Halleck Commander-in-Chief. EXECUTIVE MANSION, July 11, 1862. Ordered, That Major General Henry W. Halleck be assigned to command the whole land forces of the United States as General-in-Chief, and that he proceed to this Capital as soon as he can with safety to the positions and operations within the department now under his special charge. (Signed) ANSKAHAM LINCOLN.

Important Order from the President. WASHINGTON, July 22.—War Department.—Executive Order.—First. Ordered, That military commanders within the States of Virginia, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and Arkansas, in an orderly manner seize and use any property, real or personal, which may be necessary or convenient to their commands as supplies, or for other military purposes, and that while property may be destroyed for proper military objects, none shall be destroyed in wantonness or malice. Second.—That military and naval commanders shall employ as laborers within and from said States so many persons of African descent as can be advantageously used for military or naval purposes, giving them reasonable wages for their labor. Third.—That as to both property and persons of African descent, accounts shall be kept sufficiently accurate and in detail, to show quantities and amounts, and from whom both property and such persons shall have come, as a basis upon which compensation can be made in proper cases.

The several departments of this Government will attend to and perform their appropriate parts towards the execution of these orders. By order of the President. EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

Leto from McClellan's Army. WASHINGTON, July 21.—A gentleman who arrived here this afternoon left Gen. McClellan's headquarters on Saturday morning. He stated that Gen. McClellan is not in the least dashed at the turn events have taken, but is more confident than ever that he will capture Richmond as soon as the army is properly recruited. Whenever he appears on the field the men pay him a perfect ovation.—Even the sick and wounded raise their caps and crutches and shout for him. He is perfectly idolized by the men in his command, and they are anxious and eager for him again to lead them into battle. Their confidence in him has never been shaken. The troops are daily improving in health. General McClellan receives all his supplies with great regularity. The men are now furnished with most excellent rations. They are served with fresh beef four times a week.

The rebels are making a desperate attempt to blockade the James river. They are continually erecting new batteries in new positions, but they are invariably silenced by a few shells from our gunboats. Gen. McClellan says that the rebels never will be able to close the James river against him. The position now held by our army is a most secure one.—The only point of an attack the rebels have is an open space of about a quarter of a mile, which they cannot enter in sufficient force to dislodge our troops. The guns mounted at this point would mow the rebels down as speedily as they could march up.

Official Account of the Engagement on Yazoo River.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The Navy Department, to-day, received the following dispatch:

Cairo, via Chicago, July 21.—The rebel gunboat Arkansas, armed with twelve rifled 68-pounders, came out of the Yazoo river on Tuesday. She encountered first the Tyler, Carondelet, and the ram Lancaster. After a running fight of ten minutes, the Carondelet closed with the rebel, when both grounded, fighting side by side. The Arkansas being outside, succeeded in getting off. The Tyler steamed ahead, and maintained a running fire until the fleet was reached. Our transports being in range, an effectual fire from our gunboats was prevented, and the Arkansas succeeded in getting to Vicksburg, under the shelter of their batteries, to all appearance much injured.

The total Union loss was 27 killed and wounded; among these are the engineer and pilot of the Tyler. Com. Farragut's entire fleet was below Vicksburg. But slight damage was done to our vessels. (Signed) GEORGE D. WISE, Captain and A. Q. M.

Our Wounded Prisoners in Richmond. BALTIMORE, July 22.—A copy of the Richmond Examiner of the 18th was received here. It contains the following intelligence:

On yesterday a train of ambulances conveyed to the transports below Denny's Bluffs, on the James river, under a flag of truce, between 700 and 800 wounded Yankee prisoners, including a number of their officers and surgeons that have been confined since their capture in Libby prison, on Carey street. The following surgeons volunteered to remain to care for their wounded, of whom there are 1,000 in the Libby prison: Drs. Jas. S. Bennville, 11th Penn's; S. K. Frelles, 61st New York; H. S. Ritzenberg, 1st New York; J. Q. Osborne, 42d New York; H. A. Edmondson, 86th New York; W. J. Swain, 30th New Hampshire; T. L. Cook, 6th New Hampshire; R. A. McNeil, 69th Penn's; F. P. Seivy, 16th Michigan; Dr. Marsh, 1st Penn's; Dr. Collins, Prince, Hogan, Dunning and Mills, 6th Penn's Cavalry.

The News from McClellan's Army. From Harrison's Landing letters of the 19th, we quote as follows:—Squadrons of cavalry scout around through the country before our present position and our old camp, taking prisoners every day, and gaining much useful information, and occasionally skirmishing with the rebel cavalry. The day before yesterday, Captain McArthur, commanding two squadrons of the Fifth Regular Cavalry, and one of the Fourth Pennsylvania, proceeded up the Long Bridge road, some seven miles beyond our lines. The enemy were posted in force along this road, and encountered the Fourth Pennsylvania first, and after a short skirmish, the Fourth fell back somewhat disordered. The Fifth came to their assistance, and soon drove the enemy before the wind. Three rebels were immediately emptied. Both these regiments are in the First Cavalry Brigade, now under the command of Gen. Averell.

Our army, at the present time, is really stronger, though decimated greatly in point of numbers since they left the vicinity of Washington, than they were previous to the late severe battles. They have become enured to the fire, and no troops of ancient Sparta fought better than they did; and what will they do in the next battle? Our troops are rested, but the extreme heat debilitates many poor fellows who are on the march. A little cool weather would be a relief, indeed. A few convalescent soldiers arrive daily, and again take their respective positions in the ranks.

Skirmish with Guerrillas. HUDSON, Mo., July 21.—Information has reached here that Col. McNeal, with a detachment of Federal troops, had a fight with Porter's gang of guerrillas, near Memphis, in which the rebels were badly whipped. Our loss was five killed and thirty wounded and missing. The rebel loss was much greater, 23 being left dead on the field. Col. Stacey, a notorious marauder of that section, is among the killed. Col. McNeal is still in pursuit of Porter's band.

The Rebel Col. Morgan Routed. CINCINNATI, July 22.—Reports via Maysville state that our cavalry had overtaken Morgan's band on the road to Owensville from Mount Sterling. After a severe fight of an hour and a half, Morgan's forces were completely scattered. The cannon and horses captured by Morgan at Cincinnati were retaken, together with a large portion of stolen property.—The rebels lost 25 killed, and the Federals 20 killed.

Guerrillas in Missouri. St. LOUIS, July 23.—A merchant of Fredericktown, who arrived here, reports that a desperate fight with guerrillas took place at Greenville, Wayne county. Two companies of State militia, stationed at that place, under Captain Leeper, were surprised by a band of guerrillas, under a leader named Reeves. The attack was made at daylight, and was sudden and fierce. No pickets being out to apprise our men of the enemy's approach, the surprise was perfect. Captain Leeper, with eighteen of his men, are reported killed, and a large number wounded. The rebels took possession of the town. Their loss is not known.

The Depletion of the Army. It is stated here on unquestionable authority, says a Washington letter, that 30,000 soldiers once belonging to the army of the Potomac, are now loitering over the tree States as well as they ever were. The President found, on his late visit to General McClellan, that 70,000 of the troops taken to the Peninsula are now missing or absent. It is impossible to believe that more than 40,000 are dead, wounded or sick. General McClellan expressed the opinion to the President that more than half of the 70,000 absent soldiers are now well. How they got away it is almost impossible to tell. A fact, however, has just come to my knowledge which will seem to elucidate the matter. A single member of Congress has succeeded in getting furloughs and discharges for three hundred soldiers during the present session of Congress! This is a fact, and it will show how the army has been depleted, or at least one way in which its numbers have been reduced. The friends of soldiers—of regiments—have endeavored to get off every soldier who was sick of the service. Members of Congress desired to be popular in their districts, and answered every call upon them. Colonels of regiments and Generals of brigades had the same desire—of popularity with their men, and one and all have aided in this depleting process till the sum total of absentees is enormous.

OFFICIAL LISTS of the Union losses in forty-nine regiments engaged in the recent battles before Richmond, foot up five thousand six hundred and thirty-one, in killed, wounded and missing. Of the forty-nine regiments, twenty were from Pennsylvania, thirteen from New York, six from Massachusetts, five from Vermont, two from Michigan, and one from each of the States of Maine, Minnesota and New Hampshire.—There were other regiments engaged, from which official lists have not yet been obtained.

GENERAL HEINTZELMAN.—Colonel Carter thus describes Gen. Heintzelman:—“He is a man of about 52 years of age, small in stature, with a big heart, and a voice which means something when it says, ‘Colonel, take a position on the right, and push them in.’ A braver soldier or an abler general is not engaged in fighting for our liberties.”

OFFICIAL REPORT OF GEN. POPE. WASHINGTON, July 24.—The following has been received at the War of Department: Headquarters Army Virginia.—To Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War.—A cavalry expedition was sent out by Gen. King on the 23d from Fredericksburg, and returned last evening.—Early yesterday morning they met and defeated a body of rebel cavalry about one hundred strong, stationed near Carmel Church, on the telegraph road from Fredericksburg to Richmond, burnt their camp, and six cars loaded with corn, and broke up the telegraph at Gordonsville.

An hour later, a large party of Stuart's cavalry came up to attack mine. These, too, were defeated, drawn across North River, and pursued until within sight of Hanover Junction. Several prisoners, a large number of horses, and many arms were brought back.

A march of seventy miles, and the encounter and defeat of two bodies of Confederate cavalry, were accomplished in twenty-nine hours, and without the loss of a man. I have not yet received the names of the commanding officers and troops who have thus distinguished themselves, but will transmit them to you as soon as the full particulars have been received.

The damage done to the Virginia Central road by the expedition of the 19th has not yet been repaired. [Signed] JOHN POPE, Maj. Gen. Commanding.
