CINCINNATI, June 3.—The Gazette's Cairo special learns from an officer just from Vicksburg that the base of the Federal lines extends from the right to the left on the Mississippi, and from the Yazoo to the lower part of Vicksburg, over six miles.-In the rear our lines come up to the rebel lines, east of the town. We hold undisputed possession of everything between Big Black Bridge, and sixty feet of the hills in the rear of the rebel army. Grant has captured over fifty pieces of field artillery since the fight at Port Gibson. At last accounts General Frank Desertors report the rebel losses exceedingly heavy on the 22nd. The cessation of hostilites on the 21st was for the purpose of letting the women and children leave the city.

A dispatch from Somerset, Ky., on the 2nd, says that twenty refugees come in that morning from East Tennessee. There are but few rebel troops in Knoxville, but many had passed through recently going west. The rebel pickets on the Cumberland have resumed their old position. -----
