Among the recent appointments is noticed that of Miss Gillespie, of Luray, Virginia, to a place in the Internal Revenue Office. There are some circumstances connected with this appointment which are of much interest. Miss Gillespie is the daughter of Dr. Gillespie, of Luray, whose familie is one of the most respectable and distincted in that region. The Doutor and all his household, stood up for the Union in the beginning. -For this loyalty to their country they were stripped by the rebels of everything they had in the world, E would respectfully direct the attention of citivens of Waynesburg and vicinity to the vast and universally admitted superiority of the Pianos made by STEINWAY & SONS, New York.
The tone of these instruments more nearly resembles the "human voice" in the prolonged and singing qual tities of their sound; and they combine in a wonderful degree POWER and SWEETNESS. Both for brilliant instrumental performance, and as an accompatiment to vocal music, they are altogether unrivalled.

We Challenge Comparison, and we War rant them superior in gvery respect to anything els: and from a home surrounded by every luxury and comfort, they were thrust out upon the world destitute and dependent. Dr. Gillespie's services were secured in the Surgeon General's office, and now the beautithe instrumentality of Miss Kate Chase, (who never misses the opportunity of doing a kind action,) and Mr. Wetmore, the Agent for Ohio, has been blaced in a position of comful and interesting daughter, through has the placed in a position of comparation independence.
