

"A sentiment not to be appalled, corrupted or compromised. It knows no baseness; it cowers to no danger; it oppresses no weakness. Destructive only of despotism, it is the sole conservator of liberty, labor and property. It is the sentiment of Freedom, of equal rights, of equal obligations—the law of nature pervading the law of the land."

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

CONGRESS. GEN. JESSE LAZEAR, ASSEMBLY.

ALEXANDER PATTON. OF MORGAN TP. COMMISSIONER

JOHN PRIOR,

AUDITOR, ISRAEL BREES

OF MORRIS TP. COUNTY SURVEYOR, GEORGE HOGE,

POOR HOUSE DIRECTOR, WILLIAM DAVIS.

I hold that this Government was made on the White Basis, by White or captured a guerrilla in his absence, we Men, for the benefit of White Men and have not been apprised of it, though we Douglas.

on this, our nation's birthday, we declare to our foes, who are rebels against the best interests of mankind. that this army shall enter the Capital of the so-called Confederacy, that our national Constitution shall prevail, and that the Union, which alone can insure internal peace and external security to each State, must and shall be preserved. -GEO. B. McClellan.

PARTIZAN INTOLERANCE.

To be a Democrat is to be a Traitor in the opinion of a great many Republicans in this community; and to oppose an isolated measure of the Administration is to lion." Every project set on foot by crazy and reckless Abolitionists, whether right or wrong, whether opposed by Mr. Lincoln and his advisers or not, or whether calculated to "crush out" the rebellion and restore the Union or not, must be endorsed and extolled by every Democrat as "the very thing for the crisis," or he is at heart, if not in life, a "secessionist" and "traitor,' and no epithet is too vile to apply to him. Store-box and street-corner loafers, (pests and nuisances in any community,) "dish him up" in their most approved style on all occasions, tea-party gossips make him their staple, and every Pharaisaical patriot in the village turns up his ugly nose at him as he passes him on the street .-If this won't bring him to terms, they make a drive at his business, withdraw their patronage, (which is, in many instances, a positive benefit, as this gentry are given to both slow pay and no pay,) and confidently shin their idols. But "time ain't now as expect the loss of their shillings and countenance will summarily close his career by "starving him out." If all this fail to "squelch" the "wretch," and he still insists on freedom of speech and opinion personal violence is threatened, and every opportunity sought to imbroil him in street quarrels or to provoke him to assaults.

This is no "fancy sketch." It is true. every word of it, and has been verified as well in our own experience as in that of hundreds of others within the past year .-The spirit it evinces is neither more nor less than devilish, and is the same that prevailed in the days of the Inquisition. It would rack and torture, and hang and quarter men for a difference of opinion, or for asserting their God-given right to reason and speak for themselves in matters concorning their own privileges and happiness, and the liberties and well-being of their country. Our contempt for such miserably pussilanimous puppies and bigots is ineffable and unutterable. There is no depth of penditures of the Relief Committees affection of sons. How any body could meanness and littleness they are not capable fully attest. These men left home question his loyalty or the goodness of his of reaching, or would not glory in sounding. Their hearts are full of malice and bitterness, and their throats of lies. They live on their hates, and would die of canui if they had nobody to traduce or "hunt down."

If we would pronounce "nigger emancipation" a direct visitation from heaven, Fre mont the greatest captain of the age, Wen dell Phillips, and others of his ilk, patriots of the first water, and consent to "hanging up the Constitution" till the war closes, we would be "good fellows" in the opinion of our Republican and Abolition friends. But as we can't go any such figure, we must make up our minds to live (if we live at all,) under the weight and curse of their terrible displeasure.

We would suggest to the Republican papers throughout the State, that the friends of the Union and the Constitution. who are aiding the Government in the recruiting service, could succeed much hetter if the aforesaid papers would desist from stigmatizing Democrats as secesh and as rebel symparhizers! - Ohio Statesman. That's our opinion.

CAN. The readers of the Greene County Re-

'seat of war" last Summer, -how largely he talked of what was now to be "did," and "did well," how immensely he strutsight and a bitter parting, at least to the Lieutenant, and will long be remembered by all who witnessed it or heard his blubbered "adieu!" We ourselves, who are rarely given to the melting mood, were so | ZEAR: profoundly affected by a last look at the embryo hero as he mounted the hurricane deck of the steamer at the Landing to exhibit his fine figure to the admiring damsels there assembled, that we wore out a valuable bandana in about ten minutes, and had begun on a yellow cotton handkerchief borrowed of a bystander, when we were rudely disturbed by a dog-fight!-"'Tis ever thus," &c. &c. The Licutenant left, however, notwithstanding our tears, the dog-fight, and all his "affectin' surroundins," and sent back to his anxious readers daily bulletins of his approach to the metropolis, which he reached in due season, greatly to the relief of the Army of the Potomac and the denizens of a baleaguered Capitol. Entering the "hoss cavalry," he "crossed the Rubicon," remained in camp several months in a state of listless inactivity, dispatching weakly letters to his readers, apprising them of the proligious depth of the mud which, from time to time, soiled his theretofore immaculate breeches! At last, McClellan struck his tents and advanced his legions toward Richmond, the Lieutenant pricking up his ears, polishing his steel, and

Their Posterity Forever. - STEPHEN A. are cognizant of the fact that he cost Uncle Sam about $110 per month! That the Licutenant should be sensitive after running such a brilliant military career, is but natural. Most people would be. And we expected him to "cat-haul" us terribly for even alluding to it, though we did so in kindliest and politest phrase.

promising to die or be stuck for his country!

How well he has kept his pledge, is attested by his timely and precipitate evacuation of the Peninsula, on ascertaining the "Rebel cusses" were firing bullets, and by his daily parades in uniform on our peacful streets!

If he is sick, or hurt, he don't show it; or if he stormed a battery, "killed his man,"

For the Lieutenant's assurance that we have attained a degree of amiable excellence which cannot be improved on, we tender him our best bow and the freedom of our sanctum in a rag. And in consideration of this and other compliments he pays us, we now and here solemnly promise him, if we go to war, (as we may, one of these long-come-shorts,) not to emulate his illussympathize with "secession" and "rebel- trious example, by showing the "white feather" when the "tug of war" comes, and our brave and confiding lads are facing the overwhelming forces of the enemy.

PEACE. We have always aimed to be at peace and live at peace vith all men who were their business and social intercourse, no matter what their political faith or affiliations; but until within the last year we have always had the good fortune to be thrown into association with men who were willing to accord to others the rights they claimed for themselves. While insisting on freedom of political opinion and association and liberty of speech for themselves, they were not too narrow and niggardly and contemptible to allow the same privileges to us. They were not for devouring or demolishing everybody who refused to swear in their words or worthey used to was," and some people have grown marvellously wise in their own conceit. They are not only prodigiously smart, but (in their opinion,) the peculiar guardians and custodians of Liberty and Union! If we should still differ with them on this and other points, however, and should hereafter, as heretofore, say and do just what we please in a plain, blunt way, they must not be surprised. It is a fashion we have, and is hard to unlearn .-The truth is, we shan't try to unlearn it.

YOUNG MAN, TURN IN.

The Philadelphia Ledger, of Thursday, says:—"Yesterday was not so busy a day at the recruiting stations as for the previous few days, nor will it be brisk till every able-bodied young man is ashamed to walk the streets of Philadelphia except in uniform. Married men, men of families, have already filled the regiments from Philadelphia, as the ex- scores of the warm-hearted lads with the and families and business without heart, is matter of surprise to us and to bounty, and now, when the Government calls for soldiers, and the soldiers in the field call for assistance, young men, with no families, such as might have influenced those now in the field, are not ashamed to appear on the public streets."

We commend the above to the close and prayerful attention of the redoubtable hero of the Republican, Lieutenant Evans, who is neither "ashamed to appear upon the public streets," but has the effrontery to call on men to volunteer as privates who are many years his senior and have large families of helpless children looking to them for bread, while he, (gallant youth!) without "chick or child," stays at home in conscious and weldefenders of his country with his venom and twattle. Noble and chivalric boy! how self-sacrificing and magnanimous!

THANKS.

SICK AND WOUNDED SOLDTERS.

A Washington city correspondent of of trumpets" with which the Editor of that ultra Republican prints in the country,) delectable sheet took his departure for the undertakes, in a late letter, to tell the benighted people of this District who they must send to Congress this Fall. The impertinence of the fellow is only exceeded ted in his anticipated shoulder straps, how by his mean ress. In his anxiety to serve freely he wept over his readers and "wiped a political friend, he is willing to misrephis eyes with the public." It was a sad resent and villify an opponent, than this scribbler, signing himself "Visitor,"

"CONGRESSMEN.

"I suppose it is settled that both Gen. Moorhead and McKnight will how that is going? Dr. Wallace will doubtless be our candidate there, and should be returned by an overwhelming majority. He was a faithful representative for his people, tion's life. He was ever ready, also, with his sympathy, his aid and his assistance for the sick and suffering soldiers here, this winter, spring and summer. When a subscription was taken for the soldiers' Relief Association, he gave cheerfully and generously aided with his advice and countenance. On the other hand, his opponent, Hon. Jesse Lazear, gave not one cent, though he had the opportunity, and, together with Ancona, Stiles, Johnson and others of purse, carrying out in their private places in Congress—a system of discouragement and opposition to the efforts for sustaining the Government and putting down the slaveholders' robellion. I trust this fact will be borne in mind by those who have friends in the army of the Renot? I trust that a people so thoroughly and carnestly in favor of our Government, and of sustaining our flag and our name, as those in that District, may not suffer the misfortune of being misrepresented by a gentleman whose sympathies are not wholly with truth and freedom. It behooves all loyal mon, regardelss of party, to rally as one man, and see to it that our next Congress be down the last rebel in arms against the Government."

In answer to "Visitor's" charge that Gen. LAZEAR refused to contribute to the Relief Association, we have to say that he attended the meeting at which the association was organized to co-operate with others in carrying out its avowed object, but became satisfied that his time and means could be better employed in attending, as far as possible, to the sick and wounded of his own District, presuming that each member would take the same view and act accordingly. That he was ting down this rebellion occupied but little correct and judicious in his course and im- time, and excited in the Republican party pressions is evidenced by the fact that many who had contributed to the Association subsequently informed him that they regretted having done so, as some of the parties charged with the duty of distributing the fund were notoriously and in every respect incompetent and untrustworthy. L. L. MINOR, Esq., a prominent Republican of Waynesburg, and at present a ington, in a speech before the Association, exposed its inefficiency and the shortcomings of its employees, and a distinguished Government officer, who was familiar with its operations and the wants and suffering of our sick and wounded, told Gen. LAZEAR it was a failure. So much for the Association which "Visitor" denounces our townsman and others for not making the almoner of their bounty. In this county, and to those who know Gen. LAZEAR, it is unnecessary to say that the impression "Visitor" attempts to create that he has not done his whole duty the war into a crusade against slavery, to by the brave lads who have been disabled in the service of the country, is utterly and absurdly false. No member of Congress to hospital, and wherever he could contagious diseases, and is spoken of by military eaten out by swarms of negroes. all who know him. We are quite certain no such base imputation upon the General's character was penned or published with the approbation of Dr. WALLACE, who, we are glad to learn from Gen. LA-ZEAR himself, is not only a high-toned and courteous gentleman, but noted for his liberality and kindness to the sick soldiers from his District.

HIT THEM AGAIN.

The Ohio Statesman thus hits off a certain class of small-fry, intolerant, fanatical. mischief-making politicians, who are peculiar to this as to other localities, and who spend three-fifths of their time trying to stir up strife among their neighbors :-

"It is ridiculous to see Abolition come security and bespatters the Democratic Disunionists running about the country professing a love for the Union and crying out against party, when at the same time they are urging forward the most ultra party measures that folly and fanaticism ever inven-Asa Ross, Esq., of Richhill, and other ted, and doing everything in their faithful Democrats and friends, have our power to divide the people and destroy thanks for the new subscribers lately sent the Union. Such men, and they are found in every town, village and Reserves .- Washington Examiner.

THE "FALSTAFF" OF THE REPUBLI- GEN. LAZEAR AND THE RELIEF OF township, have the impudence and effrontery of Satan himself. They may be known at once, by the alacripublican all remember the "great flourish the "Pittsburgh Gazette" (one of the most ty with which they denounce every man who will not embrace their infamous dogmas, as a secessionist and sympathizer with treason. Respectable people ought to cut them on all occasions."

NEW SUBSORIBERS.

We have had the pleasure, during the past three or four weeks of making large which nothing could be more unmanly and frequent additions to our list of suband more ungenerous. But below is what scribers. The gallant Democracy of Little Greene were never more determined and has to say of Dr. WALLACE and Gen. La- hearty in their attachment to their principles and organization than at this time, and are evidently not to be bullied or "palavered" out of their convictions by a designing and unscrupulous Opposition .be returned. That being fixed as it They know their rights, and have the should be, has the Gazette looked nerve and manhood to maintain them, and over to the Lawrence, Beaver and have unfaltering and unabated faith in Washington District and observed the great Party of the Right and the People, which has so long and successfully administered the affairs of the Government, and which can alone restore the Union by its moderation, conservatism and habitual reand did everything in his power the gard for the restraints and compromises of past session to bear up the hands of the Constitution and the rights of the the President in his battle for the na- States. Democrats hereaway will give a good account of themselves at the ballotbox this Fall.

SEPARATE PARTY FROM PATRIOT-

ISM. An editorial brother remarks with great truth and justice that it requires but a glance at the conduct of a majority of the Republican party to see that party, and not patriotism, has dictated their course. At the start, conciliation was proposed and urged, as the efficient and appropriate that kidney, kept fast hold of their means to adjust a difficulty that had risen to such magnitude. We believe that if ives what they practiced in their this policy of conciliation had been adopted, the work of restoring the Union would have been easy. The Southern leaders would not have been directly affected .-Many of them were for no compromise; but they could not have enlisted the people in the war. The Southern conspirators public, and what loyal family has were afraid of conciliation. They did what they could to arrest it. They sat sullenly in the Senate refusing to vote upon measures of compromise. Ambition prompted their course. On the other hand, party pride and superciliousness led the Republican party to reject all measures of conciliation. If the people at home had been properly represented, the result would have been otherwise; but the members of Congress, partizan-like, turned generally a full of men who will know no word deaf ear to conciliation. It is true the but success in this giant contest, and | Government had a right to enforce obediwho will vote the last dollar to put | ence to the laws; but wise men will exhaust all means of conciliation before resorting to the sword.

It is vain to recur to this now; except to place men where they belong in the contest. These Republicans claim to be eager enough to put down rebellion. But when called upon, for the sake of the Union, to sacrifice a little party pride, they were not equal to the task.

Now, what does this party? It pursues with single eye one purpose-its party schemes and purposes. During the late session of Congress, the measures for putlittle interest, except as these means ministered to party ends. They know that the whole inspiration of this war in the South has been the slavery question; not so much for what has been done as for what is apprehended .-they dropped the irritating subject? Not Clerk in the Interior Department at Wash- they. It has been their constant theme; their entire song from day to day and week to week, As far as they could, they have verified all that Southern demagogues charged upon the North.

They have got power under the most solemn pledge that they had no power over slavery in the States. They have raised armies under a pledge that this war was to put down the rebellion and enforce the laws; under repeated pledges not to interfere with the institutions of the States; and yet, have they not, a majority of them, worked with Satanic diligence to convert destroy it, not to restore the Union?

They propose now to assume what their enemies charged upon them, and what or private citizen of his means and op- they denied. They diligently shape all portunities, could have been more generous their measures against slavery, without rewith his money or more lavish in his at- gard to whether they are adapted to suptentions to the sick and wounded soldiers press the rebellion or not, and recklessly who needed his help and his encouraging propose to crush out opposition by mere words. He has gone from hospital force. If their pestilent counsels had been listened to, their armies would have been relieve or assist the poor fellows, regardless smothered by crowds of slaves, and the of his own convenience and safety from subsistence provided for the support of the

We have no fears of these fanatics in the ultimate result. All they can do is to power. Their career must stop; it contains the elements of its own dissolution. No people will endure the calamities their folly will inflict.

To put down these Radicals we rely on will come to the work in the spirit of their fathers. We want members of Congress who will look to the interest of the white man first; who will look to a restoration of the Union as a first object; who have no no party malice to indulge. We care nothing for names; but God save the country just now from the mere partisan, the hobber-rider and demagogue.

BULLY FOR THE 8th RESERVES.

We learn, through a private source from the army, that the 8th Reserves (who were cheered by a New York Regiment npon their return from one of the most splendid charges made during the war) are to be turnished with Springfield rifles, in acknowledgment of their gallant services in battle. This is an extraordinary mark of honor, and makes us feel proud, as one of the companies-one of the bravest-of this brave Regiment is from our own borough. Bully for the 8th

VIGOROUS MEASURES INAUGURATED! 300,000 More Men Ordered to be Drafted!

Washington, Aug. 4.—The following order has just been issued: WAR DEPARTMENT. Washington, August 4, '62. ORDER CALLING FOR MILITIA PROM

THE SEVERAL STATES. Ordered, First-That a draft of 300,000 militia will be immediately called into the service of the United States, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged. The Secretary of War will assign the quotas to the States, and establish renulations for the draft.

Second-That if any State shall not, by the 15th of August, furnish its quota for the 300,000 volunteers, authorized by law, the deficiency of volunteers will also be made up by pecial draft from the militia, and the Secretary of War will establish regulations for this purpose.

Third-Regulations will be pre pared by the War Department, and presented to the President, with the object of securing the promotion of officers of the army and volunteers for meritorious and distinguished services, and of preventing the nomination or appointment in the military service of incompetent or unworthy officers. The regulations will also provide for ridding the service of such incompetent persons as now hold commissions.

By order of the President. (Signed,) E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

WAR MEETINGS!

The undersigned, who were appointed a Committee at the meeting held in Waynesburg on the 25th ult., to make \cdot such arrangements as might be thought best to promote enlistments under the late call of the President for volunteers, and to provide the means of raising bounties to pay such as might enlist, respectfully request the citizens to meet at the following places at the times mentioned, for the purpose of promoting the objects in view, viz :

PROKE UP IN A SOUABBLE OR

ROW. The Republican County Convention, numbering some twelve full-grown delegates, assembled at the Court House on Monday last, to nominate a County Ticket and to instruct the conferees who to support for Congress. Notwithstanding GEO. V. LAWRENCE'S feigned declination of the candidacy for the latter position, his friends insisted on his running, though Dr. WALLACE was present, and on his prettiest behaviour, and had been "playing the agreeable" to the Republican wire-workers here for some three or four days before the Convention. But, though Have these Congressmen done anything to | much of a gentleman, and a very narrow undeceive the people of the South? Have prejudiced partizan, evidently intolerant of his political opponents, his friends could not obtain for him the poor privilege and shabby honor of haranguing the empty benches on the occasion. "Old Cooke" and a very few others treated him with 'distinguished consideration," but the rest of the "faithful" gave him the "cold shoulder," Poor fellow! he is doubtless ready to exclaim, "save me from my friends!" After an amusing and discord ant "jabber," the Convention adjourned, we understand, "without day."

> AN EXCELLENT SENTIMENT .-- In the late Democratic Convention in Fairfield county, Ohio, Dr. Olds offered the follow ing Resolution, which was enthusia stically > adopted:--"Resolved, That we are in favor of the Union as it was, the Constitution as it is,

and the negroes where they are.' This is the sentiment of national, patri otic men everywhere.

There are lots of rampant Aboli ionists, able-bodied men, who might leave their families surrounded with all the comforts, and many of them with the elegancies, of life, who have not yet enlisted with the ranks. Let such remember that "there are only two sides to this question-the loyal and the disloyal."
