Altogether it will be a rare assemblage, and those who attend may expect a "gay and festive" time. But, if after all, the labors of the Convention should come to naught, and the candidates it puts forward should be election, we shall not "miss our guess."-The chameleon is the same animal, notwithstanding its frequent changes, of color, and the Opposition the Democracy will have to encounter the coming campaign will be the same, in all save name, as that .of old. DEVOTION TO KING JEFF.

Under the authority of a proclamation from Jefferson Davis, Gen. Kirby Smith, general order to the rebel troops in East words against the President or authorities of the Confederate States shall be cashiered, and any non-commissioned officer or private committing the same offence shall be court-martialed and punished. The only parallel that can be found to such a muzzling of the army, is that afforded by the acts of the Committee of Public Safety during the Reign of Terror in France.-The Richmond editors had better look out. Their turn will come next.

MUTUALLY DELIGHTED .- The Louisville Journal says: "Nothing delights the Northern abolitionists more than the insane ravings of the Southern rebels, and nothing delights the Southern rebels more than the insane ravings of the Northern abolitionists. The two classes are like ball and socket, or button and buttonhole -neither of them of any consequence without the other."

THE history of the country will show that every public man whose career is treasured with affection by the people, was opposed to abolitionism. WEBSTER. CLAY, JACKSON, DOUGLAS, SILAS WRIGHT and MARCEY, although frequently differing on other questions, were a unit in their contempt for the Abolitionists. If these men were living, not one of them would stand with the Republican party in its radical movements .- Observer.

It will cost the people at least twenty millions of dollars per annum to collect the taxes under the new law. The whole sum paid by the loyal States to support the Federal Government, under Dem. ocratic rule, hardly exceeded what they will have to pay for the bare collection of the tax which is now upon them, to say nothing of the tax itself .- Logan Gazette.

A SPECK of WAR in GREENE COUNTY

For the Messenger.

On Monday evening Company A, under command of Capt. Showalters, and Company N, commanded by Capt. Kenney, of the 6th Virginia Regiment, left the railroad in pursuit of a number of Bushwhackers, who have been committing a series of depredations at various points in Western Virginia. Capt. Showalters learned that a portion of this band, after dispersing in the hills of Virginia, were to rendezvous at Davistown, in this county, which, we are happy to say, proved untrue. The Companies left Laurel Point in Monongalia county, on Tuesday night, and after a march of eighteen miles arrived at Davistown on Wednesday morning at 3 o'clock. The inhabitants of the little town were greatly astonished when they awoke up in the morning and found a picket of seventy soldiers armed with the unerring Minie ri-And showed the names who served Jeff fle, stationed on the hills around the town.
