ine, between the frivolous butterfly of fashion, who flits from hall to opera and party, decked in rich robes; and followed by a train as hollow and heartless as herself—she who, forgetful of the holy task assigned her, neglects those who have been given in her charge, and leaves them to the care of hirelings, while she pursues her giddy round of Bagains not confined to remnants: we take RAGS as well as CASH. amusements.

"Not so our Home-mother! blessings be on her head! The heart warms to see her in her daily routine of pleasant duties. How patiently she sits, day after day, shaping and sewing some article for use or adornment for her little flock! And how proud and pleased is each little recipient of her kindness! How the little face dimples with pleasure, and the bright eyes grow still brighter, as mamma decks them with her own hands in the new dress she has made! How much warmer and more comfortable they feel, if mamma NEW FALL GOODS FOR 1861, wraps them up before they go to school! No one but her can warm the mits and over-shoes, or tie the comforters around the necks! "There is a peculiar charm about al she does the precious mother They could not sleep, nay, for that matter, she could not, if she failed to visit their chamber, and with her soft hands arrange them comfortably before she slept. Her heart thrills with gratitude to her Creator, as she looks on those sweet blooming faces; and when their prayers are done, she imprints a good-night kiss on each rosy little month. It may be, too, a tear will start for one little nestling, laid on its chill, narrow bed, for whom her maternal care is no longer needed. It sleeps, though the sleet and the snow descend, and the wild winter winds howl around its head. It needs no longer her tender care. A mightfer arm enfolds it. It is at rest. She feels and knows that it is right, and bends meekly to the hand that sped the shaft, and turns with a warmer love, if it be possible, to those little ones who are left her to leve. How tenderly she guards them from every danger, and with what strong, untiring love, she watches by their bedside when they are ill!— Blessings be on the gentle, loving, home-mother! Angels must look with love upon her acts. Her childrin alall rise up and call her blessed, and the memory of her kindness shall-enfold her as a garment."

A Rather Pleasant Incident. few days ago, as Gen. Buell was riding on horseback through the streets of Nashville, an aristocratic lady, a Mrs. W., living in a fine, large house, stood at an open door or windew, waved a rebel flag towardshim, the Southern Confederacy!"— The General reined in his horse, turned toward the lady, touched his hat with all the courtesy and suavity for which he is remarkable, and, surveying the fine house from top to bottom, with the eye of a connoisseur, besse for a hospital." In less than CANDY MANUFACTORY, two hours every room was full of sick soldiers, and Mrs. W. was politely reduested to take kind care of them. We heartily congratulate her upon her blessed privilege of ministering to the needs of suffering patriots. Louisville Democrat.

commenced drying up. I continued, and when the third bottle was taken, my face was healed as if by a miracle. I used the fourth bottle, and I have been teatther since than I have been for the last seven years. Although my face is sadly disfigured, I am still grateful to a benign Providence who has spared my life, and which has been done through the instrumentality of Lindsel's improved Blood Searcher.

A Ban Sore Lee Curen.—Pittsburgh, September 18, 1861—I hereby certify that I have had a sore leg for over a year. It was covered with ulcers and sores so that I could not work for nearly a year. My leg swelled so that I was unable to do anything for a long time, for at least six months. I tried several of the best doctors in the city, but without any benefit; finally I called on Dr. Keyser, at No. 140 Wood street who only attended me about two weeks, and gave me buttwo bottles of medicine, and I am entirely well, and have continued well for six months. I am employed at the Eagle Engine House on Fourth street, where any one can see me.

Thomas Farrell.

READ THIS CUBE.—I was afflicted with a horrid disease in my feet and ankles, so much so that for six weeks I was confined to my bed, and at other times to my chair, where I was compelled to sit for weeks. I was in the care of both our eminent physicians for a long time, but they could do nothing to effect a cure or ease my pain. My feet and legs became very much swoflen, and having heard of your Blood Searcher (atthough I had very little faith in it), I was induced by Messrs. Alexander & Son, agents at this place, to try it. I had not used one bottle before I began to find immediate relief. I tried another, and am now able to walk about without crutches. I have tried other patent nedicines, but received no benefit. I take pleasure in recommending your Blood Searcher above all others, to those who may be afflicted as I have been. Yours, truly,

BLAENOVON, Aug, 1861.

SIR:—An old woman in this place has wished me to write you respecting LINDSEY'S BLOOD SEARCHER, from which she found great benefit and wishes to have a little more. She has been suffering from a disease of a cutaneous nature for the last six or seven years. Her daugher, who is living in America, obtained it for her, and sent her eighteen bottles. She know quite out of it, and I have written to her daughter twice and have received no answer; of course she is anxious to get more, to ret completely cured. I told her I would write to you for the agency in this country, and she felt very much pleased to hear me say so. I now heg to ask you on what terms you will supply me as cheap as possible. The carriage, and supply me as cheap as possible. The carriage, and supply me as cheap as possible. The carriage on the one degen bottles was £1 & 6d. The medicine was a present from her daughter. I would like to have the Blood Searcher in a jar or small cask, if you can send it in that way, or in pint or quart bottles. I will send a bill through bank or registered letter, which ever will be most convenient to you, if you will send me carrier's receipt of the parcel as security. I would send you a stamp to answer this, but as it is uncertain of this reaching you, on account of the country being in sixes and sevens, a term which is commonly used, you will be kind enough and charge me with the postage. Yours, respectfully.
