OUR CHICKENS. We rendered our "Roosters" last week, to Monsieur Evans of the "Republican," as we were likely to have no use for them this Fall...

WAYNEBURG, PA. Wednesday, Oct. 21, 1863.

FOR PRESIDENT IN 1864, GEN. GEO. B. McCLELLAN.

(Subject to the Decision of the Democratic National Convention.) While the army is fighting, you as citizens see that the war is prosecuted for the preservation of the Union...

GEN. GEORGE B. McCLELLAN.

We mail to our mast-head, this week, the name of this gallant soldier and popular favorite as our candidate for the Presidency in 1864, subject to Democratic rules and usages.

1476!

Above is the majority of WOODWARD in gallant Little Greene. It is a gain of some four hundred votes on the last gubernatorial election...

Col. Hopkins. The majority for Col. Hopkins in this county, it will be seen by the official vote in another column, is 1408.

OUR COMMON SCHOOLS. The new school building in this District will be completed in a few weeks and ready for occupancy.

THE "HOW" OF IT. Forney's Washington City Chronicle said, a day or two before the election, that 9,000 had left there to vote in Pennsylvania...

NEW TYPE. If any kind patrons will promptly respond to our late call for a little of the "needful," we will present the Messenger to them in an elegant new dress in a few weeks.

COOL.—Forney says that "in the hands of a corrupt ruler" the powers claimed by the President would be dangerous.

While the Republicans are for the war as it is, the Democrats are against it, and the Union as it wasn't.

OUR CHICKENS

We rendered our "Roosters" last week, to Monsieur Evans of the "Republican," as we were likely to have no use for them this Fall...

OUR COMMON SCHOOLS. The new school building in this District will be completed in a few weeks and ready for occupancy.

THE RESULT. The result of the late election has not disappointed us. Since Gov. Curtin, in his Pittsburgh speech, declared his purpose to scatter the "blue blouses and brass buttons over the Commonwealth..."

VARIOUS MATTERS.

In fifty years from this time people will travel hundreds of miles to see that ball Lincoln and Seward cast into prison...

HOW THE ELECTIONS ARE CARRIED.—The telegraphic correspondence of the Cincinnati Commercial, from Columbus, Ohio, dated October 6, states:

THE CONSCRIPTION IN CONNECTICUT.—In Hartford the number of men drafted under the Federal conscription law, was 1,127.

OPERATIONS OF THE PENSION BUREAU.—By the monthly report of the operations of the Pension Bureau, it appears that during the month of September 1,374 invalid pensions were granted, 250 applications were refused, and 1,158 widows' pensions issued.

EXPENDITURES FOR THE ARMY.—It is calculated that the expenditures of the quartermaster's department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1863, will amount to somewhere in the neighborhood of $375,000,000 or $400,000,000.

SWARMING THE ROAD.—Gov. Andrew promised that if the Administration would adopt an Abolition policy, the roads of New England should swarm with volunteers.

A CRASH.—When this war ends—and the longer it lasts the worse will be the consequence—there will be the greatest revulsion, the most terrific financial crash ever experienced in the country.

ON TWO CONTRACTORS.

To rob the public two contractors come; One cheats in corn, the other cheats in rum. Which is the greater, if you can explain, A rogue in spirit, or a rogue in grain?

A specimen of the new postage currency from the Government shops in the Treasury Department, is described as "about up to the average of a bottle label."

A man coerced against his will, To go to war, will seldom kill.

Wisconsin raises 30,000, and spares 200,000,000 bushels of wheat this year.

THE HARFORD TIMES says in the fall town elections in Connecticut, the Democrats have done better than for eight years before.

FALSE. It is false that the Democracy are disloyal. It is false that the Democracy are opposed to putting down rebellion.

THE COMING CONGRESS TO ABOLISH SLAVERY. The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune a few weeks since wrote as follows:

Pittsburgh Commercial. We find among our exchanges a new paper called the Pittsburgh Daily Commercial. It is neatly printed and ably edited, and black enough politically to suit the most fastidious Republican.

THE TRUE OBJECTS OF THE WAR. Senator Ten Eyck, of New Jersey, in the course of a speech in the last Congress on the tax bill, expressed these sound sentiments:

THE OHIO ELECTION. Cincinnati, Oct. 15th.—The returns of 71 counties in the State give 59-700 majority.

INDIANA. The Abolitionists have gained largely in Indiana, and have carried Lapeer. They have also carried Nebraska.
