The enemy is still on our front, but they are badly used up.

We have lost not less than eight thousand men in killed and wounded, and from the appearance of the field the enemy's loss is at least two to our one.

He stood strictly on the defensive, and every assault was made by ourselves.—Our troops behaved splendidly.

The battle was fought on the indentical battle field of Bull Run, which fact greatly increased the enthusiasm of our men.

The news just resches me from the corront later, is considered certain.

Jackson will certainly be driven into the work disorders that accumitates in the blood. If all the discoveries that fire that from the torough of the mountains. He cannot pass through fare Gap again, for Heintzelman is guarding the road, and he cannot oreak through that brave corps, especially with our other armies at his heels.

REBELS DEFEATED AT BOLIVAB.

GEN. GRANT'S HEAQUARTERS, Aug. 31, 1862.

To Major General Halleck, General-The following despatch is received from Bolivar, Chief: General—The following despatch is received from Bolivar, Tennessee: Col. arty in 1864 is the best result I see to be possible for the country."

The news just reaches me from the front that the enemy is retreating towards the enemy, whose loss was over one hundred. Our loss is only twenty on the best pargative that is offered in the Mountains. I go forward at once to e in Washington looking after the apointments under the new tax law. What pity they could'nt be impressed, the impressed, the possible form an idea of their expectations.

I go forward at once to be possible front that the enemy is retreating towards the enemy, whose loss was over one hundred. Our loss is only twenty men killed and wounded—Col. Hogg being one of the number.

We have made great captures, but I am being one of the number.
