THE OLD FARM-HOUSE.

At the foot of the hill near the old red mill. In a quiet, shady spot, Just peeping through, half hid from view,

Stands a little moss grown cot; And straying through, at the open door, The sunbeams play on the sanded floor.

The easy chair, all patched with care.

Is placed by the old hearthstone;

With witching grace, in the old fire-place, The evergreens are strewn. And pictures hang on the whitened wall,

And the old clock ticks in the cottage hall.

More lovely still, on the window sill, The dew-eyed flowers rest. Where 'midet the leaves, on the mossgrown eaves,

The martin builds her nest, And all day long the summer breeze Is whispering love to the bending trees.

Over the door, all covered o'er With a sack of dark green baize, Lies a musket old, whose worth is told In the events of other days; And the powder flask and the hunter's hora Have hung beside it for many a morn.

For years have fled with a noiseless tread.

Like fairy dreams away, And left in their flight, and shorn of his might,

A father—old and gray; And the soft wind plays with his snowwhite hair.

As the old man sleeps in his easy chair.

In at the door, on the sanded floor, Light, fairy footsteps glide, And a maiden fair, with flaxen hair.

Kneels by the old man's side-While the ivy clings to its trembling form.
