"This talk of RESTORING the UNION AS IT WAS under the CONSTITUTION AS IT IS, is one of the ABSURDITIES which I have heard repeated until 1 have become about SICK of it. This Union shall NEVER, with my consent, BE RE-STORED under the Constitution as it is." Now, the Union as it was, says a cotemporary, was a Union of free and elave States, and such it has always been. Our fathers took the States as they were, and formed a Union with them as they were. That was the only possible Union THEN. and it is the only possible Union NOW. They did not undertake to remodel the States, to make them uniform on the subject of slavery. They knew it was a task beyond their power, and beyond their right to undertake. It never occurred to them to confer on a part of the States the power to force a uniformity. In the Government and naval service of the United States, they made they conferred no such power, such number of volunteers of African de- tence, arms and equipments of such vol and those who administer it violate their

been done, and what has been probeen donc, and what has been pro-duced upon the farm, and also what stock, &c., we have on the farm. Of course, since last spring, there has been but little yield from the farm, but under a proper system of cultivation, we have no doubt its productiveness will in a few years be very much enhanced. The abundance of 27.20 coal and limestone upon the land is an important item There is also a sufficiency of tumber for fuel, 100 52 fencing and building, if properly ractor used. For the latter purposes an arrangement has been made with the owners of a portable steam saw mill, by which means the timber said upon all the farm, not fit for rails, v of can be cheaply converted into lumber. In conclusion, the Directors invite the tax-paying community who have an interest in the institution to visit the farm and house, and judge for themselves as to their condition and management. C. A. BLACK. AARON SHELBY, WILLIAM DAVIS. Poor House Directors. Jan. 8th, 1863. EXHIBIT.
