thing, For all unfinished was love's jewelled ring, 'Till set with this soft pearl;

The shade that time brought forth, I could not see. How frail, how perfect, seemed the gift to me!

Oh! many a soft old tune I used to sing unto that deadened ear, And suffered not the lightest footstep Lest she might wake too soon:

And hushed her brothers' laughter while she lay-Ah! needless care! I might have let them play!

"Twas long e'er I believed That this one daughter might not speak to

Waited and watched, God knows how patiently; How willingly deceived:

Vain love was long the untiring nurse of faith

And tended hope, until it starved to death Oh! if she could but hear For one short hour, till I her tongue might teach To call me Mother, in the broken speech . That thrills the mother's ear!

Aras those sealed lips never may be atirred To the deep music of that lovely word.

My heart is sorely tried To see her kneel, with such a reverent air Beside her brothers, at their evening prayer;

Or lift those earnest eyea To watch our lips, as though our words

Then move her own, as she were speaking, toe.

I've watched her looking up To the bright wonder of a sunset sky, With such a depth of meaning in her eye, That I could almost hope The struggling soul would burst its binding corde, has the long pent up thoughts flow forth in words.

The song of bird and bee, The chorus of the breezes, streams, and groves,

All the grand music to which Nature moves. Are wasted melody

To her; the world of sound a tuneless void. While even silence hath its charm de aroyed.

Her face is very fair! Her blue eyes beautiful! of finest mould The soft white brow, o'er which in waves of gold Ripples her shining hair! Alasi this lovely temple closed must be,

For He who made it, keeps the master-Wills He the mind within

Should from earth's babel-clamor be kept free. might be Heard at its inner shrine, Through that deep hush of soul, with clearer thrill?

heart be still!

She seems to have a sense Of quiet gladness in her noiseless play; She hath a pleasant smile—a gentle way Whese voiceless eloquence Touches all hearts; though I had once the 🤝 fear That e'en her father would not care for

Thank God, it is not so ! And when his sons are playing merrily, She comes and leans her head upon his knee-

Oh! at such times, I know By his full eye, and tones subdued and mild.

How his heart yearns toward his silent child.

Not of all gifts bereft! E'en now, how could I say she did not speak?

What real language lights her eye and cheek. And renders thanks to Him, who

Unto her soul, yet open avenues

For joy to enter, and for love to use. And God in love doth give

To her defect, a beauty of its own, And we, a deeper tenderness have known Through that for which we grieve.

Yet shall the seal be melted from her ear Yea, and my voice shall fill it, but-"not

When that new sense is given, What rapture will its first experience be,

That never woke to meaner melody Than the rich songs of heaven! To hear the full toned anthem swelling round. While angels teach the ecstacies of sound!

A BEAUTIPUL CORPSE.

Some time since, in clearing out FALL AND the ruins of an old chapel in wickshire, England, says an English paper, several lead coffins were exhumed, containing embalmed bodies which were buried more than two M. B. Corner 4th and Market Street hundred years ago. The coffin which contained the body of Lady Aubrey Leigh, buried in 1640, was opened, and the body found perfectly embalmed, and in entire preservation, her flesh quite plump, as if she were alive her face very beautiful, her hands exceedingly small, and not wasted, she was dressed in fine linen, trimmed all over in old point lace, and two rows of lace were laid flat across her forehead. Her beauty was very great; even her eyelashes and eyebrows were quite periect, and hereyes were closed; no part of her face or agure was at all fallen its.

STEINWAY & SONS' PLEMITH PLAMOS.

THE BEST PIANOS IN THE WORLD. WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

W E would respectfully direct the attention of citizens of Waynesburg and vicinity to the vast and universally admitted superiority of the Pianos made by STEINWAY & SONS, New York.

The tone of these instruments more nearly resembles the "human voice" in the prolonged and singing qualities of their wound; and they combine in a wonderful degree POWER and SWEKTNESS. Both for brilliant instrumental performance, and as an accompaniment to vocal music, they are altogether unrivalled.

We Challenge Comparison, and we Warrant them superior in every respect to anything else in the shape of a Piano Forte.

SALE OF VALVABLE REAL ESTATE.

The undersigned, hereby offers at private sale the farm on which he at present resides, situate in Richill township, Greene County, adjoining lands of Wilson Vanstia, Daniel Gooden, James Gribben, James 228 ACRES. about one hundred and twenty-five acres of which are cleared, and on which are erected a Brick Dwelling House, fifty feet by thirty-four, containing nine reoms, a large Frame Barn and a Frame Stable, and other out-buildings. There is a fountain of water at the door, and a fine orchard of young fruit trees on the premises, together with an inexhaustible supply of coal. This property has been used as a Tavern Stand for a great number of years by my late father Samuel Vanatta, Esq., and is well calculated for the purpose, heing situated on the leading road connecting the Ohio and the Monongahela rivers, and is within sezen miles of the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. It is well worth the attention of purchasers, and will be sold

ON REASONABLE TERMS. I would had that the adjoining farm of Wilson Vanatta will be sold along with it if desired, containing two hundred and fitteen acres, having erected on it a val-uable Steam mill. The two farms would make a very uable Steam mil. The two farms would make a sold desirable stock farm.

Persons desiring to purchase may learn the terms by application to the Hon. Jesse Lazear, in Waynesburg, or to the subscriber on the premises.

PROSPECTUS

"THE AGE," National Democratic Newspaper to be Published Daily and Weekly in the City of Philadelphia, Penna., BY A. J. GLOSSBRENNER, & CO.. A. J. GLOSSBRENNER, FRANCIS J. GRUND. WILLIAM II. WELSII.

THE AGE will advocate the principles and policy o the Democratic party, and will, therefore, neces-sarily fayor the restoration of the Union as it was, and defend the Constitution of the United States, and than of this Commonwealth.

It will freely and fairly discuss all legitimate subjects of newspaper comment, including, of course, and preeminently at this time, all questions connected with the existing unhappy condition of our country.

It will fearlessly criticise the public acts of public servants, and defend the legal and constitutional rights of individual citizens and sovereign states, against assaults from any quarter. saults from any quarter.

It will seek to awaken the minds of the people to a proper sense of the actual condition of the Republic-to present to them, truthfully, the fearful perils in which we stand as a nation—to exhibit the magnitude of the task that is before them, if they would check our downward progress—and to inspire them with patri-our determination to apply the remedy for our national ills.

In brief, it will, in all things, aim to be the faithful exponent of Democratic principles, and to reader itself worthy to be an organ of the Democratic party, under whose auspices our country prospered so long and so well. The restoration of that party—the party of the Constitution and the Union-to power in the legislative and executive governmental branches of the States and of the Union, we believe to be necessary to avert anarchy, and the utter ruin of the Republic. To contribute to that restoration will be our high-

net. To continue to that restoration will be our nightest aim.

The News, Literary, Commercial, and other departments, will receive due attention, and will be so conducted as to make "The Age" worthy of the support of the general reader.

—The many difficulties now surrounding an enterprise of the magnitude of that in which the undersigned are engaged, require them to appeal to the public for a generous support, and to ask for "The Age" a liberal patronage and extended circulation.

The present state of the preparatory arrangements warrant the expectation, that the first number of the Daily will appear before the close of the present month (February, 1863.) The Weekly will be issued soon thereafter.

THALBERG, one of the most eminent pianists in the world, says: "I have great pleasure in certifying that I have tried your Pianos, and find them equal, if not superior, to any in this country. Among their great qualities, which distinguish them, is the evenness of tone, the agreeable and easy touch, and volume of tone. Wishing you all the success you so highly deserve, I am, sir, yours truly. S. THALBERG."

C. GROBE, the well known composer, Wilmington, Delaware, says that "they cannot be surpassed by any in the market."

H. VIEUXTEMPTS writes:—"I was delighted on hearing the clear and full true of one of your first class Pianos." 'lanos.''
