Oh! how proud you stood before me, In your suit of blue, When you vowed to me and country Ever to be true.

Chorus-Weeping sad and lonely ! Hopes and tears how vain. Praying when this cruel war is over, Praying that we meet again.

When the summer breeze is sighing, Mournfully along; Or when autumn's leaves are falling, Sadly breathes the song. · Oft in dreams I see thee lying On the battle plain, Lonely, wounded, even dying, Calling, but in vain. Chorus-Weeping, sad, &c.

If, amid the din of battle Nobly you should fall, Far away from those who love you, None to hear you call-

Who would whisper words of comfort, Who would soothe your pain? Ah! the many cruel fancies Ever in my brain. Chorus-Weeping, sad, &c.

But our country called you, darling, Angels cheer your way; While our nation's sons are fighting,

We can only pray. Nobly strike for God and country, Let all nations see

How we love the starry banner, Emblem of the free. Chorus-Weeping, sad, &c.

CURIOUS DISCOVERY OF A MISS-ING WILL.

The Hartford (Conn.,) Courant says :- Geo. Martinson, a gentleman well advanced in years, and well known in this city, died some eight or nine months ago, leaving a hand-some property. His heirs were his widow and two or three children.-There was also an adopted daughter. Careful search was made but no will could be discovered. So the estate went into probate. The six months allowed were just expiring, and the next day the property was to be divided among the heirs. The Press says that day the widow noticed an old pair of pantaloons of her husband's hanging in the cellar way, and gave them to an Irishwoman at work for her, saying she could wash them up, and may be they'd be good for something. As she took them to the wash tub she felt a paper in one of the pockets. It was the missing will. Among the bequests it gave the house and lot, worth $5,000, to the adopted daughter.

The following letter was lately sent by Victor Hugo to Lamartine: Dear Lamartine: A great affliction has stricken you. I wish to place my heart near yours. I reverenced her whom you loved. Your elevated spirit sees beyond the horizon; you perceive distinctly the life to come. It is not to you that it is necessary to say 'Hope." You are of those who know, and who wait, she is still your companion, invisible but present. You have lost the wife, but not the soul. Dear friend, let us live in the dead. Yours, Victor Hugo.

in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not feit for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefere thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

PHPLHIADVLI, A ugus! 23rd, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans:—Well gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters have saved my life.—

There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Capt. R. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my aronous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the Steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and yet ontain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again. WINDOW SHADES, TABLE OIL CLOTHS, CARRIAGE CLOTHS. Also, dealers in Leather Belting, Lace Leather, Indiau Rulber Belting, Hose Steam Packing, Tubing, Wheat Drills I could not even keep a glass of water on my stom ach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no-more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my fimited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. Fo your invaluable Bitters I owe the certamty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious Tubes, Clothing, and all other articles made of Indian Rubber, &c., &c. Wholesale and retail buyers will find our stock large well selected, and at the lowest prices. April 24, 1862—ly.
