all outstanding taxes.

I will be at the Treasurer's Office, in Waynesburg, on the FIRST and THIRD MONDAYS and TUESDAYS of every month.

JOSEPH F. RANDOLPH,
County Treasurer.
