MINOR & CO. The New York Chronicle publishes Missionary to Burmah, to a friend in this country, giving an account of an extensive fire in which the Mission and the Christian families suffered great loss: "On the 19th of this month (April,) a fire broke out in the southern side of the town. The wind was fresh south; and, as the fire spread, increased greatly. There had not Dress Goods, been a drop of rain, of course, in five months, and everything was crisp.— In less than one hour the heat became so intense, that fearful whirlwinds were produced, which stripped the roofs from buildings, and lifting the fiery masses to a great height, scattered them in all directions .-The noise of these whirlwinds was Boots and Shoes, &c., &c., like distant thunder, and the flames Together with a variety of NOTIONS. Customers and leaned from house to house in one ass great ocean of fire. In less than four hours nothing was left that could consume. Even brick buildings supposed to be fire-proof were destroyed.

"It was heart rending to see thousands of men, women and children, of all ages and ranks, fleeing for their lives: mothers agonizing for their missing children, and children for their missing parents.— Thousands rushed into the river to escape the intolerable heat. About twenty are reported as having perished in the flames; 4,500 houses are burnt, and 5,000 families without a shelter, or article of furniture, or year, and had been finished but seven months, is gone. All our christian families but two, which lived on the windward side of the fire, have lost everything."

Smith and lady," or to ask a friend a How is your lady?" This is all fashionable vulgarity, and invariably betrays a lack of cultivation. The term wife is far more heautiful, and appropriate, and refined, whatever may be said to the contrary. Suppose a lady were to say, instead of "my husband," "my gentleman," or "my husband," "my gentleman," or "my husband," "my gentleman," or "ses."

In Honduras, invalids afflicted with Scrofula visit the streams that have drained from the wild lands where Sarsaparilla grows. It is found that the waters become impregnated with the medicinal virtues of this drug and the natives drink it. bathe in it, and live on it for weeks. Whatever its effects, these 'wateringplaces" have reputation not inferior to our own Saratoga, and great numbers surely obtain relief at them from the eruptions, ulcerations, and sores, which are so afflicting always to a half civilized people. Yet I find all classes have more confidence in Dr. Ayer's Extract of Sarsaparilla, than in the impregnated waters or any compound of the root that they can make. Those who can afford to buy it, do so, and it is in very general use here, curing them surer and quicker than they can get relief without it.-Not a few of our staple products go thus to foreign lands, are there manipulated by scientific or artisan skill, and then come back for our consumption and use.
