Bond. Our camp fires last night were blazing along the crest of the whole ridge, a distance of eight miles. Gen. Bragg is expected to withdraw under cover of the night. At dark Bragg was in a line of battle to cover the Knoxville Railroad It is believed that he will not hazard another battle. Our army is aglow with enthusiasm and eager to pursue.

Prisoners report the rebel army terribly demoralized and incapable of offering serious resistance. Also, that Bragg will fall back to Atlanta, Ga. Genera Barnan occupies Tunnel Hill, which completes our line along the whole length of Missionary Ridge.

Gen. Bragg's Rout Complete.

Sixty Pleces of Artillery and a Large Number of Prisoners Captured.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The following from Grant was received this morning at ten minutes after three: CHATTANOOGA, 1 o'clock a. m. Nov. 27. To Maj. Gen. Halleck:

I am just in from the front. The rout of the enemy is most complete.where to be found. I think Bragg's loss will fully reach sixty pieces of artillery. A large number of prisoners have fallen into our hands. The pursuit will continue to Red Clay in the morning, for which place I shall start in a few hours. U. S. GRANT, (Signed,)

Major General. We have official authority for assering that in the several battles just fought pefore Chattanooga we have captured at least seven thousand prisoners.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofand's Gernan Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for meny years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for excouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debitity. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigus which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I thesefore, that the and my friend for directing me to the use of thom.

A ND THE PRIENTS OF SCHOOLSE.

We call the attention of all having friends in the army to the fact that "MOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will care mine-tentis of the discuss indicted his exposures and privations incident to campille. In the clints, neblished almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cared by Hoofland's Gentile Bitters. Diamnes resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedly removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were fixely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.
