One Hundred and Seventy Acres,

Thursday, April 30th,

Two Hundred Acres,

The Gazette's Indianapolis special says: There has been a great reaction of public sentiment in this State since the adjournment of the Legislature. No doubts are entertained of the prompt enforcement of the conscript law. At no time since the conscript law. At no time since the commencement of the rebellion have the Union men felt more encouraged than at the present.

Memphis dispatches say it is known for certain that the Sunflower expedition arrived safely at its destination, and that a large force under Gen, Sherman has landed above Haines' Bluff.
