BY A NEW CONTRIBUTOR.

The days are growing shorter, The min has ground the line, And the people all are asking, "Will Abraham resign?" Poor old Father Abraham. Once a people's pride; Your glory has deserted; We're prepared to "let you slide."

You've forgotton all the promises Made in those speeches fine, When traveling to the capital: Oh! Abraham, resign ! Poor old Father Abraham.

You've killed the Constitution. Framed by patriots "lang syne;" You've gagget the mouths of freemen; Oh! Abraham, resign!

Poor old Father Abraham. Between States once fraternal. You've drawn your party line; You've brought us war infernal;

Oh! Abraham, resign!

Poor old Father Abraham You've imprisoned honest freemen. And in dungeons let them pine; For home, and wife, and children;

Oh i Abraham, resign ! Poor old Father Abraham. You're leagued with John Brown Forney,

To Greaty you incline, You're hand and glove with Sumner; Oh i Abraham, resign! Poor old Father Abraham. The people will not swallow

That wicked scheme of thine, To 'mancipate the "woolly heads;" Oh! Abraham, resign! Poor old Father Abraham.

Pennsylvania has condemned you; Ohio's in the line; And the Hoosier boys are shouting: Oh! Abraham, resign! Poor old Father Abraham.

The Empire State has spoken Against thee, Abr'm mine; The Jersey Blues are after thee; Oh! Abraham, resign! Poor old Father Abraham.

Against these solemn warnings Steel not that heart of thine; Far "better iate than never." Oh! Abraham, resign! Poor old Father Abraham.

ANNOUNCEMENT. With the October number of this time honored and popular Magazine was commenced a new series, issued in a new and enlarged form, under entirely new editorial and proprectary management. It will be the aim of its present conductor not only to sustain its former prestige, but to extend its circle of readers, and make it a welcome guest in every American household. With this view, no labor or expense will be spared in securing the highest of talent, not abone on this side of the Atlantic, but in both hemispheres. pheres Although a literary Magazine, it will not shrink from Although a Merery magazine, it will not surink robolity discussing the vital topics of the day, free from all party or sectarian bias. It will emerace among its miscellaueous contents notes on current events, foreign and domestic; reviews of new books, and art and dramatic party; while the Editor's Table, with which the readers of "OLD KNICK" have been so long fa-miliar, will be monthly spread with the choicest literary viands which the market can supply.

It is thus hoped, that even under the depressing in-fluences of a protracted war, the veteran Magizine of the United States will reap, in its new and improved character, a plentiful harvest of subscriptions—and maintain, with added lustre, that position as a first class monthly, which is has held for more than thirty years.

The Great Rebellion

THE UNITED STATES.

Messrs. HARPER & BROTHERS have commenced the insue in Numbers of a complete "History of the Great Rebellion in the United States." The work has been for many months in course of preparation, by a writer every way qualified for the task.

been for many months in course of preparation, by a writer every way qualified for the task.

The Introduction contains a clear and succinct account of the formation and and adoption of the Constitution of the United States, and the establishment of the National Government; the origin, development, and progress of the dectrines of Nullification and Secasion, and the vasious phases which they assumed until their final culmination in the Great Rebellion.

The History comprises a full account, drawn from the most suthentic sources, of all the Events of the War; the intrigues of the Southern ladies at home and abroad; the gradual defection of one section; the great Uprising of the People for the maintenance of the National Life and Existence; the rapid creation of Jur immense Army and Navyo and the Battles by Land and Sea.

The Illustrations comprise Portraits of all those who have borne a prominent part in the struggle; Maps of the different localities; Plans of the leading actions; Views of every scene of interest, and of the most important Battles. These Illustrations are mostly from drawings taken on the spot, by artusts deputed for that purpose to accompany every division of our Army and Navy.

Every facility at the command of the Publishers has been employed in the preparation and execution of this the most trustworthy and valuative history which can be prepared of the "Great Struggle Nor the American Union."
