

DEMOCRATIC County Mass Meeting!

A MASS MEETING of the Democracy of Greene County will be held at WAYNESBURG On Thursday the 20th of August, 1863.

Democratic Township Meetings!

In accordance with the usages of the Democratic party, which on all occasions has boldly challenged free discussion of its principles and claimed the right to criticize the conduct of public servants, public meetings will be held in this county at the times and places mentioned below:

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

A meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee of Pennsylvania was held at the Merchants' Hotel on Tuesday, August 11, 1863. The Chairman, Hon. Charles J. Biddle, called the Committee to order, and in doing so made some appropriate remarks.

DEMOCRATIC STATE EDITORIAL CONVENTION.

ADJOURNED MEETING. Pursuant to the resolution adopted at the last meeting, the Convention assembled at the Merchants' Hotel, in the city of Philadelphia, at 3 o'clock, on Tuesday, August 11th.

On motion, Henry Ward and J. A. Fulton were appointed permanent Secretaries. The following papers were presented: Lancaster Intelligencer, Hon. George Sanderson; Johnstown Democrat, James F. Campbell; Bedford Gazette, B. F. Meyers; Waynesburg Messenger, R. W. Jones; Clearfield Republican, G. B. Goodlander; Pennsylvania Argus, J. M. Laird; Lebanon Advertiser, W. M. Brevlin; Schuylkill Times, Franklin Merrick; Democrat and Sentinel, Ebersburg, Jas. S. Todd; Patriot and Union, Henry Ward; Mentor, Kittanning, J. Alex. Fulton; Sullivan Co. Democrat, Michael Weigert; Centre Democrat, Fred. Kurtz; Bellefonte Watchman, P. G. Meek; McKean County Democrat, J. B. Platt; Democratic Standard, N. C. Barclay; Reading Adler, Chas. Kessler; Pittsburgh Post, J. P. Barr; Fulton Democrat, H. G. Smith; Easton Sentinel, D. H. Newman; Sunday Mercury, F. W. Grayson; Evening Journal, Charles N. Fine.

Resolved, That the Committee on Resolutions reported the following, which were unanimously adopted: Whereas, The freedom of speech and of the press has ever been a cherished right, founded as well in reason as in law, and guaranteed to us by the Constitution of the United States as well as the Constitution of Pennsylvania;

Resolved, That we emphatically denounce every attempt to interfere with or abridge the liberty of speech or of the press, whether it be by the unlawful arrest and imprisonment of public speakers and editors, or by suppressing newspapers by either mob violence or pretended civil or military authority.

Filling up the Regiments.

The Chairman of the State Central Committee having been introduced, some discussion took place upon the best mode of circulating political intelligence through the press of the State, and the proper disposition of party patronage, in which Messrs. Barr, Jones, Neimann, Grayson, Ward, Kessler, Fulton, and others participated.

Communications.

The following communication is from an old subscriber, and one of the most estimable and peaceable men in the county:—

Newtown, Aug. 9th, 1863. Messrs. Jones & Jennings:—Your readers have no doubt heard of a little difficulty which occurred in Newtown, on Saturday the 23d, ult., which had its origin in that spirit of dictation and bravado which has unfortunately characterized the conduct of certain returned soldiers; we don't mean all, (many of them behave like gentlemen) and that the public may have a correct history of the facts connected with this political fracas, I will merely state that some weeks before this occurrence two young men by the name of Fordyce (one of whom recently returned from the army) were in the habit of visiting Newtown, for the purpose, as stated by them, of frightening the Copperheads, and one of them had made the declaration "that he could run the damned Copperheads all out of the town by exposing to view the mouth of a bottle for a revolver."

Resolved, That while we have lost another one of our family circle, and a friend whose hand was ever ready to relieve a brother in distress, one who cherished the principles of the Order, we who survive him hereby renew our attachment to our beloved Order.

Resolved, That we tender our sympathies to those parents and friends who have experienced this "sad casualty of war," and bid them take comfort in the reflection that their sacrifice was sanctified by the altar on which it was offered.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Rappahannock Again to be the Great Battle-ground. [Fredericksburg Correspondence (Aug. 5) of the Richmond Examiner.] Your correspondent, in picket phrase, has been "driven in." Stafford is again in possession of the enemy, and the old line of the Rappahannock seems to be re-asserted, and will doubtless become the subject and scene of yet another bloody conflict.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING AT CARMICHAELS.

On Saturday, the 15th inst., a large and respectable meeting of the Democracy of Cumberland township was held at Carmichaels and organized by the election of the following officers: P. F. VERNON, President.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT TO THE MEMORY OF WM. DELANEY, OF CAPT. WORK'S COMPANY PA. CAVALRY.

WHEREAS, The hand of God touched us and we are called to mourn the loss of our fellow-soldier, WM. DELANEY, who died in Cumberland Hospital on the 14th of July. Therefore, Resolved, That in his death we have a sad realization of the mysterious workings of God, yet we know "He doeth all things well," hence we murmur not.

Resolved, That we tender our sympathies to those parents and friends who have experienced this "sad casualty of war," and bid them take comfort in the reflection that their sacrifice was sanctified by the altar on which it was offered.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and that they also be published in the Waynesburg papers, and in the Washington Reporter and Tribune.

THE DISASTER ON THE MISSISSIPPI.

CAIRO, August 5. The steamer Ruth, Captain Pegram, left Cairo last night at eleven o'clock, with a small passenger list and 600 tons of freight, bound for Helena. Her load consisted partly of about 100 head of fat cattle for the army, and 122 mules.

NEW YORK, August 17.—A Tribune special says:—An officer just returned from Charleston confirms our previous statements. He says it is next to impossible to batter down Wagner, that the men keep under bombardments upon which our shot and shell produce no effect; that the only way the fort can be carried is by direct assault, which will not be attempted.

MEMPHIS, August 10.—During the session of the court-martial at Corinth to-day, an altercation occurred between Col. Cornyn, of the 10th Missouri Cavalry, and Lieut. Col. Bowen, of the same regiment.
