

Waynesburg, Pa. Wednesday, June 11, 1862.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET. CONGRESS. GEN. JESSE LAZEAR, OF GREENE COUNTY.

ASSEMBLY. ALEXANDER PATTON, OF MORGAN TP. COMMISSIONER. JOHN PRIOR, OF MORGAN TP.

AUDITOR. ISRAEL BRES, OF MORRIS TP. COUNTY SURVEYOR. GEORGE HOGE, OF CENTRE TP.

POOR HOUSE DIRECTOR. WILLIAM DAVIS, OF JEFFERSON TP.

THE TICKET. The Ticket nominated by the Democracy of this county at the Primary Elections on Saturday last, will be found at our mast-head.

The friends of the unsuccessful aspirants, and the aspirants themselves, will, we doubt not, yield the ticket a generous and cordial support.

A MONUMENT TO DOUGLAS. We neglected, last week, to call the attention of our readers to an advertisement, in another column, of the Douglas Monument Association, of Chicago.

PASSAGE OF THE CONFISCATION BILL IN THE HOUSE. The Confiscation Bill has passed the House of Representatives by a vote of yeas 82—nays 68.

EMANCIPATION DEFEATED! The Emancipation Bill has been rejected in the House by a vote of yeas 74, nays 78.

UNCONSTITUTIONAL LEGISLATION.—Prof. Parker, Republican, of Massachusetts, has a clear vision, and sees the difficulty in which his party is entangling itself.

DOUBTLESS TRUE. It is said that when Simon Cameron was Secretary of War, he ordered the arrest and imprisonment of a man in Fort Lafayette because he had bidden too low on a contract.

POLITICS OF OUR GENERALS. Among those understood to be of Democratic antecedents, are the following: McClellan, Halleck, McDowell, Butler, Dix, Wood, Buell, Shields, Burnside, Mansfield, Key, Heintzelman, Franklin, C. F. Smith, (deceased.) Lander, (deceased.) Anderson, Rosecrans, Sigel, Denver, Sturges, G. A. Thomas, W. T. and T. W. Sherman, Grant, McClelland, Crittenden, Logan, Rousseau, Nelson, Wyman, I. I. Stevens, Sickles, Mulligan, Cols. Corcoran and Geary.

Among those of Republican antecedents—Fremont, Banks, Sumner, Lane, Pope, Curtis, Phelps, Tyler, Schenck, Hunter, Peantiss, Governor Morgan, Ferry, Terry, King and Pierce.

THE "NO PARTY" CRY.

One of our cotemporaries makes the following sensible reflections on the "No Party" demagogues who have been denouncing Democrats for a year past for maintaining their organization and standing by their principles and policy, conservative alike of the Union of the States and the liberties of the people.

We have noticed for some time the tactics of this Republican party. Conscious that it has no hold on the mass of the people, its advocates are ready to shift the name and affect to be only for the Union, and convert themselves into a Union party.

The object is to prevent a reconstruction of this Union. These Congressmen are not fanatics. They know how to adapt means to ends; and they are fully aware that their deeds tend to Disunion; and that when their programme is completed, a restoration of the old Union will be difficult, if not impossible.

Now, we have waited on this party with its affected patriotism and loud professions of no party. Of course some of them would do what they profess; but the organization is hopelessly partisan and organization corrupt.

Let the Democratic hosts throughout the country, who were marshalled under his lead in the last campaign and who thoughtless the less of him because he was swept aside by the tides of sectionalism and fanaticism, do justice to his illustrious character and patriotism, by rearing over his ashes a shaft worthy his life and his memory.

THE REBELLION IN CORINTH. Telegraphic dispatches received last night give a few of the particulars of the retreat of the rebels from Corinth.

General Halleck, in a dispatch dated the 30th, informs the War Department that on Thursday morning "General Pope's heavy batteries opened upon the enemy's entrenchments and soon drove the rebels from their advanced batteries."

Our neighbors, ATEN & PHELAN, have been turning out an unusual large lot of Furniture this Spring, but have still a good stock on hand.

THE GOVERNMENT CALL FOR MORE TROOPS.

The Only Dialy Response is from Massachusetts.

Boston, May 19, 1862. To Hon. Edward M. Stanton, Secretary of War.

Sir—I have this moment received a telegram in these words, viz:—The Secretary of War desires to know how soon you can raise and organize three or four infantry regiments and have them ready to be forwarded here to be armed and equipped.

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General. A call so sudden and unexpected finds me without materials for an intelligent reply.

Our young men are all preoccupied with other views. Still, if a real call for three regiments is made, I believe we can raise them in five days. The arms and equipments would need to be furnished here. Our people never march without them.

They go into camps while forming into regiments, and are drilled and practiced with arms and muskets as soldiers. To attempt the other course would dampen enthusiasm, and make men feel that they were not soldiers, but a mob.

Again: if four people feel that they are going into the South to help fight rebels who will kill and destroy them, all means known to savages as well as civilized men; will deceive them by fraudulent flags of truce and lying pretences, as they did the Massachusetts boys at Williamsburg; will use their negro slaves against them both as laborers and as fighting men, while they themselves must never fire at the enemy's magazine, I think they will feel the draft is heavy on their patriotism.

But if the President will sustain General Hunter, and recognize all men, even black men, as legally capable of that loyalty the blacks are willing to manifest, and let them fight, with God and human nature, on their side, the roads will swarm, if need be, with multitudes whom New England would pour out to obey your call.

Always ready to do my utmost, I remain, most faithfully, your obedient servant, JOHN A. ANDREW.
