dured of pain and authoring, bas been a frequent theme of praise.-Rev. Dr. Monfort, the Editor of The Presider, having just returned from visiting his son, who was wounded at Gottysburg, adds this testimony from personal observation;

Without an exception, as far as we had an opportunity of observing, they expressed their willing sair, Farcer's neas to suffer and die in the cause of the fall of house indirect the country. Their joy at the fall of Vicksburg and Port Hudson, and at the prospect of the fall of Charleston, was expressed in terms of animated triumph. Wounded and mained, living or dying, they seem to resign everything to have a country, and they have no higher ambition than to have aided in the consummation. These men have a right to the heart of the country. Let them have the offices they need and are fitted to fill. We trust that, other things being equal, the men with one leg will be able to out run, for office, those who have two. We hope that men with one arm will be prices. The Lotton Bales on Fort Sumtor.

An Englishman in Charleston, and do our utmost to please you. We have made arrangements with one of the best Marchant Tailors in Pittsburgh to manufacture goods to order, which they follows to his brother in the latter will city:- I was employed at Fort Sumter yesterday in making iron bands and hooks for cotton bales, around siring goods "my the latest style. each of which two strong iron bands are rivetted, each connected with a flat chain behind the bale, and run- or spring goods in be passing our est ning up endwise; in which position it is lowered down to the bottom of the wall; on the top of this lower row of bales, others are fitted and lowered in a similar manner; the next upper tier protecting the suspending chain of the lower, so that it is only the iron bands around the bales exposed to the shot of the enmy. Under this mode of defence, only the guns and port holes are exposed. The beaviest guns were bried here against bales of compressed cotton, without making much impression; indeed in many cases, the shot rebounded thirty or forty feet. This mode of defence seems to render Fort Sumter impregnable, but as fresh troops are pourit g into Charlestrn, the capture of Fort Wagner by assualt is a matter of doubt. If such should be the result, however, it is but one step toward the capture of Charleston. Even if Fort Sumter were rendered untenable, it is already to be blown up and laid in ruins. Even then by far the strongest defences of Charleston remain, of which no description could give any adequate

A GOOD AND BEAUTIFUL IDEA. We perceive that Governor Curtin, of Pennsylvania, has hit upon STROSNIDER & SIMINGTON the happy thought of buying some ten or twenty acres of the great and glorious battlefield of Gettysburg as a cemetry for the heroes who there laid down their lives that the nation might live. This beautiful idea we hope will be fully carried out, including a special division of the field to the soldiers of each State connected with the army of the Union, and a national obelisk on Cemetery Hill, with the names engraved upon it of every regiment, and with a book inande containing the name, State, regment and company of every soldier in those three days battles, and in the outside incidental operations. We are glad to be assured at the same time that the Union soldiers of this war who have died on other fields will not be forgotten, but that in some suitable way the government will preserve their names for the remembrance of a grateful posterity.

in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced egainst them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indepted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removat of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and montal vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despoired of regaining. I therefere thack God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

April 8, '63.-3m We call the attention of all having friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will core nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camplife. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the diseaset organs are speedly removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Biners."

Phplhiadvli, A ugust 23rd, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans:—Well gentlemen, your Hooffand's German Bitters have saved my life.—
There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by nambers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's relevanted battery, and under the immediate command of Capt. R. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my arounds duties. I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the Steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 25th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and yetrontain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was a carcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again. Pittsburgh, Pa. Also, dealers in Leather Belting, Lace Leathforce a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stom ach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the shysicians who had been working faithfully, though unauccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to sea a clergy man, and to make such disposition of my limited tunds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a foilorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters for wague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in hife. Very truly Yours,
